The Youth Summer program at the Rec Park has been cancelled for the year due to the Covid-19 virus but they are putting together a virtual Summer Program for the month of July and will have a grab bag of activities for the children and also be doing the Summer Reading program at the Library. Information can be found on the Town of Livingston website.

The Town Hall has had a few alarm activations recently that were due to a faulty wire but the problem has now been resolved.

Town Hall now has a Wi-Fi hotspot that people can use to access the internet from the parking lot.

The Town will be making modifications to their website and a new look will be coming soon!

Twin Lakes update- They have cut the capacity in half in the parking lot, to reduce the number of visitors that can be there at once to adhere to social distancing guidelines and also put up new signs. The Town is looking to hire a few people to watch over the area on weekends to help with adherence to the rules.
