

Daniel Antman

Daniel Antman is a recent graduate of the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign School of Architecture. He grew up in Evanston, going to District 65 and graduating from Evanston Township High School. He has professional experience in both landscaping and roofing solutions as well as academic experience in building design, urban planning and construction. He is working as an AutoCad Drafter at a roofing company where he designs insulation systems for commercial and residential roofs in and around Chicago. In addition to his professional and academic work, his hobbies include woodworking, cooking and music. He has always been fascinated in the history of Evanston and is looking forward to being part of the community building and preservation work of the History Center board.

Tosha Wilson

Tosha Wilson is a proud 5th generation Evanstonian she grew up in the area of Church Street and Florence Avenue She attended District 65 schools and graduated from Evanston Township High School in 1996. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Illinois State University in 2001 and a Master's Degree in Children's Law and Policy from Loyola Law School in 2017. She is currently a detective with the Evanston Police Department and serves as a coach for the legendary basketball league F.A.A.M in Evanston, IL. She is an adoptive parent of two young adults, enjoys watching sports in her spare time and currently serves on the Board of Girls Play Sports to build on her passion of helping young girls find leadership skills through sports.