Virtual Author's Talk for grades K-3

I Am My History celebrates the power, strength, and richness of Black History and Culture by shining the light on our ancestors whose creativity and resilience lives in each of us. With confidence, awareness, and pride we too can accomplish extraordinary things and change the world just like those who came before us.

- Engaging Interactive and Multimedia Read-Aloud
- Author talks about the process of writing a book
- Author leads activity with students
- Free teacher lessons to extend learning beyond book
- Giveaways and Prizes

Authors Talk offerings

Authors Talk Fees

The Author's Talk has a flat fee of $100. Organizations who participate in the Talk will receive 10% off of their book purchases up to 5 books. We want your students to celebrate the richness of Black History and Culture throughout the school year by having a classroom copy of I Am My History.
