Participant Information Form

HUD will follow strict rules to protect your confidentiality. The personal data collected, such as name and address, are protected by the Privacy Act. You will never be named in any reports. Although your responses may be looked at individually by HUD, or contractors hired by HUD to collect and analyze the data, your name will not be associated with any analysis of the data. Only results from groups of people will be reported. Contractors to HUD are covered by the same requirements to protect your privacy as HUD staff and must demonstrate that they have systems in place to protect against data disclosure.

HAC receives funds from HUD and various sources for counseling services, so we are required to collect certain data. We also use the information we collect to evaluate our workshops and learn more about the people we are serving. The information collected from this form is completely confidential.

Privacy

HAC is committed to assuring the privacy of individuals and/or families who have contacted us for assistance. We realize that the concerns you bring to us are highly personal in nature. We assure you that all information shared both orally and in writing will be managed within legal and ethical considerations. Your “nonpublic personal information” such as your total debt information, income, living expenses and personal information concerning your financial circumstances, will be provided to creditors, program monitors, and others only with your authorization and signature on the Agreement and Disclosure. We may also use anonymous aggregated case file information for the purpose of evaluating our services, gathering valuable research information and designing future programs.

Types of information that we gather about you

Information we receive from you orally, on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, and income; Information about your transactions with us, your creditors, or others, such as your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions and credit card usage; and Information we receive from a credit reporting agency, such as your credit history.

You may opt-out of certain disclosures

You have the opportunity to “opt-out” of disclosures of your nonpublic personal information to third parties (such as your creditors), that is, direct us not to make those disclosures. If you choose to “opt-out”, we will not be able to answer questions from your creditors. If at any time, you wish to change your decision with regard to your “opt-out”, you may call us at 508-771-5400 and do so. HAC is a US Housing and Urban Development (HUD) certified agency and subject to audit by HUD or our intermediary, Housing Partnership Network. By engaging in services, you understand that disclosure to these entities may be required and you cannot opt out of this disclosure. We also receive funding from the Massachusetts Division of Banks and Massachusetts Housing Partnership. If the services you are receiving are paid for through these funds, you cannot opt out of a possible file review by the funder.

Release of your information to third parties

So long as you have not opted-out, we may disclose some or all of the information that we collect, as described above, to your creditors or third parties where we have determined that it would be helpful to you, would aid us in counseling you, or is a requirement of grant awards which make our services possible. We may also disclose any nonpublic personal information about you or former customers to anyone as permitted by law (e.g., if we are compelled by legal process.). Within the organization, we restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
