

To whom it may concern:

I would like to offer my personal recommendation for my Real Estate Coach, John Gualtieri. of Real Estate Champions. I have been coached by John for nearly 2 years, and plan to continue coaching with John.

As a high producing agent who was struggling with time management, expense control, and basically no life outside of working, I needed someone who had my best interest at heart. During a master mind call, a friend of mine recommended that I find a coach. That friend later sent me an e-mail with a link to Real Estate Champions website, and the rest is history.

John has become not only a coach, but a trusted friend. During a brief hiatus from coaching, my business started to decline, and I was heading into a depressed state. After calling John and explaining my situation, and asking him to take me back, John quickly identified areas that needed immediate work. I'm glad I didn't wait any longer! My team of 2 buyers agents are also reaping the rewards of my coaching. My team meetings are meatier, and my training is much better. We have seen positive growth, as we've set goals, and John pushes us to obtain those goals. I still haven't figured out how to "have a life", but I'm working on that. Through John's constant encouragement, I see the light at the end of the tunnel.

Respectfully,
Lynn Murphy-Dickerscheid
