TO THE READER

The Last Gospel is the Good News that no matter what the powers of evil impose upon the populace of the world, the plan of God is THE TRUE POWER.

Evil has penetrated every fabric of society, and yet the believers in Jesus Christ stand firm knowing that in the end, the truth of Jesus the Messiah triumphs.

The attempts by the Zionists and Freemasons and Communists will never, ever, conquer the world. At times they may seem to have the victory. They have won many battles, but will never win the war.

In the Last Gospel, some of the triumphs of evil are examined and exposed. Questions have been asked, and answers offered. The seeming victory of breakaway 'Christian' groups and the new Roman Catholic 'ecumenism' in watering down the truth of the Gospel is examined, and the prophesied victory of Christ Jesus in His faithful remnant is explained.

The end of evil is now visible on the horizon. The triumph of the true believers in Christ Jesus, the True and only Prophet, is obvious to those who want to see. There are none so blind as those who do not want to see the truth. For those who want not to see the truth, there is eternal tribulation. For those who want to see the truth and act on it, there is a temporary tribulation followed by eternal bliss.

It is the hope of the author that those who read this short summary there will be an enlightenment to propel them into action which causes them to seek only the glory of God, even if they have to first wear His humility.

Without a test, there is no testimony.

INTRODUCTION

I have been given an understanding of what is to happen throughout the world in the immediate future. This understanding and vision could be divided into two parts.

First, the near term will be a time of difficulty and trials, a time in which the character of all of us will be put to the test. This time is called the Great Tribulation. It is not pleasant, but it is coming and we cannot stop it.

We have few choices when it arrives, and it arrives gradually and with ever growing austerity being forced upon us. We then can roll over and acquiesce, surrendering our freedom of rights, religion, laws, speech and travel. We will be controlled in our earnings through exorbitant taxation and costs for essential foods.

Or we can fight the system which is a powerful global controlling system, and the only way we can succeed in defeating the 'globalists' is to take shelter in Jesus Christ. In Him we will have the victory, but there will be pain in seeing our loved ones suffer and go to defeat.

Second, this part will be ecstatic joy, peace and tranquillity on a scale which has never before experienced by man, even by Adam and Eve before the 'Fall.' It is written that: "That eye has not seen, nor ear heard: neither has it entered into the heart of man, what things God has prepared for them that love Him. But to us God has revealed them by His Spirit" (1Co 2:9,10).

What I now relate is that understanding and personal vision which I received in 1992, and whether I was in the body or out of the body, I do not know. Whatever may be the case, the following has sustained me through many trying times, and I share it with you now in all modesty and humility...

I choose to write the vision from the New heaven and the New earth, looking back over the events which happened in the latter days of ‘time,’ since time was now no longer (Apoc 10:6), as there is no ‘time’ in eternity.

Chapter 1

THE BEAUTIFUL LAND

This most spectacular land appeared in the midst of the Atlantic Ocean, a land of lush verdant green vegetation, with crystal clear rivers and lakes. The aroma of pureness and aesthetically pleasurable scene gave one the comfort of knowing that Almighty God had stretched out His obstetric hand to create a newness, not even imaginable to the human mind.

Flowers in gay profusion were placed with casual precision, that only the Master Architect could arrange. All shades and colours of vegetation were visible in abundant array. Trees and shrubs outlined paths and magnificently framed views of hills and mountains, so that an embrace of love greeted the onlooker with pure delight.

There were no roads throughout the land, but natural paths carpeted with moss and soft grass invited the traveler to a cushioned walk on nature's finest pedestrian expression. The way was strewn with natural benches so that those who desired could sit and be soothed with the expanse of beauty. Nothing was wanting for the inhabitant in this Paradise, as everything was set in a heavenly beautiful appearance.

Ponds of cool water speckled with water lilies in artistic formation beheld the eyes with splendor and awe. Streams flowed into rivers, and rivers into lakes which flowed in gentle easiness into the sea. The banks of all were carpeted with ferns and flowers of a myriad variety, and each scene was framed in an exquisite colour of foliage.

Fish of varying size and colours were in plain view, and when a passerby came, they surfaced to greet them and showed them their playful maneuvers entertaining them with acrobatic gymnastics. The large sea creatures, such as dolphins, whales, sharks, and sea lions lived in harmony and inviting all to play and be entertained by them. The amazing thing is that we know all the fish and animals and reptiles by name, and they know us! Their greetings are enthusiastic and joyful.

Animals were present in social numbers. As I walked along, I rested my hand on a deer's back for joy and for companionship. I saw a bear carry a little lamb to its mother. There were lions and tigers and wolves all playing together, as they had for food, the herbs and the fruits of the trees. It seemed like the trees and vegetation were saying to all the passers by: "Come, eat of my fruit which I have grown for you!" All was in harmony, all was in love, all was in unison, all was in God.

Birds of all sizes and shapes sang their melodic refrains to each other and to all of us in the new creation. We knew their songs, we knew their music, we are part of it all! The human mind has no conception of the awesome power and beauty which God can create, and it would be fair to say that this Paradise was certainly the Master's master-piece.

Gentle rolling hills gave depth to the valleys and plains. They invited exploration for surely there must be much beauty beyond the horizon. Sure enough, there were plateaus rising up to mountains, and from the mountains, there was a beautiful seashore at the foot. Inlets showed lagoons of peace and tranquillity, while the open shore displayed oncoming waves disappearing in a beach of white sand. From shore, to hill, from mountain to valley, from plain to river bank, the eye and spirit is treated to a feast of natural outstanding beauty.

This beautiful land was just an island in what I knew to be the beginning of much newness. I say this because I have visited throughout the entire new earth.

I knew that the first heavens and the first earth had passed away, and of course I knew because I was part of the transition, and here I am writing in the new heaven and a new earth (Apoc 21:1). When I say 'writing' this is different than sitting down with pen and paper and scribing my thoughts, no, it is not like that, it is like this: I think a thought with the intent of making a public and permanent copy of it. That thought is immediately written in a category which is read by all those interested in my entries. Everyone has this capacity in thought and recall, and we all avail of it.

The people here are all of the one mind and heart and joy. We are not different nationalities although we inhabit different areas, we are all citizens of heaven on earth. We have different skin colours, and we are all brothers and sisters. Although we came from different languages and dialects, we speak the same language, we speak a spiritual language which we knew automatically when we entered this newness.

When we move from one place to another, we can walk, run, or 'fly', that is, we can immediately be where we want to be, and we can also be in many places at the same time. Most people back in 'time' were aware of the phenomena called bi-location. Well this is that and much more, this is multi-location, and when needed, is an omnipresence. There are no limitations to the new man, the new creature, in the new heaven and the new earth. Satisfaction, happiness, joyfulness, ecstasy are mild expressions of life here, but then this life is Life, that is, Life in unity and oneness in God. There is no end to our empire: "To the only God our Saviour through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory and magnificence, empire and power, before all ages, and now, and for all ages of ages. Amen."

THE KINGSHIP OF CHRIST

The beautiful land just described is a small corner or island of the new Garden of Eden. Not only is it's freshness invigorating, but the peace and tranquillity is absorbing. There is of course The Presence! Everywhere you go you feel the warmth and comfort of the Lord God Almighty. There is this gift of knowing. This knowing is endless, and this is such a great confidence, that there is absolutely nothing insurmountable. Then you know that this Paradise is the Kingdom of God, the Kingship of Christ, the Home of Life Everlasting. There is the knowing that this Kingdom which was given away by the first man, has been won back by man, living in Christ Jesus.

There is more of this beautiful land to relate, but first we must tell you how we got rid of all disorder and disease on the old earth, and established this new heaven and new earth, and how through the power of God, we defeated evil, and this was done: "Not with an army, nor by might, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts" (Zc 4:6). We know that we fought powerful enemies in order to arrive here. We fought them and defeated them with our confidence in the Lamb of God, because we were living in the Lamb of God. We were living in oneness and unity in Him.

The battle was long and tortuous, but the prize we now enjoy is everlasting and joyous. While we were living back in 'time,' we always had confidence in Jesus Christ's Super-natural and Supra-national Kingship over all the earth and over all creation. We knew that there had to be more to life than murder, robbery, thievery, war, killings, maiming, lies, hatred, rape, disease, sicknesses, torture, poisoning, mass destruction by cruel leaders, dishonesty by churchmen, rabbis and mullahs. We knew that God did not create the earth for nothing: "He did not create it in vain: He formed it to be inhabited" (Is 45:18). We had this confidence, and our confidence was rewarded. Our confidence was faith.

We trusted and worked for the Kingship of Christ, the Kingdom of God, and although we had never seen it, we believed that it was something worth giving up all earthly things to be part of the promise, which for us became a dream, and that dream was for us a reality. We trusted in every word written in the Bible. We trusted in every word handed down to us from our forefathers and from the Apostles, we trusted in that tradition, either written in letters or spoken word (2Th 2:14).

In spite of opposition, obstacles, and harassment, we were steadfast in our belief in the promise of the Holy Trinity. The earthly struggle was always treacherous and seemed to be endless. Yet, we in the twenty-first century of ‘time,’ reaped the harvest planted by our forefathers all the way back to Adam. Jesus said some two thousand years ago: “From the days of John the Baptist until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent bear it away” (Mt 11:12).

The violence against us by the evil ones was always built upon with their greater and more cunning traps and destruction. The technology and weapons of annihilation devised by those forces of the devil were such that no earthly power could possibly resist them. Nuclear power, communications and spying power was all in the hands of the forces of evil. Food and water, heat and cooling systems all belonged to the devil’s army. Finance, debt and money manipulation was the choke-hold of the Satanic forces on a defenseless people. Prayer and trust in Jesus Christ was the choke-hold which the ‘defenseless people’ had on the Satanic forces! The people of God knew that in spite of superior worldly human technology, that Jesus Christ would use His humble people to humble the greedy and prideful arrogance of the mighty devilish forces.

The Kingship of Christ was established by love of God and love of neighbour. The Kingship was established by those of us who did not love the world, nor the things which are in the world (1Jn 2:15). It was established by those of us who loved the Lord our God with our whole heart, and with our whole soul, and with our whole mind, and with our whole strength, and we loved our neighbour as ourselves (Mk 12:30,31). With this love of God and love for His creatures and creation, we established the Kingship of Christ with power.

The enemy, led by the evil one's forces of Zionism, of Freemasonry and of Communism, attempted to establish a 'natural' and 'national' 'kingdom of Zion' to oppose the Kingdom of God. In defiance of the Super-natural Kingship of Christ, and His Supra-national authority over His creation, the worldly rulers sought to enforce their own diabolical anti-supernatural and man-made naturalistic kingdom on earth under Satan's evil forces of the anti-Christ movements. By 'naturalistic kingdom' is meant the kingdom of man's fallen nature and carnal desires, with total disregard for the Kingdom of Almighty God the Creator. The 'rights of man' as promoted by the evil forces of the above mentioned cabal, is the naturalistic kingdom which totally disregarded and denied the 'rights of God.' Those evil men could not accept that Jesus Christ is King of All nations, and those who opposed Him are now spending the rest of their eternity in the place of their choosing - hell.

Those of us who accepted Christ the King of all creation, are now spending the rest of our earned eternity in Heaven. We accepted Christ the King and by doing so, we ensured that the Church was not taken in the fierce attacks from the Zionists, Freemasons and Communists.

Jesus had said: "You say that I am a King. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world" (Jn 18:37). He is the Christ, the Son of God, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, Who went from Heaven to earth, with His message of love, political, economic, and social order for the world which was created by Him and for Him.

In defiance of the Super-natural Kingship of Christ, and His Supra-national authority over His creation, the earthly rulers crucified Him as they sought to establish their own anti-supernatural kingdom on earth based on their desire for a man-made naturalistic society, controlling the entire world. This anti-God movement was not new, for it existed and continued from the revolt of Lucifer, and continued in the anti-Christ movements of the evil one's organizations. There was no country or state in the world which was not under their diabolical influence and control.

Jesus proclaimed His Super-natural Kingship when He said: “My Kingdom is not of this world.” He further proclaimed His Supra-national Kingship when He continued: “If My Kingdom were of this world, My servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews.” He asserted the reality of His Supernatural and Supranational Kingdom when He said: “...but NOW My Kingdom is not from hence” (Jn 18:36).

‘If My Kingdom were of this world, My servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews.’ His One, True, Holy, Eternal, Virgin, Eucharistic Catholic Church, that is, we the Church, are His servants. It was foretold how this would come about: “And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be prepared in the top of the mountains, and high above the hills: and people shall flow to it” (Mi 4:1). ‘The mountain of the house of the Lord’ is the Virgin Eucharistic Church, built in spite of the general apathy toward God by most of the world population, and by resistance from the political, economic, military and ecumenical church rulers.

By ‘Catholic’ was meant the true Church without any violation by breakaway groups such as Coptics, Orthodox, Protestant, or the ecumenical neo-Roman Catholic. Jesus Christ is the Church, He is the Head, and since “Jesus Christ, yesterday, and today, and the same for ever” (Hb 13:8), those who claimed a ‘reformation’ of the Church were blasphemers and heretics. There was a Coptic and Orthodox and Lutheran revolt, but certainly not a ‘reformation.’ How dare those people say that the Church needed to be reformed! Man needed to be reformed, not Jesus Christ!

In the beginning God said: “Let Us make man to Our image and likeness,” He immediately created man “to His own image” (Gn 1:27). Man fell from this gift of God by following the fallen angel Lucifer, who is Satan and the devil. However, Jesus came and redeemed us in His Blood and in receiving His Body and Blood in Holy Eucharist, He gave us the way to be reformed into His likeness too. That is He gave man the way to enter into the Kingdom of God, the Kingship of Christ, through His Body and Blood.

It was in Holy Communion in the Body and Blood of Jesus that we were brought into the fullness of God, for He said: “Except you eat the Flesh of the Son of man and drink His Blood, you shall not have Life in you. He that eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood has Everlasting Life, and I will raise him up in the last day. For My Flesh is meat indeed, and My Blood is drink indeed. He that eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood abides in Me, and I in him” (Jn 6:54-57). This ‘Everlasting Life’ was under the Kingship of Christ.

Saint Paul said: A...that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.” (Ep 3:19). It is in this great gift of Holy Eucharist, that we were filled unto all the fullness of God. Jesus prayed to our Father: “That they all may be one, as Thou, Father, in Me, and I in Thee...that they may be One, as We also are One, I in them, and Thou in Me, that they may be made perfect in One” (Jn 17:21-23).

When we received Jesus, the Living Bread, True Manna from Heaven, He gave Himself completely to us, and remained ever present in us. Our union and unity into complete oneness grew, we in Him, and He in us, reciprocity, transubstantiation took place. He had given us power to be made the sons of God, to we who believed in His Name (Jn 1:12). This ‘power’ was in Holy Eucharist. Jesus said: “The Kingdom of God comes not with observation” (Lk 17:20), and through the sacrifice of His Body and Blood, we were restored to the image and likeness of God and this is the Kingdom of God which came without observation, into which we entered. It was in Holy Communion that the Supernatural Kingdom of God was established on earth, as it is in Heaven.

The Kingship of Christ and therefor the Kingdom of God was established in we, Eucharistic man. However, the Kingdom of Heaven suffered violence from those who denied God and His Son Christ Jesus. Our Kingdom of God directly confronted and violently opposed by the Satanic forces of the clique disguised in the evils of Zionism/Freemasonry/Communism, which were descendants of the infamous scribes and Pharisees who persecuted Jesus.

The Sanhedrin opposed Jesus with vehement anger and whenever possible, with open aggression. The Temple in Jerusalem was their pride and their citadel of power and control. Jesus foretold that the Temple building would be destroyed when He said: “Amen I say to you, there shall not be left here a stone upon a stone that shall not be destroyed” (Mt 24:2). This had many implications, one of which was that God had given the Israelites commandment to make sacrifice of sheep, bullocks, calves and fowl in the Temple, and this was the only place where they could be sacrificed. The Temple was destroyed as Jesus had foretold, and now the Israelites could not fulfill the Law for sacrifices and the expiation of sins (Lv 4:6,16,17). So when Jesus said that ‘a stone upon a stone that shall not be destroyed,’ He was saying that the Law had to have a fulfilment other than the slaughter of animals and fowl. He was telling the scribes and Pharisees and all the Sanhedrin that there would be changes, and that would need to convert to God’s Plan. Why? Because Jesus said that He came not to abolish the Law but to fulfill the Law (Mt 5:17). The law is fulfilled in the Birth, Life, Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus, Who is the Messiah.

All animal sacrifice was ended, and those who slaughter sheep after that in a pretense of sacrifice, offend God very much, not only that, they continued the work of Satan in fostering enmity between man and beast. I speak here specifically of the Muslim or Islam cult which continued until very near the end of ‘time.’ Although the Muslim was a pawn of the devil, they were not the real enemies of ‘Peace.’ There was a greater and more sinister force lying in semi-obscurity plotting and fighting against the Kingship of Christ.

Chapter 3

THE ENEMIES OF PEACE

Zionism/Freemasonry/Communism

The use of the term 'Zionism/Freemasonry/Communism' may have caused confusion or disbelief in some people's mind, but in truth those three were really in close collaboration (conspiracy) with each other. Let me put the issue in simple and hopefully understandable terms.

These three terms are systems, each with its own specific evil agenda of total world dominance. They vowed to allow nothing human in the world to stand in the way of their goal of total domination of the planet and all the citizens on it. Although these entities were systems, each system had one specific ruler, and these specific rulers in turn had one individual who dictated policies and agendas to all three. Let us deal initially with the three systems, irrespective of their rulers.

Zionism was a system of government in which all countries of the world were to be forcefully brought under their 'kingdom of Zion.' They controlled the financial operations of all governments - no exceptions. This Satanic kingdom was in direct opposition to the Kingdom of God. The Zionists still maintained that they had no king but Caesar (Jn 19:15).

Freemasonry (or Masonry) was a system whereby the ruling of the populace was controlled by a small group of people whose intent was the total dominance of government under their evil and absolute power. This was to be achieved by establishing opposing political parties to run and control local, county, state and national governments. Freemasonry was totally subject to Zionism.

Communism was the total control of the masses by a few elite whose objective was the subjugation of the masses on the pretext of a socially just society. They initially espoused 'socialism' and the freedom of the people from tyranny. The only difference between socialism and communism is that the latter eliminated all religion and the worship of Jesus Christ. “There must be no letup in the war against religion because as long as religion exists Communism cannot prevail. We must intensify the obliteration of all religions wherever they are being practiced or taught,” so said Mikhail Gorbachev on 15 December 1987 to communist party officials, cadres and Soviet military personnel. Space does not permit me here to cite all the evil and horrors of Communism and their Jewish fathers.

In his book None Dare Call It Conspiracy on p. 25 the author Gary Allen, makes a footnote: “Karl Marx was hired by a mysterious group who called themselves the League of Just Men to write the Communist Manifesto as demagogic boob-bait to appeal to the mob. In actual fact the Communist Manifesto was in circulation for many years before Marx’s name was widely enough recognized to establish his authorship for this revolutionary handbook. All Karl Marx really did was to update and codify the very same revolutionary plans and principles set down seventy years earlier by Adam Weishaupt, the founder of the Order of Illuminati in Bavaria. And, it is widely acknowledged by serious scholars of this subject that the League of Just Men was simply an extension of the Illuminati which was forced to go deep underground after it was exposed by a raid in 1786 conducted by the Bavarian authorities.”

Communism was the brain child of Zionism. It was established by the Jews who orchestrated the Bolshevik and Russian Revolution, assassinated the Czar, financed Lenin and Trotsky, placed Jews in all positions of authority, and suppressed Christianity with militant brutality. Communism was a deadly instrument used in the age-long struggle waged by the Jewish Nation against the Supernatural Messiah, our Lord Jesus Christ. It was the continuation of the cry in made by the Sanhedrin in 33 A.D. “Crucify Him, crucify Him” (Jn 19:6).

After the 1917 Revolution, and the militant Jews who denied their religious heritage became extreme militant Russian Communist atheists. These later became the immigrants into Israel, which they converted the population to more than 60% atheist, and which was also the percentage of so-called ‘Jews’ in the Israeli Defense Force! The other 40% of Jews were made up of ‘Jews for Jesus,’ ‘Messianic Jews’ and the balance of the population were not ‘Israelis’ but are ‘Israelites,’ that is true religious Jews, who were awaiting the Messiah and they too converted to Jesus the Christ.

In order to understand the conspiracy of Zionism, Freemasonry and Communism, and how these three were joined in their satanic objective of world dominance, just have a look at the Supreme Court of Israel building, and see for yourself. In an article based on the work of Gerry Golden, the ‘Vigilant Citizen’ has produced some excellent information on their website:

<http://vigilantcitizen.com/sinistersites/sinister-sites-israel-supreme-court/>

Here are some excerpts from that site:

“Built in 1992, the Israel Supreme Court sits in Jerusalem, in front of the Knesset (Israeli legislature). Its peculiar architecture has earned critical praise due to the architects’ opposition of old versus new, light versus shadow and straight lines versus curves. Almost all critics and journalists have however omitted to mention the blatant occult symbols present all over the building. Masonic and Illuminati principles are physically embodied in numerous instances, proving without a doubt who runs the show in there.”

“Outside the courtrooms is a stairway leading to a lower level. In the middle of the stairway is the shape of a vesica piscis (representing female genitals) “penetrated” by a column (phallic symbol). This is an obvious fertility symbol, a union of the male and female principles.”

“At the center of the parking facilities are pathways shaped like Christian cross. Jerry Golden has mentioned that this cross has been specifically placed to be trampled on by visitors...In a building where spiritual symbolism reigns supreme, there are effectively little chances that the layout of those pathways haven’t been thoroughly thought out by the architects. In other words, the visitors have to go down the stairs B symbolically “descend” to lower spheres B to reach the cross. As you might have noticed, the importance of the act of ascending and descending in this building is very important.

To the right of the Zionist ‘cross’ I have placed a drawing of the ‘Cross of Christianity.’ It is evident that the intent of the forces of evil was to discredit in every the victory of Christ Jesus over the forces of Satan.

The powers of darkness and evil had launched an all out attack against the only way that the Super-natural and Supra-national Kingdom of God could come on earth. Those powers made a frontal attack against the Catholic Church and the Priesthood. Through their plan of evil, their aim was to destroy Holy Eucharist, and to destroy the Priesthood, thus destroying the Church, and eliminate the God-given Authority to Saint Peter and the Apostolic succession.

Their plan was cunning and simple. Extol the ‘rights of man,’ while denying the ‘rights of God.’ They led the unsuspecting world into a materialistic society through extended credit on plastic cards and financial schemes, giving world-lings the illusion that the power of man is ‘God,’ a world based on naturalism and anti-supernaturalism. Man, atheistic man, denied being subject to the Supernatural power of the Creator, asserting that he had all rights and no restrictions. This man put himself above Christ.

This Anti-Christ program was the agenda of the visible organization of the Freemasons, but it was not as deadly as the ‘beast like a leopard’ (Apoc 13:2), Jewish Naturalism or Anti-Super-naturalism and Communism, which was the real opposition to Christ the King. These Zionists intended to set up their Jewish Nation's naturalistic aims, and they claimed that to stand for the rights of Christ the King was to be "anti-Semitic." It must be stated clearly that Zionism, Jewish Naturalism was Anti-Christ. The actual power and might of this Jewish influence in banking, in publishing and commercial life was astounding, and Satan was pleased that 'make believe money' was employed as one of the main instruments for the elimination of the Almighty God's Divine Plan, and for the installation of global Jewish Naturalism, or more accurately stated as the Satanic kingdom of Zion ruling over the entire world.

Owing to the progress of the anti-Catholic, that is the anti-Christian revolt, the world was gradually led by the nose into a controlled society based on fear and 'security.' In the year 2009, the USA Government had passed a law calling for the citizens to be tagged with a micro-chip under the Child Health Insurance Program (CHIP). The CHIP could be found on page 708 of the health Bill. It was an 'Implantable device for National Registry' and could be found on page 1001 of the US Government Law HR 3200. It was a fact that many other countries already had similar programs on their books.

The total arrogance of these people was incredible. They sprayed the earth with chemical trying to change the seasons, the earth's structure, and the minds on the population. This troika was foretold by Almighty God when He said of the evil one: "Thus he that seemed to himself to command even the waves of the sea, being proud above the condition of man, and to weigh the heights of the mountains in a balance, now being cast down to the ground, was carried in a litter, bearing witness to the manifest power of God in himself" (2M 9:8).

God laughed at them and their attempts to control the atmosphere: "And you said in your heart: I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God, I will sit in the mountain of the covenant, in the sides of the north" (Is 14:13).

The kingdom of the Zionist Antichrist forces was well prophesied, as was their destruction: "The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be greater than all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And the ten horns of the same kingdom, shall be ten kings: and another shall rise up after them, and he shall be mightier than the former, and he shall bring down three kings, and he shall speak words against the High One, and shall crush the saints of the most High: and he shall think himself able to change times and laws, and they shall be delivered into his hand until a time, and times, and half a time. And a judgment shall sit, that his power may be taken away, and be broken in pieces, and perish even to the end. And that the kingdom, and power, and the greatness of the kingdom, under the whole heaven, may be given to the people of the saints of the most High: Whose Kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all kings shall serve Him, and shall obey Him. Hitherto is the end of the word” (Dn 7:23-27).

That the word of God is just, and His warnings were given to all and made public for all to read and understand, and yet the majority who followed evil would not listen. God said through the prophet Isaiah: “Behold the Lord shall lay waste the earth, and shall strip it, and shall afflict the face thereof, and scatter abroad the inhabitants thereof. And it shall be as with the people, so with the priest: and as with the servant so with his master: as with the handmaid, so with her mistress: as with the buyer, so with the seller: as with the lender, so with the borrower: as with him that calls for his money, so with him that owes. With desolation shall the earth be laid waste, and it shall be utterly spoiled: for the Lord has spoken this word. The earth mourned, and faded away, and is weakened: the world faded away, the height of the people of the earth is weakened. And the earth is infected by the inhabitants thereof: because they have transgressed the laws, they have changed the ordinance, they have broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore shall a curse devour the earth, and the inhabitants thereof shall sin: and therefore they that dwell therein shall be mad, and few men shall be left. The vintage has mourned, the vine has languished away, all the merry have sighed. The mirth of timbrels has ceased, the noise of them that rejoice is ended, the melody of the harp is silent. They shall not drink wine with a song: the drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. The city of vanity is broken down, every house is shut up, no man comes in” (Is 24:1-10).

The action of the populace and the silence of the various ‘churches’ in regard to God’s warnings, gave rise to certain questions which had to be addressed in trying to get to the root of so many disturbing events which happened in the ‘Christian’ world.

Chapter 4

CONTROVERSIAL QUESTIONS

There have been a series of events in the Roman Catholic Church which are difficult to accept, and even more to understand. I would summarize them as follows:

1. The death of Pope Pius XI in 1939.
2. The election of Pope John XXIII in 1958.
3. The death of Pope John Paul I in 1978.
4. The failure to reveal the 'Third Secret of Fatima' in 1960.

1. The death of Pope Pius XI in 1939.

There is video entitled 'Angels & Daemons Revealed', which can be opened on <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n-jabo7ugjc> at minutes 40:45 to 42:00.

According to the narrator Patrick Macnee, the Illuminati use assassination and murder of officials in a timely way to have the greatest political significance showing the power and control of the Freemasons on world politics for their benefit. The video attempts to show this fact.

According to Macnee, in 1939 Pope Pius XI was poised to release a statement to condemn both the Nazis and the Fascists, groups doing the kind of evil that the Illuminati would be behind. However, before he could make the public statement, he suddenly died. The close assistant Cardinal Tisserant was heard saying: "They have assassinated him. They have assassinated him." His body was quickly embalmed, making the proof and cause of death impossible.

The evidence shown is quite convincing, however, if we are to get close to the truth of what happened, we must look at official Vatican website and the secular website, Wikipedia.

"Pope Pius had already been ill for some time when, on 25 November

1938, he suffered two heart attacks within several hours. He had serious breathing problems and had to stay in his apartment. There he developed the idea of labeling two of his best bottles of wine to Amy successor in the year 2000.” It is not known if Pope John Paul II ever received them. He gave his last address to the Pontifical Academy of Sciences, which he had founded. He spoke without prepared text on the relation between science and the Catholic religion. This is considered to have been his last major pontifical address. A young priest tried to influence him to take his medicine, reminding him of the old Roman saying Principiis obsta (Resist the beginnings) but the Pope smiled and said, “you forgot the second part, sero medicina paratur, it’s too late for medicine”. In February 1939, the situation of the Pontiff visibly degenerated. Pius had major pain and difficulties walking. When he tried to get out of bed, he was unable to do so, because of increased breathing problems. On 7 February, a team of several doctors announced to the papal staff that the Pontiff would soon depart from them. He was now aided by this team of doctors, the professors Milani, Rocchi, Bonamone, Gemelli and Bianchi, specialists from all over Italy. They informed Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli and Monsignor Giovanni Battista Montini that heart insufficiency combined with bronchial attacks had hopelessly complicated the already poor outlook. The Pope himself made plans for continued audiences with Domenico Tardini, as if he would recover within short time, although, because he was unable to breathe normally, he lost his ability to move or even to turn in his bed. His last words to those near him were spoken with clarity and firmness: ‘My soul parts from you all in peace.’ Pope Pius XI died at 5:31 am (Rome Time) of a third heart attack on 10 February 1939, aged 81. He was buried in the crypt at St. Peter’s Basilica, in the main chapel, close to the Tomb of St. Peter.”

In a book by Jim Marrs, Secret Societies That Threaten to Take Over America. Rise of 4th Reich, he states: “A year later, Pius XI addressed the Nazi persecution of the Jews by proclaiming worldwide, “Mark well that in the Catholic Mass, Abraham is our patriarch and forefather. Anti-Semitism is incompatible with the lofty thought which that fact expresses...I say to you it is impossible for a Christian to take part in anti-Semitism. It is inadmissible. Through Christ and in Christ we are the spiritual progeny of Abraham. Spiritually, we are all Semites.” But if Pius XI’s turn against National Socialism was legitimate, it unfortunately was short-lived. On February 10, 1939, the day before Pius XI was scheduled to deliver yet another scathing public attack on Fascism and anti-Semitism, he died, reportedly of a massive heart attack. Copies of his planned antifascist speech have never been found. Vatican officials have stated they may have been misfiled.

Rumors implicated Dr. Francesco Saverio Petacci in the pope’s sudden death. Petacci, one of the Vatican physicians at the time, was the father of Clara Petacci, the longtime mistress of Fascist leader Benito Mussolini. The whispers were that Petacci gave the pope an injection that caused his fatal attack. Strong support for this rumor came some years later, when the same allegation was found in the personal diary of French cardinal and former French Army intelligence agent Eugene Tisserant.” p. 79 of 229.

I interject here that Petacci is not mentioned as one of the Pope’s physicians in the previously cited Wikipedia account.

Another unidentified source states: “A prominent French cardinal, Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, made a sensational claim in his personal diary. Pius XI had been scheduled to deliver a blunt strongly worded address attacking fascism and anti-semitism on February 11, 1939. (As a side note, 11 February is the anniversary of the Apparition of Our Lady of Lourdes in 1858). According to Tisserant, twenty-four hours before delivering this address, the Pope was given an injection by Dr. Francesco Petacci, who worked as the medical practitioner for the Vatican, and whose daughter Clara Petacci was the long-term mistress of the fascist dictator Benito Mussolini. As a result of the injection, the Pope reportedly died hours before delivering his historic attack on Mussolini and European fascism. Either that the speech was destroyed to hide its existence, or that there was necessarily something suspicious in the timing of Pius XI’s death. The whereabouts of his draft speech remains a mystery.”

The Vatican website says of his death (this is a translation from the Italian by someone unidentified): “Seriously fell ill in January 1939, Achille Ratti, the Pope passed away on 10 February, the eve of making the seventeenth year of his pontificate. He is buried in the Vatican Grottoes, near the tombs of Benedict XV and Pius X. The voice that before he died he were drafting a document against racial discrimination and the Fascist regime, was not confirmed. The text of the last unfinished speech of Pius XI, remained unpublished for a long time, it was announced by Pope John XXIII, February 6, 1959. It will be published at the end of the next book on the Pope Ratti.”

Looking at the accounts, it appears that a lot of time is devoted to his heart condition and failing health. Why? If he were assassinated as claimed in the video, then a lot of time would need to be given to his ‘heart and breathing.’ If the video is false, then not much time would be devoted to his heart and breathing condition.

There is however another point worth making is that Pius XI was very much against the money control of the world in the hands of a few men. In his Encyclical ‘Caritate Christi compulsi,’ issued on 3 May 1932 in section #1-6 he states: “Constrained by the Charity of Christ, in Our Encyclical Letter Nova impendet on the second day of October in last year, we incited the children of the Catholic Church - and, indeed, all men of good heart - to a pious emulation in love and in helpful action, so that the terrible evils that come from the economic crisis, and are everywhere oppressing human society, might be in some measure mitigated. Our invitation, indeed, was warmly welcomed with remarkable unanimity, through the active liberality of all...But in this troubled time the whole human race is so pressed by the scarcity of money and by the straits of the economic crisis that the more it struggles to get free, the more it feels itself inextricably fettered. And from this it comes that there is now no nation, no state, no society, no family, that is not either itself oppressed, more or less gravely, by these calamities, or else seems likely to be dragged down headlong by the ruin of others. Nay more, those very men, very few indeed, who since they are endowed with immense riches, seemed to control the government of the world, those very few, moreover, who, being addicted to excessive gain, were and are in great part the cause of such great evils...that judgment of the Holy Spirit, proclaimed by the Apostle St. Paul, “the desire of money is the root of all evils,” was always in close agreement with the facts, this is more than ever true at the present time...hence come the iniquitous disturbance of affairs and the unequal division of ‘possessions,’ as a result of which the wealth of nations is heaped up in the hands of a very few private men, who - as We warned you last year, in Our Encyclical Letter Quadragesimo anno - control the trade of the whole world at their will, thereby doing immense harm to the people...Furthermore - and this may be called the most perilous of all these evils - the enemies of all order, whether they be called Communists or by some other name, exaggerating the very grave straits of the economic crisis, in this great perturbation of morals, with extreme audacity, direct all their efforts to one end, seeking to cast away every bridle from their necks, and breaking the bonds of all law both human and divine, wage an atrocious war against all religion and against God Himself; in this it is their purpose to uproot utterly all knowledge and sense of religion from the minds of men, even from the tenderest age, for they know well that if once the Divine law and knowledge were blotted out from the minds of men there would now be nothing that they could not arrogate to themselves. And thus we now see with our own eyes - what we have not read of as happening anywhere before - impious men, agitated by unspeakable fury, shamelessly liking up a banner against God and against all religion throughout the whole world...The Psalmist, inspired by the Divine Spirit, seems to hint this in those words: “The fool hath said in his heart: There is no God” (Ps. xiii. 1, lii. 1); as though he showed us such an impious man, as one solitary in a multitude, denying that God his Maker exists, but shutting up this sin in his innermost mind...Now, the leaders and authors of this iniquitous faction do all they can to turn the present distress and need of all things to their own purpose; and they seek, by infamous cavils, to persuade the people that God and religion are to blame as the cause of all these great evils; and that the sacred Cross of Christ our Savior itself, the ensign of poverty and humility, may be compared with the ensigns of the modern lust of domineering; as though, forsooth, religion was joined in friendly union with those conventicles of darkness which have brought such an immense mass of misery upon the whole world...”

The italics above are my emphasis. Pope Pius XI states that a few powerful men control the world's wealth when he said above: 'those very men, very few indeed...those very few, moreover, who, being addicted to excessive gain...the wealth of nations is heaped up in the hands of a very few private men...wage an atrocious war against all religion and against God Himself impious men, agitated by unspeakable fury, shamelessly liking up a banner against God and against all religion throughout the whole world...' He follows this up in the next Encyclical by calling them: 'an immense power and despotic economic dictatorship is consolidated in the hands of a few...they hold the money and completely control it, control credit also and rule the lending of money...economic dictatorship has supplanted the free market...'

Pope Pius XI states very forcibly of the evils of the concentration of money in the hands of a few when he says in his Encyclical 'Quadragesimo anno' issued on 15 May 1935 in section #105-109: "In the first place, it is obvious that not only is wealth concentrated in our times but an immense power and despotic economic dictatorship is consolidated in the hands of a few, who often are not owners but only the trustees and managing directors of invested funds which they administer according to their own arbitrary will and pleasure. This dictatorship is being most forcibly exercised by those who, since they hold the money and completely control it, control credit also and rule the lending of money. Hence they regulate the flow, so to speak, of the life-blood whereby the entire economic system lives, and have so firmly in their grasp the soul, as it were, of economic life that no one can breathe against their will. This concentration of power and might, the characteristic mark, as it were, of contemporary economic life, is the fruit that the unlimited freedom of struggle among competitors has of its own nature produced, and which lets only the strongest survive; and this is often the same as saying, those who fight the most violently, those who give least heed to their conscience. This accumulation of might and of power generates in turn three kinds of conflict. First, there is the struggle for economic supremacy itself; then there is the bitter fight to gain supremacy over the State in order to use in economic struggles its resources and authority; finally there is conflict between States themselves, not only because countries employ their power and shape their policies to promote every economic advantage of their citizens, but also because they seek to decide political controversies that arise among nations through the use of their economic supremacy and strength. The ultimate consequences of the individualist spirit in economic life are those which you yourselves, Venerable Brethren and Beloved Children, see and deplore: Free competition has destroyed itself; economic dictatorship has supplanted the free market; unbridled ambition for power has likewise succeeded greed for gain; all economic life has become tragically hard, inexorable, and cruel. To these are to be added the grave evils that have resulted from an intermingling and shameful confusion of the functions and duties of public authority with those of the economic sphere - such as, one of the worst, the virtual degradation of the majesty of the State, which although it ought to sit on high like a queen and supreme arbitress, free from all partiality and intent upon the one common good and justice, is become a slave, surrendered and delivered to the passions and greed of men. And as to international relations, two different streams have issued from the one fountain-head: On the one hand, economic nationalism or even economic imperialism; on the other, a no less deadly and accursed internationalism of finance or international imperialism whose country is where profit is.”

Since the Zionist/Freemasonry/Communist clique are the rulers of money under the direction and ultimate control of the Illuminati, then it is fair to say that this unconscionable group would have the destruction of the venerable Pope Pius XI as a priority for elimination.

Based on the evidence as I see it, Pope Pius XI was assassinated by the Illuminati because of his knowledge and insight into their evil ways, plans and ambitions, which were the absolute control of the whole world. Pope Pius XI was inspired to write and speak by the Spirit of the Living God.

2. The election of Pope John XXIII in 1958.

“The forgers of errors are gone together into confusion” (Is 45:16).

Before dealing with the conclave, let us take a quick look at the man before he became John XXIII. Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was born on 25 November 1881, was ordained a priest on 10 August 1904. On 19 March 1925, Pius XI ordained him Bishop and sent him to Bulgaria. In 1935 he was made Archbishop and named Apostolic Delegate in Turkey and Greece. In December 1944 Pius XII appointed him Nuncio in France, and in 1953 was created a Cardinal and sent to Venice as Patriarch. He received the zucchetto (also called pileolus in Latin), the skullcap, from the Pope, but the biretta from the 33rd degree Masonic President of France as shown below!

The master of all ranking Masons is Satan, and from the 18th degree onward they call Satan their worshipful master and grand architect of the universe. In the act of kneeling before the Freemason Auriol in order to accept the Cardinal's Biretta, Roncalli bowed down to his worshipful master - Satan. As Pope John XXIII, on 13th April 1959 he received Auriol as his guest at the Vatican! (Please note that April is the 4th month - that is the 1+3 month, a Masonic '13' signal)! Why the 13th? 13 in spiritual numbers signifies 'Treachery' and is Satan's number. '13' is the number which Freemasons claim as their standard. It is the number of their headquarters at 13 Duke Street, London, and is also the sum total of their telephone number. For more on this read Chapter 4 of Gift of Morning Star.

Now to the conclave and the election of the pope. From various sources it has been suggested that Cardinal Siri from Genoa, Italy was elected Pope on 26 Oct 1958, and accepted the election. It can be stated with certainty that white smoke issued from the conclave in the Sistine Chapel for 5 minutes before black smoke appeared. The Vatican Radio announced: "The smoke is white. There is absolutely no doubt a pope has been elected." Vatican Radio also said that the other cardinals were probably going through the rites for accepting the new pope - then came the black smoke.

Author Fr. Malachi Martin reported that Cardinal Siri was handed a note that various threats would be carried out against him if he assumed the office of pope. Siri then asked the cardinals to vote again so that he could be totally sure that God wanted him to be pope. It should be noted that when a pope is elected, he cannot be forced or threatened to resign - he is pope until death, or until his voluntary resignation. The cardinals went into conclave again and after two days, Cardinal Angelo Roncalli emerged as Pope John XXIII, the new pope.

Since Cardinal Siri was validly elected pope and since he was forced to resign, the election of John XXIII is invalid. On 18 May 1985, Cardinal Siri said to a reporter Louis Rimi: "I am bound by the secret, the secret is horrible, very serious things have taken place."

In the booklet entitled 'APPARITION of the BLESSED VIRGIN on the Mountain of LA SALETTE the 19th of September, 1846,' Our Lady said to the visionary Melanie Calvert: "Rome will lose the Faith and become the seat of the Anti-Christ the Church will be in eclipse." p. 13 & 14.

Blessed Joachim (1202) said: "...towards the end of the world, the Antichrist will overthrow the pope and usurp his See." This would apply to John XXIII.

After his 'election' John XXIII held a multi-hour session with all the cardinals and emphasized the point that all the proceedings of the conclave were secret, and that anyone who violated this according to the 1917 Code of Canon Law Article number 185 would be excommunicated. In a book entitled 'A man named John,' the author Alden Hatch On p. 163 states: "He had the cardinals remain another night in the conclave rather than leaving immediately as was the custom. He cautioned them again to not reveal the secrets of the conclave to outsiders."

John XXIII was 'elected' pope on 28 October 1958; convoked the Roman Synod; established the Commission for the Revision of the Code of Canon Law.

In 1960 he disobeyed Mary, the Mother of Jesus Christ, Mother of the Church, Queen of Heaven and earth, angels and men, and refused to make public the message of the Third Secret of Fatima. Jesus foretold: "If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they believe, if one rise again from the dead" (Lk 16:31).

In 1962 he opened the Second Vatican Council and planned the destruction of the basic Catholic teachings, changed the Mass, the Latin Vulgate Bible, the administration of the Sacraments. The Code of Canon Law was changed from an ecclesiastical code, to a legalistic code by which the entire new Roman Catholic Church could contend on all matters. He eliminated the direct condemnation of Freemasonry with an ambiguous statement - open for interpretation.

He died on 3 June 1963, and despite his heresies and downright errors, he was honored with 'beatification' by Pope John Paul II on 3 June, 2000.

Would then Christ Jesus hand the Sceptre of the Vicar of Christ into the hands of one who kneels to Freemasonry? Would Jesus give His Church into the power of evil? Of course not! While John XXIII held all the titles of a Pope, he never was a true pope in the eyes of Jesus.

What then can be said of the successive popes? If they supported and implemented the errors of John XXIII, then they too received not the Sceptre from Jesus. They held the titles of pope, but did not receive the authority of or from God.

Why is this so? The framers and executioners of Vatican II promoted the errors of that Council, took the structure of the administration out of the One True, Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, and formed a new church called the (Ecumenical) Roman Catholic Church, which is the entity we see today. Vatican II brought the (novo) Roman Catholic Church almost as low as the Protestant, Orthodox and Coptic heresies.

What about the ordinations to the priesthood, and elevations to episcopal offices since then? Since the new Roman church is in error, teaches and preaches error, then all ordinations and elevations are executed into error. The priests ordained into the current Roman church are priests of man, not priests of God.

The Prophet Isaiah foretold of the True Church when he quoted God: "I will fasten him as a peg in a sure place, and he shall be for a Throne of Glory to the house of His Father" (Is 22:23). He foretold of its errors and demise when he said: "In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall the peg be removed, that was fastened in the sure place: and it shall be broken and shall fall: and that which hung thereon, shall perish, because the Lord has spoken it” (Is 22:25).

There has not been a true pope since Pope Pius XII, nor will there be until ‘Petrus Romanus,’ the pope after Benedict XVI, according to the Prophecies of Saint Malachy.

In the meantime the ordinary sincere Roman Catholic asks: ‘What about us, where do we stand in the face of God?’ The answer is very simple - Jesus Christ comes to you as though He were truly present on the Altar and in Communion. He blesses you and asks you to have patience in His regard. He will never abandon or forsake you.

There is one major sign to look for, and that is the visible recovery of the Ark of the Covenant as described in the Second Book of Maccabees (2M 2:4-8). You are asked not to abandon the Roman Catholic Church at this time, but to stay and pray for the conversion of the Pope, Cardinals, Archbishops, Bishops, priests and religious. After Great Tribulation, many will leave their error and convert to the True Church, which at this time is in hidddeness, in the hands of the faithful remnant.

The errors of Masonry, Zionism, and Communism, have penetrated every church in Christendom, as they join the Zionist cry of vengeance against Christ the King of All Nations: “We have no king but Caesar” (Jn 19:15). It is written: “Behold, I will bring of the synagogue of Satan, who say they re Jews and are not, but do lie” (Apoc 3:9). The end of Zionist/Masonry/Communism is foretold: “These shall hate the harlot and shall make her desolate and naked and shall eat her flesh and shall burn her with fire. For God has given into their hearts to do that which pleases Him: that they give their kingdom to the beast, till the words of God be fulfilled” (Apoc 17:16,17).

The conclusion is that John XXIII was a false pope, and all consecrations to the higher offices of the Church, of bishops, cardinals and popes are invalid. All ordinations under he and the subsequent popes are invalid.

3. The death of Pope John Paul I in 1978.

John Paul I, elected on 26 August 1978, was the first pope to choose a double name and he did so in commemoration of his two immediate predecessors, John XXIII and Paul VI.

In the aforementioned DVD 'Angels & Daemons Revealed' by Patrick Macnee, I state here some of his findings which can be found at minutes 42:02 to 49:20:

Summary of video: There was a meeting of John Paul I with 4 of his top cardinals on 27 Sept 1978, in which he ended the term of Cardinal Villot as Secretary of State. He was about to expose the corruptions he had seen in Vatican finances, the Vatican Bank, Archbishop Paul Marcinkus, Roberto Calvi, and his mentor Michelle Sindona.

Sindona was the Italian financier whose financial empire collapsed amid charges of fraud, bribery, and murder. On this Sindona, Wikipedia reports that "In 1972 (Sindona) bought a controlling interest in Franklin New York Corporation, parent company of Franklin National Bank. Two years later the bank collapsed amid revelations of diversions of funds and the bribery of officials in the world of high finance. The Vatican banker, Archbishop Marcinkus, was accused of sharing in the illegal dealings but fought extradition from Vatican City. In any event, the Vatican lost millions of dollars in its dealings with Sindona. In 1985 he was convicted of fraud, along with 23 other defendants, in a Milanese court. Meantime, a lawyer, Giorgio Ambrosoli, had been officially appointed liquidator of the Sindona empire and, in the course of his work, discovered evidence of Sindona's criminal manipulations; he compiled a report of more than 2,000 pages. On July 12, 1979, Ambrosoli was shot dead in front of his Milan home. In 1986 Sindona and an accomplice were convicted of ordering the killing, and Sindona was sentenced to life imprisonment. Two days after sentencing, Sindona was found collapsed in his jail cell, the victim of cyanide poisoning. Whether he committed suicide or was murdered was unknown, but shortly before dying he was quoted as saying, 'They are afraid that I could reveal some very delicate information that they don't want divulged.'"

John Paul I was not dealing with saints when he was dealing with the Vatican finances and the manipulators thereof.

At 5 a.m. on the morning of 28 September, his house assistant, Sr. Vincenza became concerned, because the Pope had never overslept before, and entering his room, she saw him with the same frozen look which she had seen on the face of the dead Russian Orthodox Archbishop Nicodim (sp?) who had been poisoned at a meeting with John Paul I some days before. She summoned help. Cardinal Villot, who was then the senior ranking cardinal in the Vatican, as his suspension had not officially taken place, took charge and sent Sr Vincenza away to a convent and forbade her to tell anyone what she had seen.

At 6:10 a.m. Villot ordered embalmers to be summoned, but the most extraordinary event occurred as the embalmers arrived almost immediately. Given the distance they had to travel at that time of the morning, they must have been contacted at 4:45 a.m. which is 15 minutes before the time Sr Vincenza had discovered the dead pope!

At 7:30 a.m. a public announcement was made and the cause of death was heart failure. Instead of the body being found by Sr Vincenza, it was reported that Monsignor John Magee (later elevated to Bishop Magee), the Pope's secretary had found the body, and the time was changed to 5:30 a.m. By the time of the announcement, the embalmers had completed their work, and all evidence which could be obtained from an autopsy was gone. End of the video summary.

Msgr. Magee was then sent into seclusion and after a few months returned to the Vatican as Pope John Paul II's private secretary.

Events later proved that John Paul I had been correct in his assessments of the Vatican financial corruptions as Sindona and Calvi were found to have been dishonest and the accomplice Marcinkus was removed from the Vatican bank.

Was the then Msgr. Magee honest in saying that he found the Pope dead? Was he pressured into telling the world that he found the body? In the Irish Times Weekend Review, page 5, 10 January 2009, article entitled “Bishop on the block” by Patsy McGarry and Paddy Agnew, it is stated: “In his own words, John Magee recounts the surrounding events and death of Pope John Paul I, explaining that he found the pope dead in his bed on the morning on September 28, 1978 (Lighthouse Catholic Media, NRP, 2008, entitled “Untold Stories of the Last Three Popes”). While Magee was the first to summon assistance, he explains that the nun who served him coffee each morning was, in fact, the first to discover the pope dead, when she realized he hadn’t opened the door to accept his morning beverage (Lighthouse Catholic Media, NRP, 2008, entitled “Untold Stories of the Last Three Popes”).

In a radio interview in 1990, RTE religious affairs correspondent Kieron Wood asked Bishop Magee why he had claimed that he found the body of the dead Pope, when it was then public knowledge that the body had been found by a nun. “I did find the body of His Holiness,” he replied. “I just didn’t find it first.”

In an inquiry into the activities of 19 priests accused of child abuse while under the management of Bishop Magee of the Diocese of Cloyne in County Cork, Ireland, Judge Yvonne Murphy in ‘The Cloyne Report’ issued in July 2011 stated that Bishop John Magee ‘deliberately misled’ the inquiry.

It is necessary to approach the Cloyne Report with caution, not because of the condemning conclusions, but also that Judge Murphy is a Solicitor, (also called attorney, lawyer), and so is of the profession of those whose mind is trained in ‘law,’ but not in ‘justice.’ No matter how honourable she may be, she is still a ‘solicitor.’ Eight times Jesus said: “Woe to you scribes...” (Mt 23:13-29).

The deeper question needs to be asked, and that is: Did Msgr. Magee ‘deliberately mislead’ the world in September 1978, and if so, why? What reason was there for going into seclusion then? Was he threatened? These answers are between God and the now retired Bishop Magee.

My conclusion is that John Paul I was assassinated and that a massive cover-up took place. The continuation of the take over of the Vatican II Roman Catholic Church by the powers of evil became more visible to those who wanted to see the whole truth. Proof of this can be found in many of the statements and actions of all 5 popes since Vatican II.

It appears that the control of the Vatican is in the hands of the powers of the Zionist/Masonry/Communist manipulators of mankind. As proof of this, Benedict XVI on March 25, 2011 said to young people in Paris: “...You young people, believers and non-believers alike, have chosen to come together this evening, as you do in your daily lives, in order to meet one another and to discuss the great questions of human existence. Nowadays many people acknowledge that they do not belong to any religion, yet they long for a new world, a world that is freer, more just and united, more peaceful and happy...Religions have nothing to fear from a just secularity, one that is open and allows individuals to live in accordance with what they believe according to their conscience. If we are to build a world of liberty, equality and fraternity, then believers and non-believers must feel free to be just that, equal in their right to live as individuals and in community in accordance with their convictions; and fraternal in their relations with one another.”

Note, that the emphasis above are my additions. It may be said that Benedict XVI is advocating the New World Order of ‘a just secularity.’

Remember the basic tenets in the proclamation of the French Revolution rights of man; ‘liberty, equality, the inviolability of property, and the right to resist oppression.’ The power of the Zionist/Masonic/Communist manipulation of the money of the world, and their drive for complete supremacy over all nations and people, by setting up their New World Order of the kingdom of Zion, their kingdom of iniquity, to oppose the Kingdom of God, continues unabated in the physical sense, but in spite of Benedict XVI and his immediate four predecessors, the Kingdom of God will totally win out in the end.

Scripture records: “Let no man deceive you by any means: for unless there come a revolt first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and is lifted up above all that is called God or that is worshipped, so that he sits in the temple of God, showing himself as if he were God. Remember you not that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now you know what withholds, that he may be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity already works: only that he who now holds do hold, until he be taken out of the way, and then that wicked one shall be revealed: whom the Lord Jesus shall kill with the spirit of His mouth and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: him whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power and signs and lying wonders: and in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish: because they receive not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. Therefore God shall send them the operation of error, to believe lying: that all may be judged who have not believed the truth but have consented to iniquity” (2Th 2:3-11).

The ‘revolt’ was the election and then the Second Vatican Council called by John XXIII. This was a revolution in the most clandestine form. The ‘man of sin’ is the continuation of the errors by all 5 popes since John XXIII up to and including the present Benedict XVI. He sits in ‘the temple of God,’ that is the structure of the Vatican, the chair of Saint Peter. He acts ‘as if he were God,’ and changes the ancient rules and the Bible to suit his own purposes.

‘The mystery of iniquity already works’ for even in the beginning the devil infiltrated the Garden of Eden, and also in the first Twelve chosen by Jesus, so in the current Vatican it was no different. ‘Only that he who now holds do hold, until he be taken out of the way, and then that wicked one shall be revealed,’ because Pius XI was taken out of the way, and the duly elected Cardinal Siri was taken out of the way, and now we see the actions of the evil one. ‘Him whose coming is according to the working of Satan,’ is deceit, is lies, is murder, is assassinations, is corrupting the basic truths given by Almighty God. The people with itching ears ‘receive not the love of the truth,’ for their mind searches for the lazy and easy way, and ‘have not believed the truth but have consented to iniquity.’

4. The Failure to reveal the ‘Third Secret of Fatima’ in 1960.

There have been disturbing events in the Roman Catholic Church since 1960 which need to be addressed. I will confine the next specific questions to the Apparitions of Our Blessed Mother Mary and her messages on three occasions.

There is much controversy about the ‘Third Secret’ which was supposedly ‘revealed’ in 2000. It seems to have nothing to do with Our Blessed Mother’s request especially in light of the messages which follow when Our Lady said: “As my message has not been complied with and has not been made known to the world...”

Before going into this I wish to elaborate on the question as to whether or not the Holy Father consecrated Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary as she requested at Fatima. The Consecration was made but not in the manner which Our Blessed Mother originally requested by the Pope and all the Bishops of the world.

On 13 July 1917, Mary, Mother of Jesus Christ appeared to three young children and in part of a message She said: “...I come to ask the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart and the Communion of reparation on the first Saturdays. If they listen to my requests, Russia will be converted and there will be peace. If not she will scatter her errors through the world, provoking wars and persecutions of the Church. The good will be martyred, the Holy Father will have much to suffer, various nations will be annihilated. In the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and it will be converted and a certain period of peace will be granted to the world.”

This was a strange message about a revolution which had just started in Russia. The last part is the key. Our Blessed Mother said: ‘In the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and it will be converted and a certain period of peace will be granted to the world.’ On 7 July 1952 Pope Pius did the consecration and used the words “We entrust all the peoples of Russia to Immaculate Heart of Mary.” It is interesting to note that Pius XII was consecrated bishop on 13 May 1917, the date of the first apparition at Fatima!

1. The USSR occupied the Ukraine, and in 1933 Stalin murdered over 5 million Catholics alone, fulfilling what was said: 'the good will be martyred.'
2. On 8 Dec 1991, the feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the USSR was dissolved.
3. On 25 December Christmas Day 1991, President Michael Gorbachev resigned and declared that the USSR Soviet Office was vacant.
4. Our Blessed Mother 'delivered on her word,' and fulfilled what she had said: 'In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph!'

There were three secrets given with the July message, and Our Blessed Mother specifically requested that the 'Third Secret' be revealed to the world in 1960 or at the death of Lucia, whichever came first. As regards to the revelation of the details contained therein, the truth is that it has never been revealed to the world. A dog and pony show was put on at Fatima in the year 2000 which was a farcical attempt to deceive the world as to the contents of the 'secret.'

The simple fact is that the 'Third Secret' was to be revealed to the world at the death of the visionary Lucia (who became Sister Lucia) or in the year 1960, whichever came first. John XXIII had the audacity to disobey the Blessed Mother and refused to do as she requested. He refused to make the message public and this denial of God's Heavenly Messenger, an affront to God Almighty, and a victory for Satan. "He that shall deny Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father Who is in Heaven" (Mt 10:33).

It is my opinion that the Third Secret contained a damning report of the Papacy from 1958 onwards. Why do I say this? Because in 1884, 33 years before the Apparitions in Fatima, after celebrating Mass, Pope Leo XIII was given a vision of Satan shaking his fist at Jesus and boasting that within 100 years he would conquer the world. The vision was so terrifying to Pope Leo that he went to his office and wrote the 'Saint Michael Prayer':

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God, cast down into Hell,
Satan and all his evil spirits who wander throughout the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.”

While the vision was given in 1884, it was a vision of a future event, as Scripture says: “The Lord answered me, and said: Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables: that he that reads it may run over it. For as yet the vision is far off, and it shall appear at the end, and shall not lie: if it make any delay, wait for it: for it shall surely come, and it shall not be slack” (Hk 2:2,3). I believe that the horrible vision was for the events of the stolen papacy, the ‘ecumenism’ of the post Vatican II church and popes, and the worldly priesthood which followed.

In 1846 Our Lady appeared to two children at La Salette in France and said among other things: “The priests, ministers of my Son, the priests, by their wicked lives, by their irreverence and their impiety in the celebration of the Holy Mysteries, by their love of money, their love of honors and pleasures, the priests have become cesspools of impurity...” (See The Shepherdess of La Salette, page 8). That part of the message was denied by the Roman Catholic Church. Why? Recent history of pedophiles, homosexuals, adulterers, and fornicators has proven the truth of the message. Did the rulers of the Vatican learn a lesson? Apparently not!

The apparitions and messages at Fatima in 1917 were accepted by Popes Benedict XV; Pius XI; and Pius XII, the pope in 1960 was John XXIII and he disobeyed the Mother of Jesus Christ and refused to reveal the message to the world as requested. Was the ‘Secret’ revealed 40 years later in 2000? Absolutely not!

Now comes a very controversial question: Was there an impostor Sister Lucia, and if so, the question must be asked: “What happened to the real Sister Lucia?” There are evidences of this pro and con, not only in photographs but also in comparison of handwritings, as well as the behaviour of the Lucia of 2000 AD. There are two excellent papers on this subject which I recommend reading. An article by Marian T. Horvat, Ph.D., which examines most graphically the possibility of a real deception being carried out by those in the highest offices of the Roman Catholic Church.

Here are some of the comparisons between the ‘two Sister Lucy’s that appear quite startling, with the early pictures of the visionary on the left (Lucy 1), and the later more publicized photos on the right (Lucy 2):

The two Sister Lucias at the same age!

Disturbing as it may be, the ‘truth’ must be made examined. To view this article see the website:

<http://catholicforum.fisheaters.com/index.php?topic'1037650.0>

There is also an equally convincing rebuttal to Dr. Hovart, and for this go to:

<http://abbey-roads.blogspot.com/2009/05/sr-lucy-or-impostor.html>

Between 1962 and 1965 Our Lady also appeared to four humble children at Garabandal in Northern Spain over 2,000 times during the time of the sessions of the Vatican II Council. Our Lady of Garabandal foretold of four great supernatural events, the second of which was that a ‘Great Miracle’ will take place at the grove of pine trees at Garabandal, and as a result of the Miracle, Russia will be converted. If as a result of that ‘Great Miracle’ Russia will be converted, then Her message requesting the ‘consecration of Russia’ never took place as originally requested by the Pope in union with all the bishops of the world, and the ‘Third Secret’ never was revealed - and still is not.

Before those apparitions, in 1961 the Archangel Michael appeared to the children with a message from Our Lady which said: “We must make many sacrifices, perform much penance, and visit the Blessed Sacrament frequently. If we do not, a chastisement will befall us. The cup is already filling up and if we do not change, a very great chastisement will come upon us.” In 18 June 1965 she said to the children, again through Saint Michael: “As my message of 18 October 1961, has not been complied with and has not been made known to the world, I am advising you that this is the last one. Before, the cup was filling up, now it is flowing over. Many cardinals, many bishops and many priests are on the road to perdition and are taking many souls with them. Less and less importance is being given to the Eucharist. You should turn the wrath of God away from yourselves by your efforts. If you ask His forgiveness with sincere hearts, He will pardon you. I, your mother, through the intercession of St. Michael the Archangel, ask you to amend your lives.”

Why were ‘many cardinals, many bishops and many priests’ who were meeting at Vatican II upset at being publicly chastised? Why were the messages of 1846, 1960, 1961, denied? Why? Why did the hierarchy offend Our Lady?

I am personally convinced that the ‘Third Secret’ has not been revealed at this time. I further believe that the rulers of the Vatican have moved away from the command of Jesus: “Going therefore, teach ye all nations: baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you” (Mt 28:19,20).

Did John Paul II violate this command when he kissed the Muslim Koran? Saint John said: “If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, which is greater, because He has testified of His Son. He that believes in the Son of God has the testimony of God in himself. He that believes not the Son makes him a liar: because he believes not in the testimony which God has testified of His Son” (1Jn 5:9,10).

The Muslims deny that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. How can John Paul II kiss this false bible (the Islamic Koran)?

St. John also wrote: “For many seducers are gone out into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh: this is a seducer and an antichrist...Whosoever revolts and continues not in the doctrine of Christ has not God. He that continues in the doctrine, the same has both the Father and the Son. If any man come to you and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into the house nor say to him: ‘God speed you.’ For he that says unto him: ‘God speed you,’ communicates with his wicked works” (2Jn 1:7,9-11).

John Paul II kissed the Satanic Koran. By this action, John Paul II was saying ‘God speed you,’ and so he ‘communicates with his wicked works.’ He kissed the false religion of the Muslim.

How can he defend the Catholic Faith and kiss heresy at the same time?

How can he ‘teach all nations’ and baptize them ‘in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost’ if he bows down to the false prophet Mohammed?

How can he expect people to come to the truth if he kisses lies?

How with all his errors and heresies could Benedict XVI 'beatify' him and call him 'blessed'?

But then Benedict XVI would not be undone!!

THE LAST GOSPEL

No matter how much Catholic teaching seems to be watered down today by the forgers of error, there are some undeniable facts and truths that shall never be changed. The gates of hell shall not prevail against the Church, and the Church is Jesus Christ.

“In the beginning was the Word: and the Word was with God: and God was the Word” (Jn 1:1).

Saint Jerome renders this in the Latin: “In principio erat Verbum: et Verbum erat apud Deum: et Deus erat Verbum.”

The Perpetual Virginité of Mary.

There are those who want to crush the truth of the perpetual virginité of Mary, but: “The Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son and His Name shall be called Emmanuel” (Is 7:14).

If a woman conceives in the natural manner, she is no longer a virgin. Since God does not and cannot lie, there must be some extraordinary way in which ‘a virgin shall conceive and bear a Son’ and remain a virgin in the year 1 B.C., as was the case of Mary, the only daughter of Anna and Joachim.

Saint Luke gives us the answer: “In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David: and the virgin’s name was Mary. And the angel being come in, said unto her: ‘Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.’ Who having heard, was troubled at his saying and thought with herself what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said to her: ‘Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God. Behold thou shall conceive in thy womb and shall bring forth a Son: and thou shall call His Name Jesus. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of David His father: and He shall reign in the house of Jacob for ever. And of His Kingdom there shall be no end.’ And Mary said to the angel: ‘How shall this be done, because I know not man?’ And the angel answering, said to her: ‘The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee. And therefore also the Holy which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God’” (Lk 1:26-35).

First of all Mary knew how a woman conceives a child, because she said: ‘I know not man.’ Second of all when she asks: ‘How shall this be done?’ she is saying that she along with her betrothed Joseph had agreed to perpetual virginity, and Joseph is called a ‘just man.’ This is asserted in the Gospel of Saint Matthew: “Now the generation of Christ was in this wise. When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child, of the Holy Ghost. Whereupon Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing publicly to expose her, was minded to put her away privately. But while he thought on these things, behold the Angel of the Lord appeared to him in his sleep, saying: ‘Joseph, son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife, for that which is conceived in her, is of the Holy Ghost, and she shall bring forth a Son: and thou shall call His Name Jesus. For He shall save His people from their sins’” (Mt 1:18-21).

Jesus Christ is the Church, “...Christ is the head of the Church. He is the saviour of His Body” (Ep 5:23). The Church is ‘virgin,’ free from all contamination of man, and must remain virgin, pure, holy and immaculate. It follows that the Mother of the Church must be virgin, pure, holy and immaculate. Since Christ is the Head of the Church, and Mary is His Mother, it follows that Mary is the Mother of the Church. Those who deny this basic truth are not Christians. Those who deny this truth are antichrists. No matter how great is their number, they are antichrists ‘and the gates of hell shall not prevail against’ the Church. This brings us to another topic.

The Primacy of Peter.

“Jesus came into the quarters of Caesarea Philippi, and He asked His disciples, saying: ‘Whom do men say that the Son of man is?’ But they said: ‘Some John the Baptist, and other some Elijah, and others Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.’ Jesus said to them: ‘But whom do you say that I am?’ Simon Peter answered and said: ‘Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God.’ And Jesus answering said to him: ‘Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: because flesh and blood has not revealed it to thee, but My Father Who is in Heaven. And I say to thee: That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give to thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. And whatsoever thou shall bind upon earth, it shall be bound also in Heaven: and whatsoever thou shall loose on earth, it shall be loosed also in Heaven”’ (Mt 16:13-19).

Peter’s declaration of faith was not based on carnal knowledge, but on the revelation of Almighty God. Jesus built His Church on the faith of Peter, not on his intellect, but on the man of great faith.

See how Jesus confirmed the primacy of Peter and the ship of faith. “It came to pass, that when the multitudes pressed upon Him to hear the word of God, He stood by the lake of Genesareth, and saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them and were washing their nets. And going into one of the ships that was Simon’s, He desired him to draw back a little from the land. And sitting, He taught the multitudes out of the ship. Now when He had ceased to speak, He said to Simon: ‘Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a draught”’ (Lk 5:1-4).

There were two ships and Jesus had His choice of which one to use. He choose Peter’s. The ship here is symbolic of the Church. And (Jesus) ‘sitting, He taught the multitudes out of the ship.’ Jesus sat in the Chair of Peter! The Primacy of Peter was here shown in the physical sense, and fulfilled in the spiritual when Jesus said: ‘Thou art Peter...’

The Lord said: “Simon, Simon, behold Satan has desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat, but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and thou, being once converted, confirm thy brethren” (Lk 22:31,32).

Here we see that Jesus gave absolute authority and primacy to Peter when He said: ‘...confirm thy brethren.’

Feed My lambs and My sheep.

“Jesus said to them: ‘Bring hither of the fishes which you have now caught.’ Simon Peter went up and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, one hundred and fifty-three. And although there were so many, the net was not broken. Jesus said to them: ‘Come and dine’” (Jn 21:10-12).

It was Peter who was in charge, who did the Lord’s bidding, who went to bring in the harvest. The other apostles deferred to Peter, and through his care the net (the Keys of the Kingdom, the Seven Sacraments) was not broken.

“When therefore they had dined, Jesus said to Simon Peter: ‘Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me more than these?’ He said to him: ‘Yea, Lord, Thou know that I love Thee.’ He said to him: ‘Feed My lambs.’ He said to him again: ‘Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me?’ He saith to Him: ‘Yea, Lord, Thou know that I love Thee.’ He said to him: ‘Feed My lambs.’ He said to him the third time: ‘Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me?’ Peter was grieved because He had said to him the third time: ‘Lovest thou Me?’ And he said to Him: ‘Lord, Thou know all things: Thou know that I love Thee.’ He said to him: ‘Feed My sheep’” (Jn 21:15-17).

When Our Lord said to Saint Peter to feed My lambs and My sheep, here He gives him the spiritual supremacy over His Church, to feed the hierarchy, the priests and the people.

“Peter standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke to them: ‘Ye men of Judea, and all you that dwell in Jerusalem, be this known to you and with your ears receive my words, for these are not drunk, as you suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day: but this is that which was spoken of by the prophet Joel...They therefore that received his word were baptized: and there were added in that day about three thousand souls’” (Ac 2:14-16,41).

When Jesus said: ‘Greater things than this shall you do...’ here Peter and the Apostles convert 3,000 in one day!

The supremacy of Peter can never be doubted, and those who do so are neither Catholic nor Christian.

Saint John defers to the Primacy of Peter.

“And on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalen comes early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre: and she saw the stone taken away from the sepulchre. She ran therefore and comes to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved and said to them: ‘They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre: and we know not where they have laid Him.’ Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple: and they came to the sepulchre. And they both ran together: and that other disciple did outrun Peter and came first to the sepulchre. And when he stooped down, he saw the linen cloths lying: but yet he went not in. Then comes Simon Peter, following him, and went into the sepulchre: and saw the linen cloths lying, and the napkin that had been about His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but apart, wrapped up into one place. Then that other disciple also went in, who came first to the sepulchre, and he saw and believed” (Jn 20:1-8).

Although Saint John arrived at the tomb first, he waited until his superior Saint Peter, the authority, the first pope went in first.

The Lord foretold the strength of His Church and also its betrayal: “I will lay the key of the house of David upon his shoulder: and he shall open, and none shall shut: and he shall shut, and none shall open. And I will fasten him as a peg in a sure place, and he shall be for a throne of glory to the house of his father. And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father’s house, divers kinds of vessels, every little vessel, from the vessels of cups even to every instrument of music. In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall the peg be removed, that was fastened in the sure place: and it shall be broken and shall fall: and that which hung thereon, shall perish, because the Lord has spoken it” (Is 22:22-25).

In this passage God Almighty foretells the establishment of His Church:

'I will lay the key of the house of David upon his shoulder: and he shall open, and none shall shut: and he shall shut, and none shall open,' but He also foretells that the structure shall become contaminated and that the structure will perish: 'In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall the peg be removed, that was fastened in the sure place: and it shall be broken and shall fall: and that which hung thereon, shall perish, because the Lord has spoken it,' not the Church, but the contamination which people would try to hang upon it. This was evident in the decrees of the Vatican II Council.

With such Divine Authority and commissioning given by Jesus Christ Himself establishing the supreme government of His Church, it is absolutely impossible that any temporal government or sect try to usurp the authority given by the Lord Himself. Therefore, it is directly repugnant to the law of God and His Holy Catholic Church, that anyone should try to do so. The permanent establishment of the Catholic Church was granted by the mouth of Our Savior Christ Himself to Saint Peter and the bishops, whilst He lived and was personally present here on earth, and told to 'go, teach all nations.'

Temporal man cannot be head of a spiritual organization. Temporal man cannot usurp the Divine command. The Kingdom of God must be defended with the same dedication and conviction like any other kingdom.

Chapter 6

THE CONCLUSION AND BEGINNING

The Old Testament is concluded, the New is begun.

“He said to them: ‘With desire I have desired to eat this Pasch with you, before I suffer, for I say to you that from this time I will not eat it, till it be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God.’ And having taken the chalice, He gave thanks and said: ‘Take and divide it among you, for I say to you that I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, till the Kingdom of God come.’ And taking bread, He gave thanks and brake and gave to them, saying: ‘This is My Body, Which is given for you. Do this for a commemoration of Me.’ In like manner, the Chalice also, after He had supped, saying: ‘This is the Chalice, the New Testament in My Blood, Which shall be shed for you’” (Lk 22:15-20).

The chalice is taken twice, the first time is for the completion of the Old Testament, for He says: ‘I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, till the Kingdom of God come’ The Old Testament is now closed. Then He says: ‘This is the Chalice, the New Testament in My Blood, Which shall be shed for you’, signifying that the New Testament is opened, and it begins with the prophesy of His Blood being shed for those who would believe until the end of sin in the world, that is, until His final and total victory.

The Keys to the Kingdom.

God’s Plan is very simple, it is found in the “Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven” (Mt 16:19).

A Sacrament is the fulfilment of a Divine promise. The Seven Sacraments are the Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven. These are the Keys used to gain entrance. These Keys open the Narrow Gate by which one enters in order to come into the Kingdom. This is the only way. There is no other way. Anyone attempting to enter in by another way is a thief and a robber (Jn 10:1-5).

The Seven Sacraments are:

1. Baptism.
2. Confessions.
3. Holy Eucharist.
4. Confirmation.
5. Matrimony.
6. Holy Orders.
7. Extreme Unction.

The first two are for our preparation to receive God.

The second two are for receiving God in our being.

The third two are for living our station in life.

The seventh and final Sacrament is for our entry into Heaven.

These requirements are for everyone in existence - no exceptions.

There can be absolutely NO watering down of these keys, these Sacraments. Those who make light of them in any way do incur the wrath of Almighty God. The Seven Sacraments are the 'keys' for entry into The Kingdom of God. This is not a universal entry through a church community or a group, but an individual admittance. We are speaking here about entrance into the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in Heaven (Mt 6:9,10).

The Apostles Creed.

There is not much written about the lives of the twelve Apostles outside of the Acts of the Apostles, but from sources of other historical writers, they preached in the following nations:

Peter throughout Asia, and finally in Rome, crucified upside down on Vatican Hill. 67 A.D.

Paul as in His Missionary journeys, and beheaded in Rome. 67 A.D.

Andrew on Achaia, and crucified there.

John in Asia, died in Ephesus about 100 A.D.

Philip in Phrygia, and crucified at Hieropolis.

James the Greater in Judea, beheaded by Herod Agrippa. 44 A.D.

Bartholomew in Scythia, and flayed alive and crucified in Armenia.

Thomas in India, martyred near Madras in India.

Matthew in Armenia, martyred at Parthia.
Simon in Persia, and martyred there.
Jude Thaddeus in Mesopotamia, martyred in Persia.
James the Less in Spain, stoned to death. 62 A.D.
Matthias in Palestine, martyred in Chalcis?

They distributed themselves throughout the world to gather all people into the one Catholic Church of all Nations, according as Christ gave them commission (Mt 28:19). This ingathering was prophesied of them in the Psalms: “Their sound has gone forth into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world” (Ps 18:5).

Before they departed from another (the time is not known with certainty), the Twelve assembled together, and full of the Holy Ghost, agreed twelve principal articles of the Catholic Christian faith, and appointed them as a rule and great comfort for all believers. This prayer of faith is a beautiful summary of our belief, and should be said often. It is a reminder of what our faith and trust in God is all about. It will always be a comfort to strengthen us in times of trials and adversities.

These articles are called ‘The Apostles Creed.’ They are not written on any paper as is the Acts and the other scriptures, but we have them handed down to us from tradition as follows:

1. We believe in God the Father, Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth.
2. And in Jesus Christ, His Only Son, our Lord.
3. Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary.
4. Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried:
5. Descended into Hell.
6. The third day He rose again from the dead.
7. He ascended into Heaven; sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
8. From thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.
9. I believe in the Holy Ghost.
10. The holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints, Forgiveness of sins.

11. Resurrection of the body.

12. Life everlasting. Amen.

With this declaration of faith and belief, it is important to know that we are now entering into the concluding chapter of the history of man, ‘the old creature’ on earth, and yet into the beginning of all things new. This statement is based on fact!

In the years 1139 and 1140, Jesus gave to Saint Malachy the symbolic names of the remaining 112 popes to reign on earth until the ‘end of time.’ St. Malachy has been proven right in the 111 popes to reign beginning with Pope Celestine II in 1143 right up to the present Pope Benedict XVI in 2011. The chances for him being correct in the 112th are very good to say the least! (Reign of Christ, pp 143-146).

Let us review the current pope and how he was foretold, as well as speculate on the last pope yet to come:

Prophecy of Pope Number 111: Gloria Olivae (the glory of the olive) refers to Cardinal Ratzinger who took the name Pope Benedict XVI. The Benedictine Order are also called ‘Olivetans,’ thus the ‘glory of the olives.’

Prophecy of Pope Number 112: Petrus Romanus (Peter the Roman) is the last pope before the end of the world, (that is, the end of the world as we know it). Saint Malachy finishes his prophecies by making the only statement in all of the prophecies about this pope: “In the final persecution of the Holy Roman Church there will reign Peter the Roman, who will feed his flock among many tribulations, after which the seven-hilled city will be destroyed and the dreadful Judge will judge the people.”

With just two more pope reigns remaining before ‘the end of the world’ as we know it, that of Benedict XVI and Petrus Romanus, we must prepare ourselves for entry into the New Jerusalem, the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in Heaven, with the Keys given to us by Jesus, and these Keys are the Seven Sacraments.

In spite of Zionist/Masonic/Communist ambitions of world dominance by Jewish Natural-ism, we proclaim the supremacy of the Super-natural Life of the Mystical Body of Christ the King. The true Catholic Christians of today are currently the only spiritual descendants of Abraham.

The final chapter of the perpetrators of evil is written: “There came down fire from God out of Heaven and devoured them: and the devil, who seduced them, was cast into the pool of fire and brimstone, where both the Beast (that is the Anti-Christ) and the False Prophet (that is the False Bishop) shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Apoc 20:9,10).

The final chapter for the people of God is written: “I saw a new Heaven and a new earth, and I, John, saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband...’Behold the Tabernacle of God with men: and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself with them shall be their God.’ And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and death shall be no more. Nor mourning, nor crying, nor sorrow shall be any more, for the former things are passed away...And He that sat on the throne, said: ‘Behold, I make all things new...it is done’” (Apoc 21:1-6).

It is a fact of what is to come: ‘Behold, I make all things new...it is done’ and this means all things, and all things means the structure of the church which was stolen at Vatican II.

Through life in the Seven Sacraments the good will triumph, and evil will be defeated.

Through life in the Seven Sacraments, the One True, Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church shall emerge triumphant in Eucharistic union and oneness in God.

Through life in the Seven Sacraments, the Eucharistic Reign of Christ will be manifested in His glorious and splendid Eucharistic Church forever.

Remember that our Blessed Mother warned us at Garabandal: ‘...visit the Blessed Sacrament frequently...Less and less importance is being given to the Eucharist...’ It is time to heed the Virgin Mother of Jesus Eucharist.

“The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen” (Apoc 22:21).
