

Raxio Group (“Raxio”) is a Roha Group portfolio company investing in and building state-of-the-art Tier III data centers across Africa. Through our investments and hands-on approach, we seek to address the latent demand for critical data center infrastructure that will drive digital transformation across the region. Raxio has made its first data investments in Uganda and Ethiopia by establishing and developing Raxio Data Centre (“Raxio”), state-of-the-art facilities on the outskirts of Kampala and Addis Ababa. As we ramp up our operations and build facilities in new markets, we are hiring staff members who are interested in building a successful business in an exciting time. As part of this entrepreneurial and dynamic team, we are looking to hire:
