Eternal God, Source of all mercy, give us the gift of remembering. May our memories of the departed be both tender and true, undiminished by time, not falsified by sentimentality. Let us recall them and love them as they were. Give us the gift of tears. Let us express our sense of loss, our sorrow, and our pain, as well as our gratitude and love. Give us the gift of prayer. May You comfort us with an open heart and trusting faith. Give us the gift of hope. May we always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy. May we surrender our being, and the souls of the departed, to Your eternal compassion.
“The memory of the righteous shall be a blessing.”

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning’s hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

Don’t grieve for me, for now I’m free
I’m following the path God laid for me.
I took God’s hand when I heard the call;
I turned my back, and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life’s been full. I savored much -
Good friends, good times, a loved one’s touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don’t lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
It’s my time; I’ve been set free.

I never think of myself as waiting for you,
but then when the holiday has come and gone
when I'm packing up the Pesah dishes, or taking down the sukkah
I feel hopeless and alone.
Inconsolable
Then I realize
I’ve left a small corner
somewhere deep inside myself
unpainted.

And in that small corner
I’m still a child,
a little girl,
waiting.

And I had hoped without knowing it
that this chag
you’d come.

My tears fall on the Pesah dishes
and I wonder
why you’ve left me here
alone.

I often feel that death is not the enemy of life, but its friend; for it is the knowledge that our years are limited which makes them so precious. It is the truth that time is but lent to us which makes us at our best and helps us look upon our years as a trust handed into our temporary keeping.

We are like children privileged to spend a day in a great park, a park filled with many gardens and playgrounds, azure-tinted lakes with white boats sailing upon the tranquil waves.

True, the day allotted to each of us is not the same in length, in light, in beauty. Some children of earth are privileged to spend a long and sunlit day in the garden of the earth. For others the day is shorter, cloudier, and dusk descends more quickly as in a winter’s tale.

But whether our life is a long summery day or a shorter wintry afternoon, we know that inevitably there are storms and squalls which overcast even the bluest heaven and there are sunlight rays which pierce the darkest autumn sky. The day that we are privileged to spend in the great park of life is not the same for all human beings; but there is enough beauty and joy and gaiety in the hours, if we will but treasure them.

Then for each of us the moment comes when the great nurse, death, takes us by the hand and quietly says, “It is your bedtime, child of earth. Come, you’re tired. Lie down at last in the quiet nursery of nature and sleep. Sleep well. The day is gone. Stars shine in the canopy of eternity.”

Togetherness

Death is nothing at all - I have only slipped away into the next room,

   Whatever we were to each other,
       That we are still;

Call me by my old familiar name,

   Speak to me in the easy way which you always used.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

   Play, Smile, Think of me, Pray for me.
Let my name be the household word that it always was,

   Let it be spoken without effort
   - Life means all that it ever meant;
       It is the same as it ever was.
There is absolutely unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight?

I am but waiting for you, for an interval somewhere very near,

   Just around the corner.

All is well, nothing is Past, nothing is Lost;

One brief moment and all will be as it was before -

   Only better;

Infinitely happier and forever

We will all be one… together.

Reflections

WHEN GOD CLAIMS GOD’S OWN

Something precious is taken from us, and we think of it as something we have lost, instead of something we have had. We remember only how empty our lives are now, we forget how full and rich they were before; we forget all the many days and years of happiness we lived while our beloved was still with us. We praise God for our treasures while we have them; we cease to praise God for them when they have fled. But God never gives; God only lends. What is life itself but a loan?

When God claims God’s own shall we rebel? Instead of murmuring because God takes our precious things from us, let us be grateful to God for having spared them to us so long. Let us count the past happy days not as loss, but as gain. We have had them; and, now that they are ended, let us turn the loss to glorious gain—the gain that comes with new courage, with nobler tasks, with a wider outlook on life and duty.
