Devotional 9-14-2020

I heard a song the other day, it's called "Together (We'll Get Through This)" by Steven Curtis Chapman. The chorus goes like this: "Together, we're gonna get through this; together, no matter what it is; There's no valley too deep, no river too wide, no mountain too steep that we can't climb, together!"

There are some things I can do, and would rather do, alone. But there are other things that I simply cannot attain without your help. You are important! What you do makes a difference, even if you can't see it for yourself! From the very beginning of this pandemic we've heard various phrases to bring encouragement to the world. Perhaps the best one is, "We will get through this together!"

Here we are six months in and many of us are still together. Thank you! We are still together because we won't give up. We keep on keeping on. Helen Keller said, "Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much." Together we can do great things!

Let me encourage you today: "together, we will get through this." No matter how you feel, get up, dress up, show up, and never give up! We can do this!

Together! I am there for you. You are there for me.

Let us pray: Thank you Father that you have brought us together through this time. We are thankful for each other, and so very thankful for You! Bless all those who read this, and may they know you will be with us together. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 5:11, "Therefore encourage one another and build each other up."

Ephesians 4:1-3, "Therefore, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace."
