CAPTAIN'S NOTES

Hola everybody,

My first, and I have to say delightful, piece of news I have to impart upon you this month is that I, and you, have a Vice Captain for the remainder of this year. Gill Green, our current membership secretary, approached me recently and volunteered to 'step up to the mark', putting herself forward as Vice Captain for the rest of my term. I know you will all join me in thanking Gill, a very popular member of our society, for coming forward and wish her well for this year as Vice Captain. Gill will continue, alongside her role as Vice Captain, to act as membership Secretary for the remainder of this year. That's one problem area I can cross off my list!

My second item this month is to report on the Captain's Elite Tournament held on 17th/18th October last, at the La Envía golf resort, located just before Almeria. The 'Elite' bit sounds a bit grand but in fact it was a friendly and well run invitation event and great fun, with Ian Paterson and David McConnell joining me for the two days. The course itself was not easy, although spectacular to look at as you went round, the holes played longer than the card said - well I thought so anyway! The three of us did the best we could and just enjoyed the day's golf.

Moving on, we held our annual GINS quiz night this year on Saturday 26th October at the El Puente Restaurant. After a slow start getting number together, it suddenly went through the roof and in the end, after squeezing in 11 tables.

We actually had to disappoint a few people.

A big thank you to Bob Merrilees, our quizmaster, ably assisted by Cynthia, who put together a varied and interesting bunch of questions, some of which our team knew the answer!

Also a big thank you to John and Liz Conlan who organized the prizes, well done all four of you. It would be remiss of me if I didn't mention the fantastic quality, and quantity, of food presented by Antonio and his staff during the mid way break in the proceedings. I don't know if it's me, but there seems to be an extra course every time I go to one of these quizzes!

Although we have, officially, closed the book for members attending the GINS Away Trip next year, the door is left 'ajar' for any late decision makers that find they can join us for our 5 night stay at the 4 star Barcelo Cabo de Gata hotel with three days of golf at the adjoining beachside Alboran Golf Course for the period 28th February to 4th March 2020. Full details of the trip, including costs, are displayed in our weekly eNews and Monthly Newsletter, so there is still time to be included in this very popular GINS event, whether you are a golfer or non golfer. For anybody interested in joining in the fun please contact John Conlan at ginstreasuer@outlook.com.

As I go to press we have come to the end of the El Puente Masters week of golf. The prize format this year is 1st, 2nd and 3rd prize for both men and ladies on each course, so eighteen prize winners! In the event of anybody being 'in the frame' on more than one course, the higher position will count the lower one being discounted and the next person moving up a place. Also, as is always the case in sponsored events, the winners must be present at the El Puente dinner on 16th November to collect their prize. We would hope that winners will partake in the actual dinner, but if not you must be present after the dinner to collect your well earned goodies.

By the time you receive this report we will have probably completed my Captain's Days of golf. There will be lots of prizes to be won, so many of you will go home with more than you came with.

That's about it from me this month,

All the best

Terry

GINS Vacancies

There will be a vacancy as Robert Durston will be stepping down as the GINS secretary at the end of this year. This is a perfect opportunity for any members who feel they can give something back to our society by putting themselves forward to fill this role.

GINS Away Trip 2020

Friday 28th February 2020 to Wednesday 4th March 2020

5 nights, 3 rounds of golf and a free day

Introduction

For Captain Terry's year we are returning to 4 star Barcelo Cabo de Gata hotel and playing the adjoining beachside Alboran Golf Course. The course is less than 1km from the hotel and there is plenty of parking so no long distances between hotel and first tee involved. Golf clubs can be stored overnight at the course. The course is very suitable for GINS members as it is fairly flat and many people can walk, as they did last time.

How much will it cost ?

Golf prices are rising all over Andalusia (thanks to Scandinavians mainly), and many courses we researched are just way out of our price range. However, Alboran and the Barcelo have agreed to take us again at only a small increase on what we paid in 2018.

2 Golfers sharing	€425 euros per person
Non-golfer sharing	€325 euros per person
Single Golfer	€510 euros per person

So why not join us?

- Enjoy 5 nights of great fun and fellowship with all your GINS friends
- 3 rounds of golf in competition- but nothing too serious but with great prizes.
- We play on Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday.
- Buggies are €20 but the course is walkable for many
- Monday is the free day to explore the Cabo De Gata area with its amazing flora and fauna and dramatic coastline
- No more than 2.5 hours' drive from Nerja

Liz Conlan and Katherine Paterson will be organizing fun for the non-golfers.

REMINDER

Message from the Handicap Secretary:

At this time of year when the snowbirds complete their journey south after a long, hot and dry (☺) summer. We would draw your attention to the GINS Handicapping Policy as presented on the GINS website, specifically the section entitled 'Handicap Review'

If we find that GINS members are not playing to their lowest handicap; either a GINS allocated handicap or one held at a Federated club then we will adjust their handicap accordingly. As per the policy, please contact the Handicap Secretary ginshandicap@gmail.com if your current GINS handicap is not your lowest handicap.

Nerja Dog Show

Classes range from Best Pedigree in show to Best Rescue and Fancy Dress. Donkey rides by Nerja Donkey Sanctuary and an Agility Display by the Dog Academy

Graham Birch and his dog Lolo

Just won first place best rescue dog at Nerja dog show today. Graham (and Lolo) play every Monday at Añoreta.

The second of the Costa Animal Society's annual fun family dog shows, Scruffs Nerja.

By kind permission of the town hall, it was held on the site of Nerja's weekly market near the Almirante II urbanisation. As usual, the centre of attention are the dogs themselves, whose owners enter them in a number of different classes. Every pedigree and pooch is welcome to participate in the event, whether owned by a Spanish family or a foreign resident.

Keith and Morag in Barcelona

We visited Barcelona for the first time, really to see the Sagrada Familia. We were not disappointed, even paying double, as all the tickets were “sold-out”! What a fantastic creation by Gaudi.

The hotel/hostal was interesting, but the highlight was the stained glass.

A fabulous trip, complete with great sites, great food, pick-pockets and riots.

The national police put on a very good show.

Most trouble was caused by Young people. The destruction to vehicles and cafes was quite simply vandalism. It is estimated to cost the city was €2.7 million in destroyed.

We hope to return in few years. Hopefully without the rioters!
