

Open the Door to better health care Policy

Join HOSPAC.

The Political Action Committees of the Texas Hospital Association

It's one thing to understand the political issues affecting health care, patients and providers.

It's another thing altogether to be able to dialogue with political leaders about how these issues will affect you, your work and the people you serve.

The difference is relationships – having the right ones with the right people who will open their doors and listen to what you have to say.

HOSPAC works hand-in-hand with the Texas Hospital Association and its member hospitals as they build these vital relationships with lawmakers. HOSPAC's job is to help keep the doors of influence open, so that lawmakers can hear our concerns and work toward solutions.

The stronger HOSPAC is, the more doors will open and the more powerful our collective voice will become.

*With every member,
HOSPAC's voice grows stronger and doors open wider.*

HOSPAC: Your key to better health care policy

HOSPAC is the political voice for you, your hospital and your patients. Together, we form the foundation upon which THA's advocacy team and its member hospitals work to build relationships, and to influence legislative and regulatory policy.

HOSPAC is made up of the state and federal political action committees of the Texas Hospital Association. The state HOSPAC was created in 1981; the federal HOSPAC was established in 1996. A 33-member Board of Directors, comprised of hospital and health care system leaders from across the state, governs both arms of HOSPAC. Today, as a unified organization, HOSPAC serves as the political voice for more than 355,000 health care professionals working in hospitals throughout Texas.

With grassroots membership, HOSPAC uses an informed and balanced approach to candidates and positions, emphasizing the hospital perspective on health care and other relevant issues.

HOSPAC accomplishes this by:

- supporting candidates who are best able to help improve health care policy;
- sharing information with members about candidates, as well as critical public-policy issues and processes; and
- promoting the vote and other political participation among our membership.

At the federal level, HOSPAC partners with the American Hospital Association to advocate for federal legislation that benefits Texas.

for better health care policy.

THE DIFFERENCE: From membership to influence

Working with THA, HOSPAC makes a difference through grassroots participation, political campaign involvement and personal relationships with elected officials.

- Grassroots participation means you – your vote, your voice and your HOSPAC membership.
- Political campaign involvement means support – for candidates expected to be influential on health care issues, via endorsements and campaign contributions.

HOSPAC supports a broad base of candidates, because we represent a diverse and dynamic membership, and because many different types of candidates may be well-positioned to help Texas hospitals improve health care delivery and funding.

HOSPAC contributes to and endorses candidates only with careful deliberation and approval by the board, which considers:

- candidate recommendations from hospital and other community leaders;
- the candidate's knowledge, philosophy and position on health care issues, and his or her willingness to listen to local hospital input; and
- district demographics.

- Personal relationships means opportunity – to talk with elected officials about what's important in health care today.

Your membership supports candidates who, as elected officials, offer us the opportunity to weigh in on the issues and policies affecting our hospitals and the communities we serve.

*You make the difference.
