

Health and Safety for Senior Managers.

The role of effective leadership to successful implementation of health and safety has been shown without doubt.

But effective leadership, requires understanding.

WHO IS IT FOR

This course is intended for Managers with responsibility for strategic decision making within their organisations; those considering a new or significant health and safety initiative; or managers requiring general health and safety refresher training.

WHAT WILL CANDIDATES BE ABLE TO DO

- Understand key drivers for health and safety.
- Basic concepts of accident causation
- Understand the key legal duties for employers and managers.
- Requirement for competent advise.
- Identify key aspects of an effective Health and Safety Policy.
- Setting objectives
- Describe the purpose and structure of a management system
- Understand the basic concept of human factors.
- The role of Leadership in human factors
- The Importance of audit and Inspection

TIMING

One day, 9am—5pm.

LOCATION

At your premises, or by arrangement a suitable venue, to minimise staff travel cost.

PRICING

Typical: £200 per person*

*price variables include venue requirements and numbers.

Redcraft House
South Road
CF845SL
Phone: 07949435217
Email: info@towerhse.com

