

Spalding University Proposal for Continuing Education Program for The KY City/County Management Association

1. Weekend Certification Program held at Spalding University Campus in downtown Louisville:
 - A. Friday Night Welcome Reception
 - B. Saturday day: classes
 - C. Saturday evening: Social event – possible AAA Louisville Bats Baseball Game
 - D. Sunday: classes with weekend ending with brunch and speaker
2. Possibility of conducting this Certification Program once or twice a year
3. Participation open to City/County Managers/Administrators, staff, and MPA students
4. Cap attendance at around 30-40 participants
5. Cost per attendee:
 - $1,000.00 for Managers/Administrators and Staff
 - $500 for MPA Students
 - Cost includes cost of the course, as well as lodging and food for the entire weekend
6. Lodging: Two nights at the Brown Hotel (4th and Broadway) located 2 blocks from the campus. Single rooms for each attendees, with MPA students sharing 2 to a room
7. Presenters will include University faculty and experienced practitioners
8. Possible subjects to be presented: Budgeting, Conflict Resolution, Strategic Planning, Communications, Economic Development, Public Safety, Downtown Development, Code Enforcement, Parks Management, Affordable Housing. Human Resources etc.
9. A possible Capstone class arrangement at Spalding in connection the KCCMA and a Kentucky Public University's Masters of Public Administration program

Spalding University is a private university established in the Catholic tradition that is located in downtown Louisville. Among other highly recognized academic programs, Spalding is well known for its excellence in Leadership Education.