

Hawaiian Mission Children's Society
167th Annual Meeting
Saturday, April 6, 2019
Minutes

The enrolled descendants, consorts, officers, trustees, and guests of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society came together at the Society's 167th Annual Meeting held on the grounds of Hawaiian Mission Houses Historic Site and Archives at 553 South King Street, Honolulu, Hawai'i. Seventy-two members attended.

The meeting was called to order at 10:05 a.m. by HMCS President Peter T. Young. The opening prayer and singing of "Blest Be the Tie that Binds" were led by Trustee Christopher Cook

The President announced that instead of taking time this morning to read reports, the Annual Report and the Financials will soon be online and available in the HMCS offices so that this meeting time could be devoted to sharing news of the Bicentennial plans

The Minutes of the Annual Meeting of 2018 were approved, as circulated by publishing on the website and as available at check-in. Motion by Patricia Morgan; second by Charles Black. The vote for approval was unanimous.

Executive Director Neal V. Hitch, Ph.D. introduced his staff

Quadalupe Amor	Brailey Hirose-Hulbert
John Barker	Po`ai Lincoln
Gabriela Bonilla	Elizabeth Pooloa
Lisa Chow	Mike Smola
Herman Cobile	Lisa Solomine
Jaron Gable

Ashlie Duarte-Smith and Mary Ann Alexander Lentz were unable to attend.

The report of the Nominating Committee was given by Trustee John Laimana. Lindsay Norcross Mist was recommended to be re-elected for a third three-year term

President Peter Young recognized Juliette Cooke who made the motion to re-elect Lindsay Norcross Mist. It was seconded by John Morgan and the motion passed unanimously.

It was noted that there were no Bylaws Revisions or new Articles of Incorporation to propose.

Neal V. Hitch, Ph.D. announced that the Bicentennial year had arrived. He introduced William Kanui (portrayed by Will Ha`o) who traveled with the first company from Boston in October, 1819 and arrived on Hawaii island in April, 1820.

Dr. Hitch talked about plans for the coming year and discussed the play which Marion Lyman-Mersereau is writing as part of PlayBuilders of Hawaii Theater Company.

The singing of "Hawaii Aloha" was led by Ken Makuakane and Adam LeFebvre while families gathered their keiki for the Roll Call.

The annual Roll Call was conducted by John Morgan and Christopher Abbott. Sophie LeFebvre, a Cooke, Rice, Judd descendant assisted with the ringing of the bell, and the counters appointed were: Po`ai Lincoln and Brailey Hirose-Hulbert.

As each family name was called, those who belonged to the family stood and were counted.
