

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Research studies in education show that school attendance is a major factor affecting student achievement, as chronic absenteeism is a proven, early warning sign of academic risk and school dropout, according to Attendance Works and Child & Family Policy Center. Parents, guardians, and students must adhere to the attendance policy and procedures below and should refer to the school calendar, when scheduling appointments and vacations.

Students enrolled are considered lawfully absent (Excused Absence/Excused Tardy) from school, including absence for any portion of the day, unless under the following conditions:

- a) Illness or injury of the child or the child's family member which requires hospitalization or bed rest.
- b) Physician or dental appointment.
- c) Infectious disease or parasitic infestation.
- d) Funeral service, memorial service, or bereavement upon the death of the child's family member.
- e) Life-threatening illness or injury of the child's family member.
- f) Compliance with a court order (e.g. visitation, subpoena).
- g) Special educator or related services as defined in 10 U.S.C. 1401 (2004) for the child's disability.
- h) Observance of a religious holiday or service, because the child's or parent's religion forbids secular activity on the instructional day.
- i) Extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the child's parent.

A note that explains the reason for the child's absence must be sent following each absence (-no later than 5 days after the absence, see attached attendance letter/Appendix B). Parents and/or guardians will receive daily messages when students are absent and tardy via School Messenger. Teachers and Student Support Staff will also contact families when students are experiencing excessive tardies, early dismissals and unexcused absences. If a student arrives after 8:30am, they are considered unexcused tardy.

- Three (3) or more unexcused absences and/or unexcused tardies will result with a phone call and letter home.
- Three (3) consecutive unexcused absences will result with a phone call to parent, guardian and/or emergency contact. If parent, guardian and/or emergency contact cannot be reached, Cedar Tree Academy will contact
