“Celebrating 114 Years”

July 4, 1907 - July 4, 2021

- United by Faith -
- Growing as Family -
- Building a Future -

*July 14, the Anniversary that the cornerstone of our Parish was laid,
is fast approaching.*

*To commemorate this special day,
St. Anthony Parish is hosting a Parish gathering, which will include a meal, bonfire, and fireworks.*

*Details are still pending, but hold the date for the evening of Sunday, July 4.
What a great event to celebrate!*

50/50 corner

The 50/50 drawing winner for May was Flossie Townsend. Her winning ticket was one of the last tickets filled out by husband, Tom Townsend. His quick thinking rewarded Flossie with $316.00, & Tom received the $50.00 seller incentive.

Speaking of annuals, it's not too late to pick up an annual for the remainder of 2021. They are a great gift for the “hard-to-buy-for” person. As of today, we have 204 reserved tickets.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- July 4 - Parish Celebration; Potluck, bonfire,
- October 6 & 7 - Rummage Sale

Pray
without Ceasing!

St. Anthony Young Adult Group: Nova Rigiditas

"Push back against the age as hard as it pushes against you." - Flannery O'Conner

In an age where our values are dismissed as backward and medieval, now more than ever young Catholics must unite to bolster one another in the faith.

Our young adult group, Nova Rigiditas, meets a few times monthly for prayer, Holy Mass and spiritually formative talks, and lighthearted recreation and fellowship. We emphasize the Latin Mass, the rosary, and our ancient traditional roots.

Today's Culture of Death can only be pushed back if a Culture of Catholicism rises to cross swords with it, for it's young Catholics who will determine the future of the Church.

If you or someone you know between the ages of 18-35 is interested in joining, please contact our young adult leader: Caeli Rose McCutchen - 734-210-3580

Gospel Meditation: June 20, 2021 - 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping? After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be? We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness. Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It's unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way, that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this? True faith trusts in the Spiritual Communion:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there And unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

THE PENNY CATECHISM CHARITY - Chapter IV

THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD III

203. What does the fourth Commandment forbid?

The fourth Commandment forbids all contempt, stubbornness, and disobedience to our parents and lawful superiors.

steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into uncharted waters without hesitation. Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"? ©LPi

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts.

You are our model of a loving father.

*When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.*

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.

Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.

Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen

Blessed St. Joseph, Foster Father of the Lord Jesus, Pray for All Fathers.
