Fourth Race Comments

QUEEN OF MARCS

Took charge at once in comeback tuner, coasted home impressively.

Only concern, why the missed time?

JUNE MORNING

Off gate 1-2, came out far turn, suffered some traffic, not much of a late rally. Good post. And Luke hops aboard. That could drive the price down.

DRINK ME PRETTY

Rushed up 3/8s, on rim balance, stalled far turn, lost contact. Maybe a less aggressive drive tonight.

MARYS PRETTY GIRL

Pushed leaving, pocket behind the fave, was driven, easy 2nd best. Solid recent form makes her look plenty tough again tonight.

LAKOTA LAW

Got away well, took easy run along rail behind the top three, some urging. Braxten's choice. Does get a little class relief too. Plan from outside?

Fifth Race Comments

RED STAR TIGER

Moved from back 4th over half, loose cover to lane, urged to eke out 3rd spot. Switches to the inside here.

Looks like one of many.

LAISSEZMOIPICOLER

Left, tripped behind speedy rival, cleared, but didn't manage much of a rally. Luke hops aboard. Would not ignore.

RAMSAY

Stuck afar early, saved ground to 3/4s, angled out, urged. Outside again but a smaller field offers him a chance to land on the ticket.

URINGOODHANDS

Flew from gate, blazed the clip to far turn, attacked into lane, stalled suddenly once passed. Has enough speed to overcome outer post but staying power concerns.

Sixth Race Comments

MYSTIC RULER

Sped from gate, took breather to half, fought off 1st attacker into lane, caught near wire. Okay form, hikes a bit. Usable.

BETTORS PROMISE

Reserved leaving, took an easy run from the back in his Expo tuner. Drops, adds Luke, how much tighter after last week's comebacker?

FIVE CARD DRAW

Out first near last bend, cover from fave midbend, driven, missed 2nd in photo. Another in decent form and another gimmick must.

COZ AND EFFECT

Left with 20thers, parked quarter, yielded to winner 3/8s, chased, held okay, mild traffic near wire. Can't rule out this guy either.

TO THE LIMIT

Moved out late last bend, took cover into lane, had some late pace. Mooney returns, his choice in this one.

PH HIPPIE

Took cover near half, gapped flow last bend, failed to rally. Outside again but only a 6-pack. Dean returns, yet another possibility.

Far back early, never got into a striking position. Nick's choice in here. Enough class relief to make her a must use.

WIZZEL STIX

2nd over half, good lead up trip, unable to rally through the snappy final panel. What's the plan from the outside post?
