Milt began the program by recognizing the UA Rotary Board Members that have fulfilled their two-year terms. Members Brad Frick, Wade Giffin, Allison Russo, Barri Jones, and John Trapp have completed their commitments.

Board Members beginning their second year are Connie Aschinger, Doug Godard, Jim Nicklaus, John Krauss, and Jaime Sisto.

New Members entering their first year are Anne Croskey, Angela Lanctot, Jeanine Hummer, Eric Stoll, and Jerry Woessner.

Rotary Board members were sworn in by Price Finley, District Governor.

Milt Lustnauer will begin the Rotary year as President-Elect, Andy Livingston as President Nominee/Secretary (and UA Foundation Treasurer), John Adams as Treasurer, and Peggy Concilla will remain as bookkeeper.

Milt recognized the passing of members Bob Edler, Homer Mincy, and Kevin McGovern. He also recognized the past 26 club past presidents.

He concluded with challenges and highlights of Debbie Johnson's year as Club President. She had to implement online meetings, ran her business, experienced the death of her brother, had two daughters get married, and purchased a new home.

Comments from President Johnson:

President Debbie Johnson thanked the unsung heroes of the club that keep each meeting moving including Don Trotier, Ann Croskey, and Chris Taylor. She also recognized Herb Gillen for completing four consecutive years on the Rotary Board. She thanked Milt Lustnauer for terrific programs and expressed her gratitude to the committee chairs.

"Rotary opens opportunities, and boy were there!" Throughout challenges of a pandemic, Rotarians came through. She conveyed that our club is healthy in finances, membership and engagement.

Debbie then recognized our Club Rotarians of the Year:

Barri Jones was a Board Member and Community Service Chair. She coordinated Meals on Wheels as well as Senior Service Day. She was a regular for club service projects including Bed Brigade. Her twin joined her online from London, England and Washington DC. Barri received a Rotary clock as a token of our appreciation. Congratulations to Barri.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

Tom Davis led our project with West Broad Street Elementary. He tutored students online and coordinated Salvation Army Kettle Ringing. He was joined by his wife Mary Beth, and by Cindy Leonard and Christina Ifill from West Broad Elementary. Tom was presented with Rotary golf balls. Thank you and congratulations to Tom.

Debbie made her final comments and concluded with thanking her husband, Mark.

Price Finley then installed President Joe Valentino.

Joe announced the Rotary Theme of the Year, “Serve to Change Lives.” He stated he is honored and humbled to be in role. He is thankful for the confidence of the club. He presented outgoing President Johnson with flowers, and also gave a bouquet to her husband, Mark -along with a bottle of Zucapa.

President Valentino expressed the through Covid, we have lost “connectiveness” and we need to work lead our community through a reemergence. We need to re-engage as a club in service. We can be at the forefront our community.

He relayed his objectives for the coming year:

- New Members
- How and where to help special needs population
- Rotary involvement with UA Community Center
- Diversity within the club that mirrors our community.
- Make a local impact in UA.

Joe concluded with “Together we will change lives though relationships.”

THE MEETING

Milt Lustnauer opened the June 22, 2021 meeting of the Upper Arlington Rotary Club held in person at Scioto Country Club and virtually via Zoom. The prayer and pledge were led by Andy Schmidt.

Guests: Don Trotier introduced his son, Brian. Brian is a former club member that lives in San Diego, but still has maintained his passion to serve with several community awards.

Dave Dewey was joined by his wife, Tovie. Joe Valentino welcomed his wife, Peggy.

Our club had the privilege of being joined by Assistant District Governor, Wolf Lant.

NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

The UA Rotary Board approved the transfer of $20,000 to the UA Rotary Foundation.

The Board approved the resignations of Chris Taylor and Tim Donovan. Bill Loveland's status is now Emeritus.

There will be a new committee formed to address lunch and dues status as we return to a “more normal” routine.
