

2019 WESTFALL EDUCATION FOUNDATION SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

Each year, the Westfall Education Foundation honors a community member who has demonstrated service to the Westfall Community by giving of his or her time, talents and treasures. The honoree exemplifies service to others. This year the Westfall Education Foundation's honoree is Mrs. Diane Williams. Mrs. Williams used her time and talents as a vocal music teacher and school play director at Westfall High School. The performances and plays Mrs. Williams produced were exceptional, and the students were committed to excellence. With Mrs. Williams' guidance, the students presented enjoyable concerts and shows for their audiences. These events were well attended by community members as well. Mrs. Williams' conveyed to her students how important music and performing arts can be, regardless of whether you are the performer or a member of the audience.
