Dear Oblate Family,

This year has been challenging for all of us, and devastating for the less fortunate and those who have lost loved ones.

We hear the cries of the poor globally and we are all called to respond with prayers and financial support to provide basic human needs. On the Feast of the Assumption, our Superior General, Fr. Louis Lougen, reminded all who live the Oblate Charism (such as MAMI supporters): "It seems there is less talk about life returning to normal and a scary realization that what we are now living is our new normal. The social and economic consequences are crippling and strike at the poor more than anyone else." Our response brings people hope, love and empowerment. Through MAMI, we hope you can help those who are most in need of our love and compassion.

On All Souls' Day (Nov. 2) we remember those who have passed before us. Fr. Ken Forster, who has recently joined the MAMI team in promotional outreach, has agreed to be our Eucharistic celebrant for our All Souls' Day mass. We invite you to send us the names of your deceased loved ones, using the enclosed card, so that we can honour and cherish them in this special mass.

Thank you for your generous support and being partners with the Oblates and their missions to journey with the poor.

Gratefully,

Diane Lepage Glenn Zimmer, OMI
