11.7 In the event payment is made in advance by way of telegraphic transfer (TT) or cash on delivery, the Supplier shall submit the proforma invoice and details of the bank.

11.8 The Supplier must within one (1) month from the date of delivery submit the complete billing documents such as delivery order, invoice, commercial invoice or proforma invoice.

11.9 In the event the billing document is not submitted within one (1) month from the date of delivery without any reasonable cause, it is herein deemed that the Supplier forfeits the right to the payment and the Buyer shall not be liable to make any payments whatsoever.

11.10 In the event the Supplier delivers Products or Services before issuance of the Purchase Order, the Buyer shall not be bound by the price and reserve the right to adjust the price.

11.11 For the overseas deliveries involving custom clearance, a description in English corresponding the Purchase Order shall be submitted.

11.12 In the event the Supplier does not fulfill customs procedures and the inadequacies cause delay in delivery of the Products or Services to the Buyer, the Buyer shall deduct a minimum of ten percent (10%) of the Purchase Order amount.

11.13 The Supplier shall submit a monthly statement of accounts to the Buyer.

11.14 Delivery documents which are not acknowledged by the receiving store will be rejected.

11.15 Payment will not be made for Products or Services unless they are in compliance with this Agreement, Purchase Order and/or the Product Schedules.

12. WARRANTY

12.1 The Supplier represents and warrants that the Products shall be of quality, free from defects in design, manufacture, materials and workmanship, are merchantable, and are fully fit for their intended purpose, including the purpose for which they will be used by the Buyer or the Buyer’s customers. This warranty for the Products or any parts of the Products shall be in effect for a duration under any of the relevant or applicable basis: (i) duration as set out in the warranty package provided by the Supplier from time to time; (ii) duration equivalent to the warranty period as provided by the manufacturer to the Supplier; (iii) in accordance to the mileage of usage; (iv) one (1) year period from the date of receipt of Products or Services by the Buyer.

12.2 The Supplier further represents and warrants that the it has good warrantable title to the Products, free and clear of any liens, encumbrances or other restriction on use or distribution and the Buyer shall have clear and marketable title to the Products and the Products shall be new and unused, contain only authentic materials and no counterfeit parts and conform to the description, specifications and provisions in the Purchase Order or Product Schedule and requirements by the Buyer’s customers.

12.3 The Supplier also represents and warrants that (i) the Supplier has no knowledge of and that there are no unresolved claims, demands or pending litigation alleging that the Products infringe or misappropriate any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party, (ii) the Supplier has obtained all necessary rights under any Intellectual Property Rights of third parties necessary for the sale, use or other distribution of the Products supplied to Pentamaster under this Agreement, and (iii) Products delivered under this Agreement do not infringe or misappropriate any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party. Upon receipt notice from a third party alleging infringement or misappropriation of such third party’s Intellectual Property Rights by the manufacture or sale of Products, the Supplier shall take all appropriate actions to handle the claim responsibly in accordance with established legal practice in response to receipt of such a claim, including obtaining opinion(s) of outside counsel regarding non-infringement by the Supplier or invalidity of such allegedly infringed or misappropriated Intellectual Property Rights, instituting proceedings to invalidate such allegedly infringed or misappropriated Intellectual Property Rights and investigating and implementing design changes that would avoid such allegedly infringed or misappropriated Intellectual Property Rights or procuring license rights under such allegedly infringed or misappropriated Intellectual Property Rights that would exhaust such Intellectual Property Rights.

12.4 The Buyer has the right to return the Products to the Supplier immediately at the Supplier’s expenses in the event that there is any breach of the warranties.

12.5 Subject to clause 12.1, Rights and remedies of the Buyer in respect of any breach of the warranties and any obligations of the Buyer remaining to be performed shall not be affected by the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

13. INDEMNIFICATION AND REMEDIES

13.1 The Supplier agrees to defend, indemnify and hold the Buyer harmless from any and all claims, causes of action, demands or disputes which allege, in whole or in part, any Intellectual Property Rights infringement with respect to the sale, use, distribution or application of the Products or Services provided by the Supplier. Said protection and indemnification shall include indemnification of the Buyer’s expenses of litigation, court costs, expert expenses and attorney’s fees made or recovered against the Buyer by any person or persons whomsoever, on account of the use or sale of such article by the Buyer in violation of any right(s) claimed under any Intellectual Property Rights and to provide a replacement Products that are non-infringing.

13.2 The Supplier agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer and the customer of the Buyer and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns (“Pentamaster Indemnitees”), from and against all losses, damages, costs or liability of any kind (including attorney’s fees), including any costs associated with claims made by a third party, arising from, in connection with or relating to any of the following:
   (a) negligent acts or omissions or willful misconduct of Supplier or its personnel;
   (b) Supplier’s breach of its obligations or warranties under this Agreement, Purchase Order or Product Schedule;
   (c) any theft or other misappropriation of Buyer’s or its personnel’s information, property or funds by the Supplier or the Supplier’s employees, subcontractor and/or agents; or
   (d) failure of the Supplier, its sub-contractor or agent in compliance with all applicable national, state and local laws and regulations governing the manufacture, transportation, import, export and/or sale of the Products and/or the performance of Service in Malaysia or other applicable jurisdictions.

13.3 In the event it is necessary for the Buyer to enforce the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Purchase Order or Purchase Schedule or to defend or prosecute any litigation arising out of or as a result of this Agreement, Purchase Order or Purchase Schedule or in connection with the sale of the Products and/or Services to the Buyer by the Supplier, the Buyer shall be entitled to recover from the Supplier, in addition to any other relief granted, reasonable attorneys’ fees, expert fees, costs and expenses of litigation to the extent the Buyer is substantially prevailing party.

13.4 All rights and remedies granted to either of the parties shall be cumulative and no exercise by either of the parties of any right and remedies under this Agreement shall restrict or prejudice the exercise of any other right and remedies granted by this Agreement or otherwise available to it.

14. CHANGES, CANCELLATIONS AND RE-SCHEDULING

14.1 The Buyer reserves the right, including but not limited, to reschedule delivery, shipment or make changes to the specifications, drawings, samples, materials and/or quantity upon giving written notice to the Supplier. If the Buyer makes such changes, the contract price and/or performance schedule shall be amended accordingly by mutual agreement.

14.2 The Buyer may terminate all or any part under the Purchase Order at any time for its convenience to the Supplier. If the Buyer provides the written notice to the Supplier at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the specified shipping date, the Buyer shall have no liability for termination. If the Buyer terminates the Purchase Order on less than seven (7) calendar days advance notice, the parties will negotiate a reasonable termination charge, if any, based on all appropriate factors, including but not limited to, the percentage of work performed by the Supplier prior to termination, the Supplier’s ability to resell or reuse the Products or Services and market conditions prevailing at the time of termination. The Supplier has a duty to use its best efforts to mitigate any damages or losses resulting from a termination by the Buyer. The Buyer shall have the right to audit all elements of the termination charge and the Supplier shall make available to the Buyer on request, all books, records and papers relating thereto.

14.3 In the event that the Buyer gives notice to the Supplier including but not limited to, defects, malfunction or the Product not serving the purpose for which the Product was initially purchased by the Buyer, the Supplier shall within seven (7) calendar days or such other reasonable period as Buyer deems fit, remedy the defect, failing which the Buyer is entitled to return the Products, the Supplier shall be liable to the Buyer or the Buyer’s customer for all damages and losses incurred as result thereof. In any such event, the Supplier shall refund any monies paid by the Buyer within seven (7) calendar days and the Buyer shall terminate the Purchase Order without liability to the Buyer and the Buyer reserves the right whether to terminate this Agreement as well.

14.4 In the event the Supplier intends to terminate a Purchase Order, the Supplier shall inform the Buyer of any intended cancellation to get the consent of the Buyer; (i) if the Buyer allows such cancellation, the Purchase Order shall be cancelled immediately mutually by both parties and the Supplier shall refund any monies paid by the Buyer within seven (7) calendar days and both parties have no further claim against each other under the Purchase Order; (ii) If the Buyer does not allow the cancellation, the Supplier has to proceed and deliver the Products or Services in accordance with the terms and conditions under this Agreement, the Purchase Order and/or the Product Schedule.

15. LATE DELIVERY

15.1 Time is the essence with respect of deliveries and performance. If the Supplier fails to timely perform or deliver, the Supplier is liable to Pentamaster for (i) all of Pentamaster’s costs, losses and damages incurred as a result of such delay, including but not limited to penalties
Pentamaster must pay to its customers and all costs (including expediting costs) associated with Pentamaster's substitution of another supplier's product(s) or service(s) to cover for the Product(s) or Service(s) not delivered by the Supplier or increased transportation costs, or at Pentamaster's option (ii) liquidated damages in the amount of one percent (1%) per day up to a cap of twenty percent (20%) of the contract price of the delayed Product(s) or Service(s).

15.2 The Supplier shall notify the Buyer immediately of any circumstance which is delaying or which threatens to delay the timely performance of the Purchase Order, but such notice shall not excuse performance by the Supplier nor affect the Supplier's liability for performance hereunder. If the Supplier fails to deliver any or all of the material or merchandise or fail to render any services covered by the Purchase Order within the time agreed, the Supplier shall use expediting shipping means, at the Supplier's expense, in order to minimize the delay. Should the Supplier still be unable to provide the Products or Services in a timely manner, which shall be determined solely by the Buyer, the Buyer reserves the right to (i) purchase such part of whole Products or Services elsewhere and charge the Supplier with any loss incurred thereof, (ii) request the Supplier to supply all necessary Documentation, licences, tools, materials whatsoever to make or have made the Products, or (iii) at the Buyer's option, to cancel or reject the Purchase Order as to any material or merchandise not delivered and any services not rendered, and the Buyer shall be under no obligation to accept or pay for the same or compensate the Supplier for any expense which may have incurred. If the Buyer accepts part delivery of the Products or Services, it will still be considered as late delivery as only full Products or Services delivered in accordance of the delivery date of the Purchase Order shall be construed as full shipment. Nothing in this clause shall affect any other right conferred on the Buyer's by law or equity, including but not limited to, the rights to seek monetary damages, resulting from the Supplier's failure to meet the delivery date.

15.3 Pentamaster may immediately cancel, without liability, all Purchase Orders or portion of the Purchase Orders for the affected Products or Services and the Supplier shall refund the monies paid by Pentamaster for the affected Products or Services within seven (7) calendar days. For delayed Products or Services that Pentamaster continues to require Supplier to provide, the Supplier shall use best efforts to expedite delayed Products or Services and/or performance and shall pay for all expediting costs.

15.4 To extent that Pentamaster elects to cover for delayed Products or Services by sourcing products or services from another supplier, all such purchases will count toward satisfaction of any purchase commitment or other volume-based threshold that Pentamaster may have under any agreement with the Supplier (e.g. for purposes of determining Pentamaster’s entitlement to discounts, rebates, incentives and prices concessions on the supplier's products or services).

16. END-OF-LIFE RETURNS

The Supplier shall inform the Buyer of any potential case of "part discontinuance" due to end of life or process change, one (1) year in advance of such event occurring. In the event that the Supplier fails to inform the Buyer, the Supplier shall be responsible for the costs incurred in sourcing the said part including but not limited to testing and verification by the Buyer's customer and loss of prospective business. In addition, the Supplier shall accept the Products returned by the Buyer without any charge or liability to the Buyer.

17. BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLAN AND PRACTICE

17.1 The Supplier will develop and keep current a formal business continuity plan detailing the Supplier's plans, procedures and designated resources for timely response to and recovery.
from potential civil, natural and physical plan disasters that could reasonably be expected to disrupt production and delivery to the Buyer. Upon request, the Supplier will make such plan available to the Buyer or its designated representative for review.

17.2 The Supplier agrees to notify the Buyer as soon as possible in the event of a crisis that disrupts manufacturing or delivery of Products or Services. Unless otherwise authorized by the Buyer, the Supplier will not make any reference to the Buyer in any public communications about the crisis and subsequent recovery.

17.3 The Supplier will be responsible for maintaining its facilities and operations in accordance with applicable fire protection and loss control standards. The Supplier will allow the Buyer to visit and conduct loss control evaluations.

17.4 The Supplier agrees to conform to the following standards under EICC Code and any addition to EICC Code from time to time:
   (i) the labour standard as stated in Schedule 1
   (ii) the health and safety standard as stated in Schedule 2;
   (iii) the environmental standards as stated in Schedule 3;
   (iv) the ethic as stated in Schedule 4;
   (v) the management system as stated in Schedule 5.

17.5 The Buyer may conduct unannounced inspections or audits for compliance with Clause 17.4.

17.6 The Supplier undertakes that the Products will not be manufactured with any Class 1 ozone-depleting substances in its manufacturing processes and the Products will not contain such substances.

18. LABOUR

18.1 The Supplier shall ensure that its labour is in compliance with the labour standard as stated in Schedule 1.

18.2 The Supplier shall ensure that only qualified personnel is carried out the job and all workers, subcontractors or agents sent to the designated premises of the Buyer’s or the Buyer’s customer’s shall be with proper valid working permits and with accepted qualification by the Buyer or the Buyer’s customer.

18.3 The Supplier shall ensure that the workmanship of the Products or Services are conforming to the specifications of the Buyer as set out in the Purchase Order or Product Schedule.

18.4 The Supplier shall not subcontract any of its obligations under this Agreement, Purchase Order or Product Schedule without the Buyer’s prior written consent. The Supplier is required to provide the valid details of the subcontractor to the Supplier for the Buyer’s consideration. The Supplier shall retain responsibility of all obligations subcontracted hereunder and shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Pentamaster Indemnitees against any claim arising from or caused by the acts or omission of the Supplier’s subcontractors.

19. TRAINING

The Supplier agrees to provide training to the Buyer or the Buyer’s customer in the event such training is required and as stated in the Purchase Order or the Product Schedule.
20. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

20.1 In the event the Products involves Intellectual Property Rights of certain technologies, the following shall apply,

   (i) if the Supplier manufactures the Products based on technology provided by the Buyer ("Buyer’s Technology"), the Buyer shall retain exclusive ownership and title of the Intellectual Property Rights of the technology and the Supplier agrees to treat the technology as Confidential Information that shall not be disclosed in whole or part or used for any third party, without the Buyer’s prior written consent.

   (ii) if the Supplier manufactures the Products based on its own technology ("Supplier’s Technology"), the Supplier shall ensure it is the owner of the technology and there is no infringement of Intellectual Property Rights on the technology and clause 13.1 shall apply.

20.2 Pentamaster will retain ownership of all specifications for the Products under this Agreement ("Specifications") and will be the owner of all modifications or enhancements made by or for Pentamaster or by the Supplier to such Specifications, including any modifications or enhancements made by Pentamaster to the Specifications based on the Supplier’s “Feedback” as the term is defined below. At Pentamaster’s request and expense, the Supplier shall execute all papers and provide reasonable assistant to Pentamaster necessary to vest ownership in Pentamaster of all such modifications or enhancements to enable Pentamaster to obtain Intellectual Property Rights in any such modifications or enhancements. The Supplier agrees to treat the Specifications as Confidential Information of Pentamaster that shall not be disclosed in whole or part or used for any third party, without Pentamaster's prior written consent.

20.3 The Supplier may from time to time provide suggestions, comments or other feedback ("Feedback") to Pentamaster with respect to Specifications or Confidential Information. The Supplier agrees that any Feedback will be given entirely voluntarily and grants Pentamaster the right to use, have used, disclose, reproduce, licence, distribute or exploit the Feedback for any purpose, entirely without obligation, payment or restriction on use or disclosure of any kind.

21. INSURANCE

21.1 The Supplier shall maintain at its own expense sufficient insurance coverage for its employees including the personnel sent to the premise of the Buyer or the Buyer’s customer.

21.2 The Supplier shall, at its own expense and at all times during the term of this Agreement and after its termination as required below, maintain in effect the insurance in sufficient coverage together with any other insurance required by law in any jurisdiction where the Supplier provides Products and/or Services under this Agreement, in insurance companies rated by A-M Best with a least an A-rating and authorized to do business in such jurisdiction, and will comply with all those requirements as stated therein.

21.3 The Supplier shall maintain sufficient general liability insurance covering all operations by or on behalf of the Supplier arising out of or connected with this Agreement and providing coverage for bodily injury, property damage and products liability. Such can be maintained in any combination of the following types of insurances: Commercial General Liability, Foreign General Liability, Public Liability, Products Liability, Umbrella Liability and/or Excess Liability. If such insurance is maintained on an “occurrence” basis, such insurance shall be maintained for at least one year after the expiration of this Agreement and if such insurance is maintained on a “claims made” basis, such insurance shall be maintained for at least three years after the expiration of this Agreement.

21.4 Certificate of Insurance or other evidence of the coverage required above shall be furnished by the Supplier to the Buyer upon request. The Buyer’s receipt and/or acceptance of such proof shall not limit or relieve the Supplier of the duties and responsibilities with respect to maintaining insurance required by this Agreement. The Supplier will notify the Buyer of any changes in terms, conditions and termination of such insurance policies not less than thirty (30) calendar days after notification from the insurer.

21.5 The insurance maintained by the Supplier pursuant to this Agreement shall provide that, except to the extent prohibited by law, the Supplier and its insurer waive all rights of recovery or subrogation against the Buyer, its officers, directors, employees and agents but only for injury, damage or loss that falls within the Supplier’s indemnity obligation under this Agreement.

21.6 To the extent that the Supplier is a cause of the insured loss, the policies provided under this Agreement shall provide that the Supplier’s insurance will be primary to and non contributory with any and all other insurance maintained or otherwise afforded to the Buyer.

21.7 If the Supplier uses subcontractors to provide the Products and/or Services pursuant to this Agreement, then for each such subcontractor, regardless of tier, the Supplier shall use reasonably commercial efforts to ensure that each such subcontractor either maintains the same type of insurance as required by the Supplier hereunder or is insured under the Supplier’s insurance.

22. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party will be liable for failure to timely perform under this Agreement to the extent that is performance is delayed by a “Force Majeure” event to the extent caused by any of the following events, provided that they are beyond the party’s reasonable control, without the party’s fault or negligence and could have not been avoided by the party’s use of due care: acts of God including hurricanes, tornadoes, earthquakes and floods; acts of terrorism; civil unrest; interference by civil or military authority, including war and embargoes; fires; epidemics; and labour strikes (other than labour strikes by the work force of the delayed party). The party claiming force majeure has the burden of establishing that a Force Majeure event has delayed performance and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the delay. The party claiming Force Majeure shall provide the other party with written notice of the Force Majeure event, including the cause of delay, the estimated time of delay and the actions taken or planned to avoid or minimize the impact of delay. If the Supplier claims a Force Majeure event that delays its performance by more than fifteen (15) calendar days, Pentamaster may cancel any further performance or terminate this Agreement with no liability or agree to extend the time of performance in writing.

23. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

23.1 The Supplier undertakes not to disclose the Confidential Information to any other parties save for required by law and not to use the Confidential Information to design, develop or manufacture products or provide services to any other parties.

23.2 The Supplier also undertakes to comply with all the provisions under any non-disclosure agreement signed with the Buyer. If the terms and conditions of the non-disclosure agreement add to or conflict with this Agreement, this Agreement will control as to the additional or conflicting term(s).

24. NON SOLICITATION

The Supplier undertakes and warrants that with Pentamaster that it will not in connection with carrying out of any business similar to or in competition to Pentamaster on its own or on behalf of any person firm or company directly or indirectly during the tenure of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year after termination of this Agreement:

24.1 seek to procure orders from or do business with Pentamaster’s customers whom the Supplier has gained the contact through Pentamaster; or

24.2 endeavour to entice away from Pentamaster any person who has been employed or engaged by Pentamaster.

PROVIDED that nothing in this clause shall prohibit the seeking or procuring of orders or the doing of business not relating or similar to the Business.

25. MISCELLANEOUS

25.1 Compliance with Laws

The Supplier shall comply with all applicable national, state and local laws and regulations governing the manufacture, transportation, import, export and/or sale of the Products and/or the performance of Service in Malaysia or other applicable jurisdictions in the course of this Agreement.

25.2 Completely and Fully Integrated Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding and agreement between the parties hereto and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous representations, undertakings and agreements between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, all of which are merged herein. No usage of trade or custom and practice within the industry and no regular practice or method of dealing between the parties hereto, shall be used to modify, interpret, supplement or alter in any manner the express terms of this Agreement or any part hereof. This Agreement shall not be modified, amended or in any way altered except by an instrument in writing signed by an authorized representative of the parties.

25.3 Authority

The Supplier represents and warrants that: (i) it has obtained all necessary approvals, consents and authorizations to enter into this Agreement and to perform and carry out its obligations under this Agreement; (ii) the person executing this Agreement on the Supplier’s behalf has express authority to do so and to bind the Supplier and its Affiliates; (iii) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement does not violate any provision of any bylaw, charter, regulation or any other governing authority of the party and is duly authorized by all necessary partnership or corporate action; and (iv) this Agreement is valid and binding obligation of the Supplier and its Affiliates.

25.4 Severability

In the event that any provision hereof is found invalid or unenforceable pursuant to judicial decree or decision by a court of competent jurisdiction such provision will be construed, limited or, if necessary, severed to the extent necessary to eliminate such invalidity or unenforceability. The remainder of this Agreement shall remain valid and enforceable according to its terms. The parties agree to negotiate in good faith a valid, enforceable substitute provision that most nearly effects the parties’ original intent in entering this Agreement or to provide an equitable adjustment in the event no such provision can be added.

25.5 Assignment

Except as otherwise provided under this clause 25.5, neither party may assign this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written approval of the other party, which will not be unreasonably withheld. Any attempted assignment, delegation or transfer without the necessary approval will be void. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Pentamaster, in the event of an intended sale or transfer of Supplier’s business or assets, whether by operation of law or otherwise, the Supplier shall give notice to Pentamaster and, at Pentamaster’s request, shall make assumption of its obligations under this Agreement a condition of the sale or transfer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for any Pentamaster acquisition, merger, consolidation, reorganization, or similar transaction, or any spin-off, divestiture, or other separation of a Pentamaster business, Pentamaster may, without the prior written consent of the Supplier and at no additional cost to Pentamaster or to the assignee entity(ies): (i) assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement, in whole or in part, or (ii) split and assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement so as to retain the benefits of this Agreement for both Pentamaster and the assignee entity(ies) (and their respective affiliates) following the split. The Supplier will work cooperatively with Pentamaster and the assignee entity(ies) to ensure a smooth and orderly transition.

25.6 Waiver

The failure by either party to enforce at any time or for any period any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be a waiver of them or of the right at any time subsequently to enforce all provisions of this Agreement.

25.7 Relationship

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to create or be construed as creating a joint venture or partnership between the parties. Neither party is, by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise, authorized as an agent or legal representative of the other party. Neither party is granted any right or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibility, express or implied on behalf of or in the name of the other party or to bind such other party in any manner.
25.8 Counterparts and Signatures

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which will be considered one and the same Agreement. This Agreement is fully executed when each party has signed one or more counterparts and delivered the counterparts to the other party. Facsimile signatures will be binding to the same degree as original signatures.

25.9 Publicity

The Supplier shall not issue a press release or make any other disclosure regarding this Agreement, the parties’ business relationship or Pentamaster or any other aspect of Pentamaster’s business, without Pentamaster’s prior written consent.

25.10 Communications

25.10:1 Any notice or other communication required to be given by a party to this Agreement shall be in writing and in the English Language and shall (without prejudice to any other manner of service) be deemed duly given if:

25.10:1.1 delivered by hand; or

25.10:1.2 sent by registered post, facsimile transmission or courier to the other party at the address stated below or such other address as may be notified by either of the party to the other from time to time:

SCHEDULE 1
Labour Standards

The Supplier is committed to uphold the human rights of workers, and to treat them with dignity and respect as understood by the international community. This applies to all workers including temporary, migrant, student, contract, direct employees and any other type of worker.

The labour standards are:

1) Freely Chosen Employment
Forced, bonded (including debt bondage) or indentured labour, involuntary prison labour, slavery or trafficking of persons shall not be used. This includes transporting, harbouring, recruiting, transferring or receiving vulnerable persons by means of threat, force, coercion, abduction or fraud for the purpose of exploitation. All work must be voluntary and workers shall be free to leave work at any time or terminate their employment. Workers must not be required to surrender any government-issued identification, passports, or work permits as a condition of employment. Excessive fees are unacceptable and all fees charged to workers must be disclosed.

2) Child Labour Avoidance
Child labour is not to be used in any stage of manufacturing. The term “child” refers to any person under the age of 15 (or 14 where the law of the country permits), or under the age for completing compulsory education, or under the minimum age for employment in the country, whichever is greatest. The use of legitimate workplace apprenticeship programs, which comply with all laws and regulations, is supported. Workers under the age of 18 shall not perform work that is likely to jeopardize the health or safety of young workers.

3) Working Hours
Studies of business practices clearly link worker strain to reduced productivity, increased turnover and increased injury and illness. Workweeks are not to exceed the maximum set by local law. Further, a workweek should not be more than 60 hours per week, including overtime, except in emergency or unusual situations. Workers shall be allowed at least one day off per seven-day week.

4) Wages and Benefits
Compensation paid to workers shall comply with all applicable wage laws, including those relating to minimum wages, overtime hours and legally mandated benefits. In compliance with local laws, workers shall be compensated for overtime at pay rates greater than regular hourly rates. Deductions from wages as a disciplinary measure shall not be permitted. The basis on which workers are being paid is to be provided in a timely manner via pay stub or similar documentation.

5) Humane Treatment
There is to be no harsh and inhumane treatment including any sexual harassment, sexual abuse, corporal punishment, mental or physical coercion or verbal abuse of workers; nor is there to be the threat of any such treatment. Disciplinary policies and procedures in support of these requirements shall be clearly defined and communicated to workers.

6) Non-Discrimination
The Supplier should be committed to a workforce free of harassment and unlawful discrimination. Companies shall not engage in discrimination based on race, colour, age, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, disability, pregnancy, religion, political affiliation, union membership or marital status in hiring and employment practices such as promotions, rewards, and access to training. In addition, workers or potential workers should not be subjected to medical tests that could be used in a discriminatory way.

7) Freedom of Association
Open communication and direct engagement between workers and management are the most effective ways to resolve workplace and compensation issues. The rights of workers to associate freely, join or not join labour unions, seek representation, and join workers’ councils in accordance with local laws shall be respected. Workers shall be able to openly communicate and share grievances with management regarding working conditions and management practices without fear of reprisal, intimidation or harassment.

SCHEDULE 2

Health and Safety Standards

The Supplier recognizes that in addition to minimizing the incidence of work-related injury and illness, a safe and healthy work environment enhances the quality of products and services, consistency of production and worker retention and morale. The Supplier also recognize that ongoing worker input and education is essential to identifying and solving health and safety issues in the workplaces.

The health and safety standards are:

1) Occupational Safety
Worker exposure to potential safety hazards (e.g., electrical and other energy sources, fire, vehicles, and fall hazards) are to be controlled through proper design, engineering and administrative controls, preventative maintenance and safe work procedures (including lockout/tagout), and ongoing safety training. Where hazards cannot be adequately controlled by these means, workers are to be provided with appropriate, well-maintained, personal protective equipment. Workers shall not be disciplined for raising safety concerns.

2) Emergency Preparedness
Potential emergency situations and events are to be identified and assessed, and their impact minimized by implementing emergency plans and response procedures including: emergency reporting, employee notification and evacuation procedures, worker training and drills, appropriate fire detection and suppression equipment, adequate exit facilities and recovery plans.

3) Occupational Injury and Illness
Procedures and systems are to be in place to prevent, manage, track and report occupational injury and illness including provisions to: encourage worker reporting; classify and record injury and illness cases; provide necessary medical treatment; investigate cases and implement corrective actions to eliminate their causes; and facilitate return of workers to work.

4) Industrial Hygiene
Worker exposure to chemical, biological and physical agents is to be identified, evaluated, and controlled. Engineering or administrative controls must be used to control overexposures. When hazards cannot be adequately controlled by such means, worker health is to be protected by appropriate personal protective equipment programs.

5) Physically Demanding Work
Worker exposure to the hazards of physically demanding tasks, including manual material handling and heavy or repetitive lifting, prolonged standing and highly repetitive or forceful assembly tasks is to be identified, evaluated and controlled.

6) Machine Safeguarding
Production and other machinery shall be evaluated for safety hazards. Physical guards, interlocks and barriers are to be provided and properly maintained where machinery presents an injury hazard to workers.
7) Sanitation, Food, and Housing
Workers are to be provided with ready access to clean toilet facilities, potable water and sanitary food preparation, storage, and eating facilities. Worker dormitories provided by the Supplier or a labour agent are to be maintained to be clean and safe, and provided with appropriate emergency egress, hot water for bathing and showering, adequate heat and ventilation, and reasonable personal space along with reasonable entry and exit privileges.
The Supplier recognizes that environmental responsibility is integral to producing world class products. In manufacturing operations, adverse effects on the community, environment and natural resources are to be minimized while safeguarding the health and safety of the public.

The environmental standards are:

1) Environmental Permits and Reporting
All required environmental permits (e.g. discharge monitoring), approvals and registrations are to be obtained, maintained and kept current and their operational and reporting requirements are to be followed.

2) Pollution Prevention and Resource Reduction
Waste of all types, including water and energy, are to be reduced or eliminated at the source or by practices such as modifying production, maintenance and facility processes, materials substitution, conservation, recycling and re-using materials.

3) Hazardous Substances
Chemicals and other materials posing a hazard if released to the environment are to be identified and managed to ensure their safe handling, movement, storage, use, recycling or reuse and disposal.

4) Wastewater and Solid Waste
Wastewater and solid waste generated from operations, industrial processes and sanitation facilities are to be characterized, monitored, controlled and treated as required prior to discharge or disposal.

5) Air Emissions
Air emissions of volatile organic chemicals, aerosols, corrosives, particulates, ozone depleting chemicals and combustion by-products generated from operations are to be characterized, monitored, controlled and treated as required prior to discharge.

6) Product Content Restrictions
The Supplier is to adhere to all applicable laws, regulations and customer requirements regarding prohibition or restriction of specific substances, including labeling for recycling and disposal.
