

EDWARD TILLMAN

From the Ghetto to Greatness, the story of the Sales Rhino

Discover how an inner city kid forged his way to success without a ball in hand, an ivy league degree, or a computer in his garage.

Sales has been in Edward Tillman's blood from the start. From his early beginnings growing up in the shadow of the Bankhead courts slums of Atlanta, Georgia he would steal candy bars from local grocery stores only to sell them at a price below the grocery for 100% profits.

Learn how he overcame petty theft, educational failures, glass ceilings and other life roadblocks to harness, enhance and teach others his unique and successful selling style after honorably serving as a Marine Corps War Veteran.

Edward has found success in call centers, banks, insurance agencies, and financial firms, and he is ready to share the secrets to his success.

Train with The Rhino Sales System (RSS) and develop a more defined and successful sales process, understand with complete clarity who your target market is, how to best reach them and most importantly craft a closing strategy that will win far more sales than you lose.

Discover the origins of the Sales Rhino and how you can become a sales Rhino in your own right.
