NEWSLETTER: In the last 2 weeks, I have received a few complaints that some members at random are not getting their newsletter emails on Sat PM / Sun AM. Unless a member changes their email address, I do NOT make unilateral changes to my newsletter email list. This same list is used every week to send out the weekly email telling you that the newsletter has been posted. I cannot explain why some members do not get this email, and neither can the experts I talk to, except to say "this is cyberspace and things happen in cyberspace." You may want to talk to your internet provider and see if they can give you a better explanation. What I do want to make clear, is that you DO NOT need my emails to get your newsletter. Just go direct to the YIC website at www.youngisraelofchomedey.com and click on the newsletter link, and the current newsletter is on top of the list. That's it! My email just informs you that it has been posted to our website late Saturday night. Try it - you'll like it!!

NOTE: If you read the Gazette, there was a major and very interesting article in Thursday's edition re Harley Finkelstein, George's nephew I believe, who is COO of Shopify, a major player in e-commerce who's company is based in Ottawa. Harley recently won a Canadian Angel Investor of the Year Award, so a huge MAZAL TOV to the Finkelstein family.

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION
The Parshah in a Nutshell

Balak

Numbers 22:2-25:9

Balak, the king of Moab, summons the prophet Balaam to curse the people of Israel. On the way, Balaam is berated by his donkey, who sees, before Balaam does, the angel that G-d sends to block their way. Three times, from three different vantage points, Balaam attempts to pronounce his curses; each time, blessings issue forth instead. Balaam also prophesies on the end of the days and the coming of Moshiach.

The people fall prey to the charms of the daughters of Moab, and are enticed to worship the idol Peor. When a high-ranking Israelite official publicly takes a Midianite princess into a tent, Pinchas kills them both, stopping the plague raging among the people.
