Food and Beverage: The La Crosse Center reserves the exclusive right to serve all refreshment break items including Continental Breakfasts and Hors d'oeuvres, and any and all beverages including alcoholic beverages within the confines of the Center. Lessee agrees that only the licensed and insured caterers approved by the Center and listed above shall be employed upon the premises.

No food or beverages shall be sold, carried, or given away in the building or within the boundaries set by city ordinance by Lessee, attendees to event(s), or any individual exhibitor unless prior approval is granted by La Crosse Center management.

All food and beverage served by the La Crosse Center personnel is subject to a twenty (20%) percent (or current rate at the time of the reception) service charge and 5.5% sales tax. This includes beer served from a half barrel and any beer, wine, mixed drink, or other beverage dispensed by Center staff and paid for by the Lessee or Host. All snacks and hors d'oeuvres served by Center staff will be subject to the service charge as well.

When catering at the La Crosse Center, the caterers are required to collect a 20% service fee on the gross catering charges of any given function. This fee is paid to the La Crosse Center and is used to defray expenses for setups, cleaning, energy cost, etc.
