CAPTAIN'S NOTES

Hi everybody,

Well, I think I must start this month's notes by telling you all about the GINS v The Miguel Angel Jimenez Academy challenge match held on Thursday, 3rd October at their 9 hole course at Torremolinos. Sixteen 'Ginners' turned up in plenty of time for the shotgun start at 10.30am, albeit one or two of us by a roundabout route! Great not having far to walk to your designated hole! By the time we arrived, Sam Cadenas, deputy director of the Academy, had everything in place for the match, including our table for 32 players already laid up for the after match B-B-Q.

We went out in eight groups of four all playing off scratch, the 9 holes (played twice) ranging from 59 to 130 yards, easy peasy, yeah right! The best lowest 10 scores of each side would decide the winning team.

If I tell you, against the course par of 54, The Academy beat us with an average individual score of 68.7 against ours of 71.5, you will appreciate the holes were a little trickier than they looked! Bearing in mind that many of the Academy players spend a lot of hours playing these holes every week, I think our team did remarkably well, thank you team. The friendliness and hospitality shown by the Spanish players towards our members was fantastic and, even if there was a slight language barrier between us, we all seemed to understand the expletives aimed at ourselves when we overshot the small greens.

I also suggested to Sam we have a prize for the four lowest individual scores, and one of those was won by our own Bob Merrilees with a 66, well done Bob.

Sam made the first hole (and the tenth) nearest the pin, so we all had two chances at it, that meant nothing to me! However, the winner of that competition went to John Blanco who finished up just 98 centimetres from the flag, great stuff John.

After the match we were sat down to a splendid B-B-Q and a selection of drinks.

Sam and I have agreed that there will be a return match next year, probably around October time, to be held at Los Moriscos, as both courses are similar in terms of topography, both flat, but a little more water than at the Academy. A fantastic fun day enjoyed by all 32 players.

Although these dates are shown on the attached calendar, just a reminder of upcoming events during October and November. The McCracken Trophy will be at Los Moriscos on Friday 25th October, always a popular event, slight change this year, the after match meal will be in the restaurant/bar area at the course. We look forward to a healthy turnout for this one - plenty of prizes to be won. The following night, Saturday, 26th October is our very popular annual Quiz night organised and run by Bob Merrilees. As I go to press I am delighted to confirm that we have a full compliment for the evening. Don't forget to have some paper and, at least one pen/pencil with you. One of our major sponsored events, The El Puente Master, is only a month away with all three courses holding their day w/c 4th November. As many of you know Antonio and Yolanda provide spectacular prizes for this tournament, presented during the El Puente Dinner on Saturday 16th November. We have a slight change this year in putting our names down and paying for the dinner. The three course reps will be taking both your names and the money (€25pp) during the three days of the competition itself, or indeed any of the playing days prior to w/c 4th November.

Also coming up are the three Captain's days to be held, earlier this year, on all three courses w/c 11th November. As usual Ray and Olly have offered to provide ample refreshments at all three courses, a big thank you to them. And finally, don't forget Los Moriscos Ladies Day on Friday, 29th November - ladies start getting your teams together! Wow, a lot going on until the end of November so plenty of notes in yours diaries please.

The last item from me this month is a reminder that we are taking deposits NOW for the away trip next year (28th February to 4th March) staying at the 4 star Barcelo Cabo de Gata Hotel for 5 nights and playing 3 rounds of golf at the adjoining beachside Alboran Golf Course. Details of the trip have been included in the eNews for the last month and are included again in this newsletter. We have a fantastic deal next year, only slightly up on this year's prices. Please bear with us, I am aware that we are asking you to fork out for three events all relatively close together.

That's about it, lots of golf and social events coming up over the next six weeks so let's enjoy them.

All the best

Terry

GINS Away Trip 2020

Friday 28th February 2020 to Wednesday 4th March 2020

5 nights, 3 rounds of golf and a free day

Introduction

For Captain Terry's year we are returning to 4 star Barcelo Cabo de Gata hotel and playing the adjoining beachside Alboran Golf Course. The course is less than 1km from the hotel and there is plenty of parking so no long distances between hotel and first tee involved. Golf clubs can be stored overnight at the course. The course is very suitable for GINS members as it is fairly flat and many people can walk, as they did last time.

How much will it cost ?

Golf prices are rising all over Andalusia (thanks to Scandinavians mainly), and many courses we researched are just way out of our price range. However, Alboran and the Barcelo have agreed to take us again at only a small increase on what we paid in 2018.

2 Golfers sharing	€425 euros per person
Non-golfer sharing	€325 euros per person
Single Golfer	€510 euros per person

So why not join us?

- Enjoy 5 nights of great fun and fellowship with all your GINS friends
- 3 rounds of golf in competition- but nothing too serious but with great prizes.
- We play on Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday.
- Buggies are €20 but the course is walkable for many
- Monday is the free day to explore the Cabo De Gata area with its amazing flora and fauna and dramatic coastline
- No more than 2.5 hours' drive from Nerja

Liz Conlan and Katherine Paterson will be organizing fun for the non-golfers.

Liberty Seguros

Competition at Los Moriscos

A great day for the Liberty Seguros sponsored day.

Jennifer, Liberty Seguros agent, was delighted with the turn out and was happy to hand out a selection of fine wines to the winners. Everyone received a cap and some even were lucky to win umbrellas, not that we need them for rain, that is in short supply! But they will come in useful in the future.

Jennifer has asked me to remind you all that she can offer competitive rates for home and car insurance, pet insurance, accident insurance and funeral plans.

Her number is:658 077 748 and email:

REMINDER

Message from the Handicap Secretary:

At this time of year when the snowbirds complete their journey south after a long, hot and dry (☺) summer. We would draw your attention to the GINS Handicapping Policy as presented on the GINS website, specifically the section entitled 'Handicap Review' (<http://www.ginsgolf.com/gins/latest-handicaps/>).

If we find that GINS members are not playing to their lowest handicap; either a GINS allocated handicap or one held at a Federated club then we will adjust their handicap accordingly. As per the policy, please contact the Handicap Secretary (GINS_Handicaps@Outlook.com) if your current GINS handicap is not your lowest handicap.

GINS Vacancies

Position of Vice Captain for the current year leading, of course, to the Captaincy of GINS for next year.

The second issue is to find a replacement for Robert Durston, who will be stepping down as the GINS secretary at the end of this year. This is a perfect opportunity for any members who feel they can give something back to our society by putting themselves forward to fill either of these roles.
