True Marriage Proclamation Set

Have you thought about signing your wedding promises as a keepsake?

What are a bride and groom promising when they marry?
Some say husband and wife agree to be married until one wants out for any reason whatsoever; thereafter, property is split 50/50, and a civil judge decide who pays support.

Christian Marriage conflicts are managed differently.
The state requires a bride and groom to get a state marriage license when contracting marriage, but the state does not require parties to sign the terms of their own marriage agreement.

Those wanting Christian Marriage should sign a True Marriage Proclamation Set.

Do It Yourself: The True Marriage Proclamation Set attached contains two parts: 1) signed traditional marriage promises; and 2) an 8-page document where signers designate the ecclesiastic authority as the arbitrator to apply Biblical principles to any dispute, or designate arbitrators that use the Rules of Procedure for Christian Conciliation of the Institute for Christian Conciliation.

Custom Made: Mary’s Advocates will produce your Solemn Marriage Covenant, with fade resistant ink to last a lifetime on handmade paper with naturally frayed edges. Sets are available for signing on the wedding day, or years later when renewing marriage promises.
I. COVENANT IN ANTICIPATION OF MARRIAGE

1. Covenant

This agreement is made on the _____ day of _____________________, 20_____, in the City of _____________________, State/Province of ____________, between ______________________________________________________ the husband-to-be, who presently lives at ______________________________________________ and ______________________________________________________ the wife-to-be, who presently lives at ______________________________________________.

2. The parties to this covenant expect to be married on __________________________ [date], _________ [year], at ______________________________ _______ [place] in ______________________ ______ [location]. The parties understand that holy matrimony is a solemn undertaking. Since the parties wish to come freely and establish and acknowledge their marriage before God and the community of believers, they also wish to have their Christian marriage recognized by all legal jurisdictions, foreign and domestic. They understand and agree that they will submit to the teaching and laws of their chosen Church and the highest authority of said Church as the basis of their understanding of the legal duties and responsibilities in marriage. Moreover, each of them understands that their marriage, and the agreements hereunder may be defended by the Church. The parties enter this Agreement in anticipation of marriage, with the intention that their marriage will endure so long as both are alive.

3. Consideration – This Agreement is made in consideration of the mutual promises of the parties contained in this Agreement and in their wedding promises.

If, for any reason, the marriage ceremony does not occur, this Agreement will be of no force or effect.

4. The parties agree as follows:

a) Separate Property – After their wedding, both parties shall share all property, and other material goods acquired by each prior to the marriage as marital property.

b) Marital Property – Any property, or income from property (including salary), which either party acquires during the term of this agreement will be regarded as and will become marital property. In addition, all educational achievements and benefits appertaining thereto, businesses, or anything of value of any kind is to be considered marital property.

c) Debts – Any debts acquired before or during the marriage shall be the joint obligation of the parties. Each of the parties hereby declares that he/she has disclosed in good faith all debts owed and all unadjudicated torts for which he/she may be liable.

Nevertheless, nothing herein shall be deemed to change the obligation created by law, absent this agreement, of either party to this agreement regarding obligations accruing before the wedding.

d) Support and Household Expenses – The parties agree that as long as their chosen Church accords the presumption of validity to their marriage, they continue to be married (as understood by their chosen Church) and they shall be mutually responsible for the support of each other.

e) Household Tasks – The parties recognize the need for the allocation of time, talent and labor for household tasks. They understand that the care of the household, other dependents, and the care of children are of indeterminable value and real value to the parties. Therefore, insofar as either or both of the parties shall take on such tasks, the other party and both parties understand that such involves the foregoing of remunerative tasks and obligates each of them to care for the party who has forsaken remuneration for the mutual good of both parties. Accordingly, each party, especially the spouse with greater earning potential or financial assets, understands that his/her obligation to care for his/her spouse may endure during the life of the other spouse.

f) Will – The parties agree that they will each make a will stipulating the other as the sole legatee and beneficiary of each other's estate, with due regard being made for the support of the children.

g) Life Insurance – The parties agree that as soon as possible after they marry they will make each other the sole and primary beneficiary on any life insurance policies they own prior to the marriage. The parties further agree to make each other the sole and primary beneficiary on any life insurance policies made upon them. However, the parties understand that for financial reasons, other arrangements such as trusts may be established. Such trusts or other financial arrangements shall be made with the intent of a total sharing of property between the spouses.

5. Children

a) Having and Raising Children – The parties agree that they are both open to having children. Each of them agrees that he/she has hidden nothing from the other party regarding his/her ability to have children. The parties further recognize that they will both have rights and responsibilities in relation to the raising of children in accordance with the teaching and discipline of their chosen Church. Specifically, the parties understand that should problems occur with regard to the raising and discipline of children that, absent legitimate substantial concerns for the children’s physical safety, their religious formation and upbringing are a foremost issue for consideration.

b) Adoption – The parties agree to forego using fertility methods forbidden by the parties’ Church, but will consider adoption.

c) Religion of Children – The parties agree that all children born of this marriage, and adopted during this marriage shall be baptized, raised, and educated solely in their Chosen faith and in accordance with the Holy Scripture (the Bible).

6. Persons Bound – The parties and their respective heirs, devisees, legatees, administrators, executors, guardians, successors in interest, and assigns, shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement.

7. Superior to Civil Divorce – The parties agree and understand that should either party undertake civil action regarding the marriage that all agreements in this Covenant should be used to determine all incidents of such divorce including the proper care and custody of the children.

8. Representation by Independent Counsel – Each party acknowledges that he or she has been given an opportunity, prior to executing this document, to consult with a legal advisor [both civil and ecclesiastical] and with a spiritual advisor.

9. Entirety – This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties, and no representations or promises have been made except as contained in this Agreement. This agreement is intended to incorporate by reference the teachings and disciplines of their chosen Church including its Law and other writings deemed authoritative by their chosen Church.

10. Severability – If any term, provision, covenant, or condition of this Agreement is held by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remainder of the provisions shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated.

11. Waiver of Breach and Subsequent Breaches – Waiver of any breach of this Agreement does not constitute approval or waiver of subsequent breaches.

12. Amendments and Modifications – Amendments and modifications of this Agreement must be written and executed in the same manner as this Agreement. However, no agreement to change the terms of this agreement can be made that would change the essential nature of the Religious Marriage entered into.

13. Further Assurances – Each party agrees to perform such acts and to deliver such instruments, as the other shall reasonably request, for the purpose of effectuating the provisions of this Agreement in accordance with its spirit and intent.

14. Topic Headings – Topic headings appearing in this Agreement shall be used for descriptive purposes only and shall have no substantive effect.

15. Effective Date – This Agreement shall take effect on the solemnization of the wedding now contemplated by the parties.

16. Governing Law – This Agreement is to be governed by the laws of the chosen Church and is under the jurisdiction of the highest authority of said Church and the territorial ecclesiastic jurisdiction established by said Church. If such jurisdiction is unavailable, the jurisdiction shall be any other tribunal agreed upon by both parties, but in the event that such an agreement cannot be had, the competent jurisdiction shall be the Institute for Christian Conciliation, or any Church that Mary’s Advocates selects based upon the Church in which the marriage was performed, the Church the parties most recently attended and any other reasonable forum. If such jurisdiction is unavailable, the jurisdiction shall be the State of ____________________ and the state in which parties reside thereafter.

1. Should a dispute arise between the parties after they are married, so that either or both of them no longer wish to live together as husband and wife, each and both of them agree to refer their marital dispute to their chosen Church in the territorial ecclesiastic jurisdictions in which they currently reside or the territory where they were married or reside at the time the consultation is sought unless another territory is agreed upon. If the Church cannot or will not provide such timely consultation or if the Church chooses to seek consultive help, the dispute will be determined by arbitrators appointed by Mary’s Advocates, including, but not limited to, the Institute for Christian Conciliation, its successors and/or assigns and/or the proper authorities for a binding decision (hereinafter referred to as the “panel”). Each of the parties agrees to and has the right to appear in person before the panel at the demand of the panel or the other party.

2. The decision of the panel shall be fully enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

3. (a) The parties agree that they will be bound by and authorize the panel to decide all issues relating to their marriage as well as any issues arising from this Covenant. In the case that a children as the arbitration panel would deem appropriate.

4. Failure of either party to perform his or her obligations under this agreement shall make that party liable for all costs awarded by either the arbitration panel or a court of competent jurisdiction, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, incurred by one side in order to obtain the other party’s performance of the terms of this agreement.

5. (a) In the event any of the panel members are unwilling or unable to serve, then their successors shall serve in their place. The decision of the panel shall be made in accordance with the terms of this covenant and the laws of the Holy Scriptures (the Bible) and/or the general principles of arbitration and equity customarily employed by the chosen Church and/or arbitrators appointed by Mary’s Advocates. A panel of the Institute for Christian Conciliation will use its own procedure.

(b) At any time, should there be a division of opinion among the members of the panel, the decision of a majority of the members of the panel shall be the decision of it. Should any of the members of the panel remain in doubt as to the proper decision, resign, withdraw, or refuse or become unable to perform duties, the remaining members shall render a decision. Their decision shall be that of the panel for the purposes of this agreement.

(c) In the event of the failure of either party to appear before it upon reasonable notice, the panel may issue its decision despite the defaulting party’s failure to appear.

6. This agreement constitutes a fully enforceable arbitration agreement.

7. Each of the parties understands that this agreement shall be enforceable by either of the parties to this covenant as well anyone else so agreed to by them not contrary to the teaching of their chosen Church or its designated authorities.

8. Each party understands that this agreement and the Covenant agreement are to be recognized at least as arbitration agreements under domestic law. Moreover, each party wishes this agreement to be determined by and subject to the teachings of their chosen Church as if such agreement were made under the jurisdiction of their Church.

9. Each party recognizes that their chosen Church and/or arbitrators appointed by Mary’s Advocates may tax the costs of any such arbitration upon the parties. Moreover, each of the parties hereby agrees that in consideration of their chosen Church and/or arbitrators appointed by Mary’s Advocates agreeing to arbitrate, that each of the parties hereby contracts with arbitrators to pay such above costs.

10. The parties acknowledge that each of them have been given the opportunity prior to signing this agreement to consult with their own spiritual advisor and legal advisor.
