The 'vegetarian scallop' dish at NaKorn.

NaKorn Kitchen, the Thai restaurant at 1622 Orrington Ave. in Evanston, has been open for a while, but the owners are planning a week-long grand opening celebration, starting with a ribbon cutting by the mayor Friday afternoon.

NaKorn is also introducing some new dishes -- including what they're calling a vegetarian scallop -- which features the stem of a king trumpet mushroom steamed and marinated in a house-made chili jam.
