

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: March 9, 2018

Contact: Jeff Harris
508.752.3769

Plans set for Central MA Boy Scouts annual community breakfast on Scouting

Worcester, MA. March 27, 2018 – Business and community leaders will gather for the annual Prepared. For Life. Breakfast to commemorate and discuss the positive impact on youth in our community. Scouting is making a difference, and the Mohegan Council of the Boy Scouts of America headquartered in Worcester wants to tell this story to our community leaders.

Date –

Tuesday, March 27

Time –

7:00-7:30am: Gathering & Networking.

7:30 – 8:45am: Program begins with a bugle call to action.

Location –

Hogan Center, College of the Holy Cross.

Cost –

Free. Thanks to the Council's generous sponsors. A free will offering collected during program.

-more-

Currently a senior at the College of the Holy Cross and the co-President of the Student Government Association, Donnie Stevens will provide a keynote address to breakfast goers. Donnie is also the past National Vice-Chief of Scouting's National Honor Society, the Order of the Arrow. He will tell us how his Scouting journey has affected his outlook on life. We'll hear from other young scouts and Scout leaders on why they volunteer their time.

More on this event and our speaker can be found at www.MoheganCouncilBSA.org/Support.

If you know a business leader who should join the Council on Tuesday, March 27, please contact Jeff Harris at (508) 752-3769 or e-Mail him at jeff.harris@scouting.org for more information.

###

