Hey Susiel

We are under contract to purchase this property and wish to close within the next thirty days. It is to my understanding that there is an RDA restriction that will need to be removed. Please advise as far as the court date that will be in place for the seller to attend.

From there, I understand the paperwork will go back to your office, then to Debbie, then to an in house attorney, and finally the commissioner for signatures at which point the deed restriction will be officially released and the final paperwork will be mailed directly to the seller? (I want to be clear for future reference).

Your office, Ebony especially, has been extremely helpful and pleasant to work with, its greatly appreciated! See attached AOS for this property.

Thank you kindly,

Holly Schuster

Inspections & Access

Seller will allow Buyer and/or his inspectors complete access to the property for a whole-house inspection, a wood-destroying pest inspection, and any other inspections the Buyer deems necessary, all at the Buyer’s expense. If the results of these inspections are not satisfactory to the Buyer, the Buyer will not be obligated to close. Seller will provide Buyer with a key/lockbox/access to the property for the purpose of completing these inspections, as well as a day and evening phone number for all occupants in order to schedule the inspections. Seller understands that although this is an “as-is” deal the buyer has a right to due diligence. This includes but is not limited to, contractor/financing/partner walkthroughs. Further, buyer and seller agree and understand that the buyer is an investor and is entitled to market the property in anyway they may deem necessary prior to settlement.

Breach of contract

Buyer and Seller agree that, upon any default by the Buyer, Seller will keep any earnest money as full liquidated damages. Earnest money in the amount of $100.00 will be held at accredited Title Agency: Prosperity Abstract. Buyer and seller agree that upon any default by the Seller, buyer may be reimbursed for the title search fees, any other expenses incurred to complete the transaction, and other losses sustained from the seller’s breach of contract.

Automatic Renewal

This contract will automatically renew for 30 days if the title work is still pending by the settlement date.

Federally mandated lead disclosure clause: Every Buyer of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling unit was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. If the dwelling unit was built prior to 1978, Buyer has the right to inspect for lead, at Buyer’s cost, for a minimum of ten (10) days following contract acceptance. BUYER WAIVES THE RIGHT TO THIS INSPECTION.

Good morning Susie,

In 1962 PHA acquired the Blumberg campus through condemnation. However, for some reason 2240 West Oxford Street was erroneously excluded from the condemnation. The Third District Surveyor incorporated this parcel into the legal description for the Blumberg campus in 1964 and was incorporated into the City Plan. The City, therefore, no longer recognized this parcel independently. In 2014 as part of preparing for the redevelopment of the Blumberg campus PHA pulled title and examined all of the deeds and the eminent domain action and discovered this parcel was never conveyed to PHA or included in the condemnation. PHA worked with the City and this property was conveyed in 2014 through the VPRC process to PHA and the deed included the normal VPRC restrictions (including reverter language).

This property is part of a development phase which will include the new construction of 83 rental units. PHA has all necessary financing approvals and we are trying to close on this development over the next 30 days. However, the deed restrictions are causing issues with the lenders.

Given there was a property located on this site when the campus was initially developed and PHA is currently completing the redevelopment of the campus PHA would like to request removal of the restrictions in the VPRC deed.

I appreciate your assistance with this and let me know if you have any questions or require additional information.

Thanks
