Agenda item 6: New Business

With financial support from the federal government, youth (age 17-27) are assigned to three Ottawa environmental groups. Greenspace Alliance proposes to have its cohort of 10 youth work on the climate action aspect of the new Official Plan, leading to a workshop in mid-November. Greenspace would like to identify environment committees in community associations to work with these youth on the project.

Agenda item 8: Committee reportsPlanning & Zoning Committee – Official Plan Review

A small team of FCA representatives participated among with personnel from the development and building management industries in Official Plan workshops organized by the City on June 11 and August 14. The workshops dealt with growth projections (June) and the concept of nodes and corridors for low-rise infill.
