- Wanting to progress and have fun with your horse?
- Feeling stuck or unsure with your horsemanship journey and goals?
- Confused on where to go next in the Parelli program?
- Feeling like you need help with your posture and finesse riding?

Here is your chance to join Rachel in helping you to answer the above questions while learning how to find an easier way to make your horsemanship journey more fun and successful for you and your horse. In this course we will explore the relationship between all four savvies and how you can easily take your foundation into a purpose and sport if you choose to.

Through this course Rachel will teach you how to eliminate brace, develop more suppleness in your horse's mind and body as well as help your riding posture and precision. Rachel has trained extensively with both Pat and Linda Parelli in the USA so she brings a great mix of theory and practical, hands on skills to your horsemanship learning.
