CAPTAIN'S NOTES

Hi everybody,

Well, it's August already and damned hot, as I'm writing this its 6.00pm and hitting 41c, even a slight breeze isn't helping. Lets carry on from where I left off last month, about to enjoy the last of this year's majors, The Open at Royal Portrush. What a fantastic win for Shane Lowry, who became the fifth player from the Emerald Isles to lift the Claret Jug. Following the final round I fired off an email to David McConnell, a GINS member living in County Kildare, but visits us regularly in Spain, some of you know him I'm sure, just saying what a great day for the Irish. I got a reply the following morning from David saying he had, with a few buddies, watched the whole final round in a pub. I had never received a blurred email before.....

Also, thanks to Brian Wiggins who sent us his photos from Portrush. (see page 9)

Just a mention about our website. Work is in progress on areas where it is felt we can improve on the current site. The committee will be meeting later this month to look, in depth, at the draft copy prepared by Derek Sibson and, hopefully, agree on the final format.

Just recently I sent out a communiqué to all members on two issues that need to be addressed. The first to fill the vacant position of Vice Captain for the current year leading, of course, to the Captaincy of GINS for next year. The second issue is to find a replacement for Robert Durston, who will be stepping down as the GINS secretary at the end of this year. This is a perfect opportunity for any members who feel they can give something back to our society by putting themselves forward to fill either of these roles. So, don't hide your light under a bushel, contact me direct, (terryeverett1015@gmail.com) if you are interested in either position.

A short while ago I was contacted by a representative of the Miguel Angel Jimenez Academy in Torremolinos with a view to setting up a challenge match between GINS and the Academy of 18 holes to be played on their 9 hole, par three course. This is a wonderful opportunity to have a fun day out and not too far to travel. The basics of the day include:

- 18 x par three holes of golf
- BBQ Buffet
- Drinks during the buffet (cañas, water and soft drinks)

All of this for just €40 per person!

As this is a flat and short course, there are only two buggies available at a cost of €15 per buggy (€7.50 each) so first come first served. A possible date, but not set in stone at the moment, is Thursday, 3rd October, therefore eliminating any clash with GINS regular days. So, a great opportunity to show what you can do on a par three (you're going to get 18 attempts at it for goodness sake!) plus a BBQ and free drinks - all for just €40. If you are interested in coming along for a relaxing enjoyable day then please contact me direct on the same email address mentioned earlier. Just a bit of trivia about this course, the 7th is a replica of the famous 12th at Augusta National.

That's about it from me for this month, happy golfing.

Terry

GINS Vacancies

Position of Vice Captain for the current year leading, of course, to the Captaincy of GINS for next year.

The second issue is to find a replacement for Robert Durston, who will be stepping down as the GINS secretary at the end of this year. This is a perfect opportunity for any members who feel they can give something back to our society by putting themselves forward to fill either of these roles.

LOS MOS

Not long now!
Los Moriscos re-starts on Friday 6th September. We are starting with a team game – a Pairs Betterball – full handicap.

Please email me if you wish to play – ginslosmosrep@gmail.com – don't forget to say if you would rather buggy than walk. It will still be quite warm!

The management of Los Moriscos have advised me that they will be hollow-tining the greens starting Monday 15th September. Hope you have enjoyed the summer – it has certainly been a hot and humid one. Bill and I look forward to seeing you on the 6th.

CAPTAIN'S ELITE TOURNAMENT.

Thursday 17th October – they are sponsoring a special competition

There will be a shot gun start at 10.30 a.m.

The excellent rates are as follows:

Teams of 4.

Round of golf:, dinner in the hotel and overnight stay: prize presentation €66.75 per person.

To stay in the hotel prior to the competition Wednesday 16th will be €50 p.p. B & B or €65 p.p. H.B.

These are based on 2 people sharing a room. Single supplement €25

Buggies (recommended) €35 p.p. in a shared buggy.

If players would like to play the following day there is a special rate of green fee in a share buggy €35 p.p. Non golfing partners and wives are very welcome at €69 p.p. overnight stay on half board.

There is an excellent spa thermal water treatment etc. (see their web site). This pamper would be extra!

If you are interested in putting forward a team contact Robert Majilton at La Envía – he will be happy to see you there. reservas@laenvia.com

If you have never played La Envía Golf Course, why not give it a go!

La Envía is based in Vicar, Almería (straight down the A 7 motorway!)

La Envía has a great hotel on the course, good restaurant, bars and pro shop. Have a look at their web site: www.laenvia.com

The golf course is approx. 2 hours from Nerja.

GINS at Royal Portrush

We went on holiday to Northern Ireland to go to the Open at Royal Portrush. Whilst there we met up with Linda and Crawford Anderson and Keith and Neilma Jary. Wonderful golf and wonderful course. Hopefully it will return to Northern Ireland in the coming years.

We were very lucky to get seats (all 6 of us) on the 18th grandstand on Sunday and watched all the players come in. Great atmosphere despite the rain but it didn't spoil the enjoyment.

We were disappointed that Rory didn't make the cut but Shaun Lowry was a very worthy winner.

Brian Wiggins
