Jill Blocher, Associate Research

Jill has a passion for helping individuals reach their goals and experience success. She has vast experience in research in her earlier careers as an educational consultant and a gifted/talented educator. Jill's creative mind, ability to be adaptive and free thinking, plus an intense attention to detail guide our research methods.

Jill holds a Bachelor's Degree in English and a Master's Degree in Elementary Education/Gifted Education from Florida Atlantic University. Jill is a history buff that loves to travel and learn about different cultures. When not working, she says her husband and three children keep her on her toes! Jill is also an active volunteer in her children's school and in her local community.

"In the real estate business you learn more about people and you learn more about community issues, you learn more about life, you learn more about the impact of government, probably than any other profession that I know of."
