TISHA B'AV / 9th DAY of AV - FAST DAY on SUNDAY AUG 11th

Tisha B'Av, the 9th day of the month of Av, is the saddest day on the Jewish calendar, on which we fast, deprive ourselves and pray. It is the culmination of the Three Weeks, a period of time during which we mark the destruction of the Holy Temple in Jerusalem.

What Happened on 9 Av?

Tisha B'Av, the 9th day of the month of Av (Aug. 10-11, 2019), is the saddest day on the Jewish calendar, on which we fast, deprive ourselves and pray. It is the culmination of the Three Weeks, a period of time during which we mark the destruction of the Holy Temple in Jerusalem.

1313 BCE: The spies returned from the Promised Land with frightening reports, and the Israelites balked at the prospect of entering the land. G-d decreed that they would therefore wander in the desert for 40 years. Read more.

Both Holy Temples in Jerusalem were destroyed on this date. The First Temple was burned by the Babylonians in 423 BCE and the Second Temple fell to the Romans in 70 CE, unleashing a period of suffering from which our nation has never fully recovered.

The Bar Kochba revolt against the Romans in 133 CE ended in defeat: The Jews of Betar were butchered on the 9th of Av and the Temple Mount was plowed one year later on the same date. Read more.

Later on in our history, many more tragedies happened on this day, including the 1290 expulsion of England's Jews and the 1492 banishment of all Jews from Spain.

NOTE: Shabbat services the day before Tisha b'Av will start at 9:30 AM, so that we can have an early Mincha right after Kiddish, since the fast starts at 8:09 PM. Ma'ariv will be at 8:50 PM.

FAST BEGINS at 8:09 PM Saturday night
FAST ENDS at 8:49 PM Sunday night

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION
The Parshah in a Nutshell

Devarim

Deuteronomy 1:1-3:22

On the first of Shevat (thirty-seven days before his passing), Moses begins his repetition of the Torah to the assembled children of Israel, reviewing the events that occurred and the laws that were given in the course of their forty-year journey from Egypt to Sinai to the Promised Land, rebuking the people for their failings and iniquities, and enjoining them to keep the Torah and observe its commandments in the land that G-d is giving them as an eternal heritage, into which they shall cross after his death.

Moses recalls his appointment of judges and magistrates to ease his burden of meting out justice to the people and teaching them the word of G-d; the journey from Sinai through the great and fearsome desert; the sending of the spies and the people's subsequent spurning of the Promised Land, so that G-d decreed that the entire generation of the Exodus would die out in the desert. "Also against me," says Moses, "was G-d angry for your sake, saying: You, too, shall not go in there."

Moses also recounts some more recent events: the refusal of the nations of Moab and Ammon to allow the Israelites to pass through their countries; the wars against the Emorite kings Sichon and Og, and the settlement of their lands by the tribes of Reuben and Gad and part of the tribe of Manasseh; and Moses' message to his successor, Joshua, who will take the people into the Land and lead them in the battles for its conquest: "Fear them not, for the L-rd your G-d, He shall fight for you."

MEMORY LANE # 32 (EDITED)
FROM THE BULLETIN OF THE YOUNG ISRAEL OF CHOMEDEY
FALL/WINTER 1966

We started our drive for advertisers in our program book for our upcoming show in September but no objective was set as to the amount of money we hoped to raise, although we felt that $10,000 might be possible. To date we have over 100 advertisers and so far we have reached $6000.00 as of December 1st. It looks like we have another smash hit on our hands with "MY FAIR ZAIDY". The show is starting to take shape and Abe Levine and Lil Silverstein are doing an excellent job in directing it. The chorus and dancers choreographed by Minnie Granofsky are doing beautifully. Claire Wald has designed the most beautiful costumes and last but not least Cornell Gross and Irving Fixman and their crew have designed and built the most fantastic scenery imaginable.

Requisitions for tickets are available on a first come first served basis. For ticket information please call Barbara Fishman at 681-5465, Evie Levine at 681-5634 or Anna Katz at 681-1840 Ben Frumkin, Program Book Chairman; Harry Silverstein and Ben Katz, Show Committee co-Chairmen

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM THE PARNISSIM

We have now served your Shul for the past eight months and would like to make the following observations for your consideration:

It is our aim to consider everyone when honoring our regular members, however there are many factors which prevent us from fulfilling our duties properly. The many Bar Mitzvas etc. taking place in our Shul reduce the number of Aliyas available to our Congregation. As much as we try, to satisfy everyone who regularly attend services we are only human, and unfortunately it is inevitable that some of you are left out for extended periods of time. We ask your co-operation, and if we have accidentally overlooked you, please contact either of us and we will endeavor to include you in the "Honors List" at the earliest opportunity. Sam Goldberg and Julius Orbaum Co-Parnissim

(Yashor Koach to Fred Rudy for providing us all with these memorable historical moments, which some of us may still remember!)
