

Schedule at a Glance --- Illinois Bike Summit, Mon. May 7, 2018, UIC Student Center East (Chicago)

Sunday PM	Join us for a ride on Chicago's Lakefront Trail, followed by an informal dinner and networking. Details TBD - see illinoisbikesummit.org
Monday: Pre-Summit Coffee-Talks 8:30-9:15am	Bike 2 Campus Week promotion (Kate Yoshida, University of Illinois-Chicago) Bike advocacy and climate change (Wharton Sinkler, Des Plaines bike/ped advisory committee) Electric Bikes: New Illinois law, potential for infrastructure, and promotion (Randy Neufeld, SRAM) From A to Z: Creating marketing for bicycle events (Rick Brooks, Z-Tour) Illinois bicycle touring routes (Gary Gilbert, Arlington Heights Bicycle Club) Non-profit community bike shops and youth programs (Alex Wilson, West Town Bikes) Normal's Zagster bike sharing program (Mercy Davison, Town of Normal)
Mobile workshops	One morning and two afternoon narrated, on-(Divvy)bike tours; times TBD. Maximum of 20 per tour - if selected among applicants, bring your email as your "ticket".
Opening plenary: 9:30-10:10	Welcome and overview (Terri Rivera, Ride Illinois); Chicago's bicycle program (Rebekah Scheinfeld)
	Infrastructure track	Other E's and miscellaneous track	Advocacy track
Breakout session 1: 10:20-11:20	Small Town and Rural Multimodal Networks Guide - An Introductory Look (Tim Gustafson, Alta Planning & Design)	Education and Outreach Programs in Chicago and Illinois (Sean Wiedel and Lauren Crabtree, CDOT; Ed Barsotti, Ride Illinois)	Bike Walk Every Town - Suburban Advocacy Training 1.0 (Maggie Melin and Jim Merrell, Active Transportation Alliance)
Breakout session 2: 11:30-12:15	Chicago's Innovative Bicycle Infrastructure (Mike Amsden, Chicago DOT)	An Academic and Advocacy Look at Bike Equity in Chicago (Katherine Nিকেle, CLOCC and UIC; Dan Law Black, Slow Roll Chicago)	Get Involved: Engaging in Election Advocacy in Your Community (Kyle Whitehead, Active Transportation Alliance)
Lunch plenary	Ride Illinois awards (Dick Westfall, Vice President, Ride Illinois); Randy Blankenhorn, Secretary, Illinois Department of Transportation
Breakout session 3: 1:35-2:35	Bike-Friendly Road Projects: From Small-Scale Improvements to Complete Street Corridors (Ed Barsotti, Ride Illinois; Eric Hanss, CDOT)	From Divvy to Dockless: A Comparison of Bike Share Models (Mercy Davison, Normal; Alex Hanson, Sam Schwartz; Amanda Woodall, Chicago DOT; Dave Reed, Zagster)	Advocating for Trail Development (Steve Simmons and Matt Gomez, Active Transportation Alliance; Brendan Lynch, Bike and Hike Charleston)
Breakout session 4: 2:45-3:30	Closing Difficult Gaps in the Trail Network: A Case Study of the Riverview Bridge in Chicago (Greg Osborne, Epstein; Lubka Benak, Chicago DOT)	Over a Century as a Hub: The History of Cycling in Chicago (Chris McAuliffe, author, "Cycling in Chicago")	Flipping the Script: Giving Drivers the Legal Burden to Prove Due Care Following a Collision (Brendan Kevenides, Freeman Kevenides Law Firm)
Reception	Immediately follows the last breakout session, at UIC-Student Center East		