Solemn Marriage Covenant

I come of my own free will to give myself to you in marriage. I promise to honor and love you as my spouse for the rest of my life. I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part. I promise to accept children from God lovingly and bring them up according to the Law of Christ and His Church. I give you a ring as a sign of my love and fidelity to the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. I ask the Lord in His goodness to strengthen our consent and fill us both with His blessings. I promise and agree that this solemn marriage and the promises made here are to be observed according to the teaching and authority of the Holy Catholic Church.

What are a bride and groom promising when they marry?

Some say husband and wife agree to be married until one wants out for any reason whatsoever; thereafter, property is split 50/50, and a civil judge decides who pays support.

Christian & Catholic Marriage conflicts are managed differently

The state requires a bride and groom to get a state license when contracting marriage, but the state does not require parties to sign the terms of their own marriage agreement.

Those wanting Christian Marriage should sign a True Marriage Proclamation Set
