

Santa Maria:

- Weeks of 5/26 and 6/1 – all hearings currently scheduled in Depts. 2, 3, 4 will proceed by Courtcall. No new hearings will be added.
  - Attorneys will be notified by phone that their hearing will proceed by Courtcall.
  - SRLs will be notified by mail
    - ❖ Exceptions to the above:
  - Initial Family Law CMC hearings with only pro per litigants will not proceed
  - Small Claims hearings will not proceed

- Weeks of 5/26 and 6/1 – all hearings scheduled in Dept. SM 10 (Comm. Foley) will proceed by Zoom.
  - DCSS will notice all DCSS cases
  - Court will notice all NON-DCSS cases

- Week of 6/8 and beyond: We will start folding in the missed hearings between March 17 – May 22 on a week by week basis, e.g. hearings scheduled the week of March 17 will be folded in to hearings set the week of June 8 until a session cap is met. Once the cap is met, cases will be rescheduled into the following week.
- Hearings may be conducted by Courtcall or Zoom at the department's discretion
  - ❖ Exceptions:
  - Missed Civil L&M and Probate hearings will be rescheduled by priority as determined by Research
  - Missed Initial Family Law CMC hearings will not be rescheduled

- Trials and Evidentiary hearings may not be rescheduled on the same week by week basis
  - Trials will be rescheduled to a Case Management Calendar or as determined by the Judge
  - Evidentiary hearings will be rescheduled as determined by the Judge
  - Jury Trials will be rescheduled to a Case Management Calendar or as determined by the Judge
