1.02 Objects. The objects of this Chapter shall be to promote and forward the objects of The American Institute of Architects within the assigned territory of this Chapter. The Institute objects are: to organize and unite in fellowship the members of the architectural profession; to promote the aesthetic, scientific and practical efficiency of the profession; to advance the science and art of planning and building by advancing the standards of architectural education, training and practice; to coordinate the building industry and the profession of architecture to insure the advancement of the living standards of people through their improved environment; and to make the profession of ever-increasing service to society.

1.03 Domain. The domain of this Chapter shall be that territory described in its charter or otherwise established by the Institute. The territory of this Chapter is described as follows: The entire counties of Monterey, Santa Cruz and San Benito.

1.04 Organization. This Chapter is a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation organized under the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law. The Chapter was incorporated in the State of California on December 7, 1955, and chartered by the Institute on November 1, 1953.

1.05 Authority. This Chapter shall represent and act for the Institute membership within the territory assigned to it under a charter issued by the Institute. The Institute and this Chapter may act as agent, one for the other, or through a delegated third party, for the purpose of collecting and forwarding dues, acting as custodian of funds, or otherwise; provided that the Institute and this Chapter execute a written agreement to that effect.

1.06 Conformity with Institute Policy. No act of this Chapter shall directly or indirectly nullify or contravene any act or policy of the Institute. This Chapter shall cooperate with its state organization and regional organization to further the interests of the membership, and by agreement with these organizations may represent and act for them within the territory of this Chapter.

1.07 Purpose: The purpose of this Chapter shall be to promote excellence in architecture and the profession of architecture within the territory of AIA Monterey Bay and to promote and forward the objectives of The American Institute of Architects.

1.1 AFFILIATIONS WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

1.11 Purpose of Affiliations. This Chapter may affiliate with any local organization of the construction industry operating within the territory of this Chapter that is not used or maintained for financial gain, price fixing or political purposes, if and while the objects of this Chapter will be promoted by such affiliation.

1.12 Agreements of Affiliation. Every affiliation must be authorized by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors and shall be evidenced by a written agreement signed by the Chapter and the affiliated organization.

1.121 Statement of Purpose. Every agreement of affiliation shall state the purposes and objects of the affiliation, the terms and conditions under which it is entered into, the duration, the objects of the affiliate, and the nature of its organization, membership, government and operations.

1.122 Limitations. No affiliated organization shall have any voice in the affairs of this Chapter, nor shall it bind or obligate this Chapter to any policy or activity unless the Board of Directors has voted to be so bound or obligated.

1.123 Termination. Any affiliation may be terminated by majority vote of the Board of Directors upon such notice to the affiliated organization as may be required in the agreement of affiliation.

1.13 Privileges of Affiliated Organizations. The representatives of an affiliated or collaborating organization may attend any of the regular meetings of this Chapter, and may speak at the invitation of the presiding officer.

1.2 ENDORSEMENTS

Neither this Chapter, nor the Board of Directors, any Chapter committee, nor any of the Chapter's officers, directors, committee members or employees, in an official capacity as such, shall approve, sponsor or endorse, either directly or indirectly, any public or private enterprise operated for profit, or any material of construction or any method or manner of handling, using, distributing or dealing in any material or product. However, nothing in this paragraph shall inhibit or restrict the Chapter's ability to comment on various design and construction methods or practices which further the positive contribution of architecture to society.

1.21 Responsibility. The Board of Directors shall be solely responsible for deciding which, if any, political endorsements they may consider at each political cycle. If they choose to consider a political endorsement, then the following working procedure should be followed:

1.22 Political Committee. All candidates for a position must be sent a questionnaire formulated by the Political Committee. The Political Committee, or its equivalent as appointed by the President on an Ad-Hoc basis, must be ratified by the Board of Directors by a simple majority vote.

1.23 Process. The particular process that this committee shall follow can consist of one (1) or more of the following items:

1.231 Invite. Invite one (1) or more of the candidates, who achieve "passing" scores from the questionnaires, to interviews during which additional data can be gathered.

1.232 Evaluate. Evaluate the questionnaires and formulate a recommendation.

1.24 Recommendations. This subcommittee shall discuss and bring its recommendations forward to the full Board of Directors, along with a report indicating the positives and negatives of each candidate.

1.25 Approval. All political endorsements must be approved by a majority of the entire Board of Directors membership

(i.e., if there are nine (9) members, then there must be five (5) positive votes; this is regardless of the number of people present at the meeting). Absentee votes shall not be allowed.

1.26 Publication. The membership should be kept informed of any endorsements, in a timely manner, through the Eagle Publication, Facebook, Instagram or Flash Bulletin. The usual method of publicizing to the general public of an endorsement, if one is made, will be by letter to the editor to one (1) or more local newspapers, as well as Press releases, if deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors.

1.27 Conflict of Interest Policy. The Board of Directors shall formulate a Conflict-of-Interest Policy that will address how Board members must refrain from decision making when actual or perceived conflicts of interest do exist.

1.271 When a Director has mixed loyalties, then a conflict will be deemed to exist, and the Director shall refrain from voting. Mixed loyalties shall include, but are not limited to, any type of direct involvement with the candidate or issue that has direct economic impact on the individual. Also, if a Director has made a personal commitment or endorsement, then a conflict will be deemed to exist. (Therefore, it is important that Directors refrain from individually committing to a candidate or position prior to fulfilling their duties as a member of this Board).

1.272 For these matters, the number of positive votes required for an endorsement would then be a majority of the new, lower total. A minimum of 3 positive votes shall be deemed the minimum necessary, under any circumstances, to be able to make a political endorsement.

1.3 SPONSORSHIPS

1.31 Purpose. The Chapter is authorized to accept, or with other organizations participate in, sponsorship contributions, monetary or service in kind, from or with other organizations or business enterprises for the purpose of providing service to the members or for the hosting of membership events, whether for chapter business, education or fellowship.

1.32 Limitations. The Chapter may provide said sponsors the opportunity to present and distribute information to the membership. Such dissemination of information shall not constitute endorsement of the subject information, nor serve as an affiliation between the Chapter and said sponsor.

1.4 PUBLICATIONS

Subject to prior approval of the Board, this Chapter may prepare, edit, publish, print, sell or otherwise distribute any document, book, data, information or other literature concerning any matter that will tend to promote its objectives.

ARTICLE 2 MEMBERSHIP

2.0 GENERAL PROVISIONS

2.01 Categories of Membership. The membership of this Chapter shall consist of:

- b) the Allied and Affiliate members the Chapter may admit as provided in Section 2.3.

2.011 Architect members may also hold the titles Fellow and/or Emeritus. Unless otherwise provided, the term “Associate member(s)” in these bylaws shall be understood to include International Associate members. Although Associate members may also hold the title Emeritus, International Associate members may not hold that title.

2.02 Definitions. In these bylaws, Architect and Associate members who have been assigned to this Chapter by the Institute are referred to as “assigned members.” The term “unassigned member” shall refer to members assigned to other chapters who have been admitted to membership in this Chapter pursuant to Section 2.2 of these bylaws. The term “Allied” shall refer to Allied members (as defined in Section 2.35), and the term “Affiliate” shall refer to Student Affiliates (as defined in Section 2.36) and Honorary Affiliates (as defined in Section 2.37). The term “member,” if not otherwise qualified, shall refer to all persons in all classes of membership in this Chapter. The term “voting member” shall refer to the assigned members, and only the assigned members shall be considered “members” within the meaning of California Corporations Code Section 5056. The term “non-voting member” shall refer to the unassigned members and the Affiliate members/and the Affiliate and Allied members. For the avoidance of doubt, references in these bylaws to the “members,” if not otherwise qualified, shall mean the voting members and the non-voting members collectively, but no such reference shall constitute any non-voting member as a “member” within the meaning of California Corporations Code Section 5056.

2.021 Membership Rights and Privileges. The voting members shall have the right to vote, as set forth in these bylaws, on the election of members of the Board of Directors, on the disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Chapter, on any merger and its principal terms and any amendment of those terms, and on any election to dissolve the Chapter. In addition, the voting members shall have all rights afforded members under the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law. The non-voting members shall have the rights and privileges set forth in these bylaws or as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors from time to time (as long as such determination is consistent with the Institute Bylaws), but shall not have the right to vote, or any other rights afforded members under the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law.

2.03 Qualifications. This Chapter shall not establish qualifications in addition to, or which vary from, the Institute’s policies for membership.

2.04 Non-resident Status. Non-resident status shall be accorded to members who reside and have their principal place of business outside the territory of the Chapter and not in the territory of another chapter. Members who have applied for and been granted such status shall have the same rights and privileges as resident members in the same category, except that the Chapter may lower dues and/or assessments for such members as provided in Article 3.

2.05 Enrollment of Members. Every member assigned to or admitted by this Chapter shall be duly notified to that effect by this Chapter, and shall be enrolled by the Secretary as a member of this Chapter. New memberships will be announced at the next regular meeting of this Chapter and in the next issue of the Chapter's official publication.

2.06 Annual Dues and Assessments. Every member of this Chapter shall pay the fixed annual dues and assessments of this Chapter as determined in Article 3.

2.07 Resignations. Any member may resign from this Chapter by presenting a written resignation to the Secretary. The resignation of an assigned member in good standing shall be forwarded to the Institute and will be effective upon its receipt by the Institute. Other resignations shall be effective as of the date the letter of resignation was received by the Secretary.

2.08 Good Standing Defined. A member is not in good standing in this Chapter if and while in default of dues or other obligations to either this Chapter or the Institute.

2.09 Loss or Suspension of Interests, Rights and Privileges. A member, assigned or unassigned, who resigns, or whose membership is suspended or terminated by the Institute, loses all rights in this Chapter and the Institute, including any right to use the Chapter's or Institute's name, initials, symbol, or seal, until the member is reinstated in good standing. Resignation, suspension or termination of membership does not relieve the individual of the obligation to pay any indebtedness owed to the Chapter.

If grounds appear to exist for suspending or terminating a member under these bylaws, the following procedure shall be followed:

- 1) The Board of Directors shall give the voting member at least fifteen (15) days' prior notice of the proposed suspension or termination and the reasons for the proposed suspension or termination. Notice shall be given by any method reasonably calculated to provide actual notice. Notice given by mail shall be sent by first-class or registered mail to the voting member's last address as shown on the Chapter's records.
- 2) The voting member shall be given an opportunity to be heard, either orally or in writing, at least five (5) days before the effective date of the proposed suspension or termination. The hearing shall be held, or the written statement considered, by the Board of Directors or by a committee or person authorized by the Board of Directors to determine whether the suspension or termination should occur.
- 3) The Board of Directors, committee, or person shall decide whether the voting member should be suspended, expelled, or sanctioned in any way. The decision of the Board of Directors, committee, or person shall be final.
- 4) Any action challenging an expulsion, suspension, or termination of voting membership, including a claim alleging defective notice, must be commenced within one (1) year after the date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination.

2.15 Emeritus Members. A member who is granted Emeritus status in accordance with the Institute Bylaws shall automatically become an Emeritus member of this Chapter. All rights, interest, privileges, titles, liabilities and obligations of such members, other than the payment of regular and supplemental dues, shall remain unchanged unless otherwise provided in the Institute Bylaws.

2.21 Admission. This Chapter, without action by the Institute, may admit to unassigned membership any Architect or Associate member assigned to another chapter who applies for such membership in writing in the manner prescribed by the Board of Directors.

2.22 Rights and Privileges. Subject to whatever conditions the Institute Bylaws may provide, an unassigned member shall be subject to all regulations and shall have all rights in this Chapter of an assigned member, except that an unassigned member shall not vote on matters described in Section 5.24 of these bylaws, nor represent this Chapter as a delegate or otherwise at any meeting of the Institute.

The Board of Directors may terminate the membership of an Allied or Affiliate member for indebtedness as provided in Section 3.32 or, by two-thirds (2/3) vote, for conduct detrimental to the interests of the Chapter.

2.34 Rights and Privileges of Allied and Affiliate Members. Allied members shall have the rights and privileges specified in these bylaws and the Institute Bylaws, including the use of the phrase "Allied Member of the Monterey Bay Chapter of the American Institute of Architects" to describe themselves. Allied members may include engineers, planners, landscape architects, sculptors, muralists, artists, and others in government, education, journalism, manufacturing, industry and/or other fields allied to architecture who the chapter believes will provide a meaningful contribution by reason of their employment or occupation.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it shall require approval by the members of a class of voting membership if the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a bylaw would (a) materially and adversely affect the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer in a manner different than such action affects another class; (b) materially and adversely affect such class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer by changing the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of another class; (c) increase or decrease the number of memberships authorized for such class; (d) increase the number of memberships authorized for another class of voting membership; (e) effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the memberships of such class; or (f) authorize a new class of voting membership.

exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the voting memberships; or (d) authorize a new class of voting membership.

9.2 AMENDING SUPERMAJORITY REQUIREMENTS

9.21 Supermajority Requirements.
