SECTION IV. Committees

- A. Committees may be created by the board to handle and govern the day-to-day operation of specified USAA functions and/or departments. The USAA board retains final jurisdiction on all matters and decisions whether or not they are sub-governed by committees.
- B. A committee's purpose and jurisdiction is established upon its creation by the board. A new committee, and its purpose and jurisdiction, is created by a 3/4 vote of voting members. A majority vote of voting members is required to dissolve a committee.
- C. A committee shall have 3, 5 or 7 members, and all committee members must be board members. Committee procedures, rules, and make-up may be established by the committee itself. Each committee will have an elected chairperson, who must be an Associate or Senior member. No member may serve as chairperson on more than 2 committees. Any member may be on as many committees as he/she is elected.

- D. Committee elections shall be held for standing committees upon the request of a majority vote of voting members. Committee elections may not be held more than once a year, except for elections of a newly created committee.
- E. A committee must conform to and enforce all the USAA constitutional and procedural codes, as well as, rules of play. However, a committee may be given clearance to alter these codes and rules for their own purposes by either the board specifying the committee's lee-way upon their creation or with subsequent board approval, both requiring a 3/4 vote of voting members.
- F. The formation of a committee, the creation of its purposes, and the defining of its jurisdiction are constitutional functions. However, the committee itself, its rules and its goals should not be included in constitutional discussions, nor is a committee considered a constitutional entity.

SECTION V. Meeting Procedures

- A. A quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a scheduled USAA board meeting shall consist of at least 3 voting members, one of which must be a Senior member. A quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a special USAA board meeting shall consist of at least 5 voting members, two of which must be Senior members. If a member leaving a meeting prior to its conclusion would result in the lack of attendance necessary to constitute a quorum, then the remaining members will constitute a quorum until the meeting's conclusion.
- B. Special voting proxies must list a specific motion on which the absent member wishes to vote, and his/her distinct affirmation or disagreement with that issue. The motion with which the special proxy deal should be a reasonable copy of the motion which was listed on the pre-meeting agenda and made available to all members. The acting-President will rule on the interpretation of the special proxy.
- C. All proxies must be presented upon arrival of the proxy holder or at the start of the meeting to be valid. Proxies will be ruled on admissibility and announced as soon as they are presented. Rulings on interpretation may be made later, when the issue comes up and specific motions are made. A Senior member leaving a meeting before its conclusion may write valid proxy votes and present them to the acting-President before his/her departure.
- D. Members joining the meeting remotely by electronic means, such as teleconference, video conferencing, etc can vote in general elections and items posted prior to the official USAA meeting in the planned meeting agenda.

- D. Motions to end a meeting, if "recognized" and seconded, require a 2/3 vote of voting members.
- E. Classification of an individual to the rating of "Professional" requires a 2/3 vote of voting members.
- F. Proxy votes, whether by special proxy or general election proxy, carry one vote.

SECTION VII. Membership Dues

- A. Membership Dues for USAA board members: annual dues $25
- B. Application fees for USAA board membership (Application fees are due whenever an individual petitions to upgrade his or her membership status).
 - 1. Petition to affiliate status: $0
 - 2. Petition to a voting member status (associate or senior): $0
- C. Application fee includes the first year of dues for new affiliate members only. Other application fees are in addition to yearly dues. All monies collected from dues will be under the control of the USAA board of directors.
- D. Dues will be paid no later than the first board meeting, or first national-level event each year, whichever comes first. Board members not paying dues are considered absent from all meetings, have no vote, and gain no time towards status until they pay all outstanding dues.
- E. Tournament promoters will be charged an additional amount for USAA sanctioning for national-level events. This additional fee is a flat fee of $300 total for the event series, which will go to the USAA Treasury.
- F. The USAA Treasurer will be required to provide a detailed financial report at each USAA board meeting showing all funds collected and activity with those funds.
- G. The penalty for unapproved use or loss of USAA funds will be decided by the USAA board on a case by case basis.

SECTION VIII. Miscellaneous

- A. Voting member refers to Senior and Associate members.
- B. National-level tournament refers to the Nationals or Internationals. Regional-level tournament refers to sanctioned events by the USAA that are given the regional-level classification by a majority vote of Senior members.

Out-of-state refers to an event in which a player in question had to cross his/her residential state in order to attend.

C. Attendance

1. Any member or non-member who is present in the immediate environment where a USAA board meeting is being conducted for the lesser of more than 50% or three hours of the total in-session meeting time will automatically receive membership status credit towards attendance at a USAA board of directors meeting.
2. Any person or member who does not participate in the lesser of 3 hours or more than 50% of the total in-session meeting time may apply to the board for consideration for attendance.
 - a. A vote of 50.1% or greater in favor of the request for attendance is required to grant Attendance to the requesting individual.
 - b. It is the responsibility of the requesting individual to provide evidence of participation to the USAA board.
 - c. All official records, including meeting minutes for the meeting in question will be made available to the requesting individual.
3. In the event of the USAA Board meeting being held during the week prior to Nationals the following rule will apply. All USAA Board members present during the membership portion of the meeting will receive attendance credit for the meeting counting towards their qualifications. At the end of the meeting they must meet the qualifications as set forth in Section VII, C rule 1 and 2. Failure to meet these rules will result in no attendance credit for the meeting, and any status gained as a result of this credit being revoked.

D. "Recognized" refers to the fact that the meeting chairperson (appointed by the acting-President) may choose not to allow a motion to end discussion or a motion to end meeting to be voted upon. The acting-President may overrule this decision, and any decision of this may be overruled by a 4/5 vote of Senior members.

E. Acting-President refers to the highest ranking officer at a meeting, who may be appointed by a majority vote of Senior members present, if no officers are present.

F. Meeting

1. A "meeting" of the USAA board of directors shall be defined as an in-person formal gathering of board members in which business is being conducted in accordance with the bylaws and all other official organizational documentation.

2. A "scheduled meeting" refers to a meeting of the USAA board of directors taking place within 2 days of, and near the location of, a National or International tournament.
 3. A "special meeting" refers to an unscheduled in-person or EVP meeting of the USAA board called under special circumstances by the president. A majority vote of senior members can disallow a special meeting.
 4. An Email Voting Period refers to a session of business conducted via an electronic mail medium. An Email Voting Period does not satisfy the USAA membership requirement for meeting attendance.
 5. An EVP will be broken down into a three (3) week period
 - a. Week 1: Proposing motions and seconding motions
 - b. Week 2: Discussion on the motions up for a vote
 - c. Week 3: Voting on any motions that were seconded per USAA voting rules
- G. A National/International Tournament is to be defined as the USAA-recognized Tournament that determines USAA National/International rankings and counts towards USAA membership requirements and qualifications.

SECTION IX. Code of Conduct

In an effort to present the sport of Air Hockey and the USAA in the best light, and to promote the greatest degree of inclusivity and community possible within the USAA, the following Code of Conduct must be followed by all members and leadership of the USAA and by all vendors, sponsors, and other third parties associated with the USAA.

- A. Discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, gender, religion, creed, sexual orientation, age, disability, or medical history of any kind will not be tolerated.
- B. Hateful or aggressive speech or behavior of any kind toward another member of the USAA or a member of the general public will not be tolerated.
- C. Intentional competitive dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated.
- D. Dishonest manipulation of USAA elections of any kind will not be tolerated.
- E. Activity deemed by the law of the land as illegal, while in the context of official USAA business or events, of any kind will not be tolerated.
- F. Any serious breach of the Code of Conduct must be reported immediately to the USAA Board. A willful failure to report any such breach is itself a violation of the Code of Conduct.
