

BRAIN LINK

Building better brain research

Sunday 15 March 10.30-3.00pm

Oxford Suite, Kassam Stadium, Grenoble Road, Oxford OX4 4XP

Researchers at the University of Oxford are looking for members of the public to help design new neuroscience research.

At this event we will showcase our current research and invite you to connect with the researchers who study topics that interest you.

Free lunch provided as well as tea/coffee on arrival. No booking required - just turn up on the day!
