CALL FOR ARTISTS FOR THE 2019 OLIVE HYDE ART GUILD'S HOLIDAY SHOW AND SALE DECEMBER 6, 7, & 8, 2019

It's that time of year to think about the Olive Hyde Art Guild's annual holiday show and sale. If you were an accepted artist in the show this past year with successful sales, you are invited to go to our website: olivehydeartguild.org and pull down the Holiday for Arts menu. There you will find more information about the show, plus applications for returning artists. These applications can be submitted electronically or printed out and mailed to the post office box listed on the print application. At this time, we only have 17 new artist applications and would love to encourage more participation. Please encourage any new talent you find to be part of our show by encouraging them to check our website and apply to have their work screened on September 14, 2019. Answers to artist's questions may also be found on the website.

Muses and Moments: Olive Hyde Art Guild Scholarship Awards Reception 5.17.2019

Submitted by Radhika Sharma/ Images by Preston Merchant

Olive Hyde Art Guild's 2019 Scholarship reception featured six artists and their work; the Art Guild felicitated these artists with honorable mentions and a $2000.00 award in two categories and a one year membership to the Olive Hyde Art Guild.

The finalists were seniors Shuyan Chen from American High School, Lillian Guo from Mission San Jose High School, and Ashley Lau from Irvington High School. The finalists from Ohlone College were Alyssa Campos, Aaron Godwin and Vanessa White.

Celebrated guest jurors were artist and guild member, Kay Hille-Hatten, and Carolina Gainey-Vejar, gallery curator at the CSU East Bay University Art Gallery. The four honorable mentions received a $250.00 gift card from an art supply store. Ms. Megan Olsen, mentor of Shuyan Chen from American High School was the winning High School professor. Ms. Olsen received a $500.00 award for classroom art supplies. The six artists shared their thoughts about their work, their processes, muses and their future plans.

Alyssa Campos $2000.00 Scholarship Prize winner

Mostly a self-taught artist Alyssa started young and started drawing at the age of 3 or 4. In the year 2018 she took up a new medium: painting and mixed media 3 D design. Her current teacher Dina Rubiolo, the OHAG scholarship chair encouraged her to try new mediums. Her personal favorite work, is the mixed media, 3D design clock. The wireframe clock took about 15 hours over two weeks to make and is illustrative of the passing of time, the inevitable questions of immortality vs. mortality. Alyssa has been accepted to Cal State East Bay and will focus on graphic design during her time there.

Shuyan Chen $2000.00 Scholarship Prize Winner

"First the idea comes to me. Then I sketch the idea in a thumb nail, and if it appears alright, I proceed with them. Then I outline it on canvas and add layers after layers of paint till it becomes as detailed as possible."

Soft spoken Shuyan spoke at length about her work. "I am fascinated by old traditional portraits and hence decided to create these images of European young ladies." Growing up in China, Shuyan had only seen similar paintings in books and online and did not have access to museums or tours. While Shuyan started learning about art at age 9, it was not until two years ago that she started making these European paintings. Each painting takes one to three weeks to create. Shuyan moved to the United States at age 16 and then became aware of artists and how they could make a career out of passion for art. Her future plans include working as an illustrator and going to art college.

President's Message

Happy New Year! This is the first newsletter of the Guild's new fiscal year, which began July 1st, and your Board is off and running. Membership renewals is the first item of business. If you haven't sent in your renewal yet, please do so soon so that Lorrice Wong is able to include your name in the new Membership Roster next month. Our membership continues to grow – Olive Hyde is the place to be!

The Annual Membership and Installation Dinner at Papillon Restaurant in June was an opportunity to relax, meet new members, and have fun (without worrying about preparing an appetizer, setting up tables and chairs, or cleaning up the kitchen!). A huge thank-you to Susan Johnson, Lorrice Wong, and Kay Hille-Hatton for making it all happen so elegantly. During the evening, outgoing President Elaina Habel gave special recognition to Karen Dobmeier for her many "tech savvy" contributions to the Guild. Karen has been instrumental in setting up our credit card system so that we can accept all credit cards for purchases at the Holiday Show & Sale. Elaina also recognized Joan Bobrink for her willingness to serve wherever needed, especially for her work on the Nominating Committee. Elaina said Joan has an uncanny ability to introduce new people to the Guild who become members. Elaina was also recognized for guiding the Guild through a rather demanding year filled with several Board vacancies and challenging projects. Elaina didn't receive her outgoing President's gift (as is customary) until the August Board meeting where she was presented with a beautiful colorful glass vase. Thank-you, Elaina, for serving as our Capitan and steering us through some tumultuous waters.

While the Board took the month of July off, things continued to happen. The artists' reception for the Members' Juried Show was the largest in a long time. The exhibit was totally fantastic – the best ever. Thank you to Chair Judy Anglin and Committee Members Susan Longini, Sue Saracco, and Diane Leys for putting together a truly memorable show. Music on the patio by the Newark Saxophone Quartet was an added feature of the evening.

And then there was the reception for the 51st Annual Textile Exhibit on August 9th. Another extremely well-received exhibit. The reception, headed up by one of our new Hospitality Hosts Lauren Shaver, was another home run and made me proud to be a Guild Member. Thank you, Lauren, for an outstanding job.

As we begin our new year, I encourage you to look for opportunities to become more involved in your Guild. If you would like some suggestions, let me know!

Gail Blalock, OHAG President

The following members are requested to bring enough canapés or sweets for 15 people and help prior, during and after the reception with setup, kitchen food prep or at the bar. If you cannot bring your food or help, please arrange for a substitute. If you have any questions please call Lauren Shaver 510.396.0061 or Karen Dobmeier at 510.378.9090. Thank you!
