

BIRDS IN FLIGHT

PEREGRINE
FALCON
FALCO PEREGRINUS

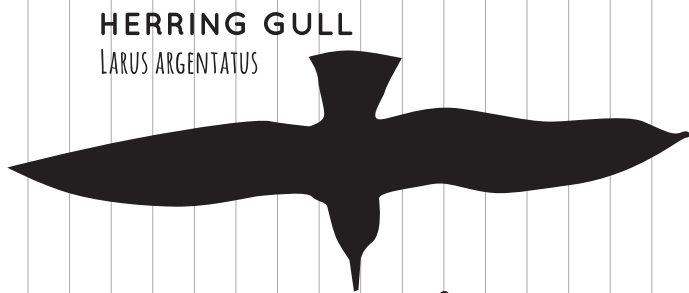

You don't always need binoculars to spot these impressive birds.

Look out for their distinctive shapes in the sky.

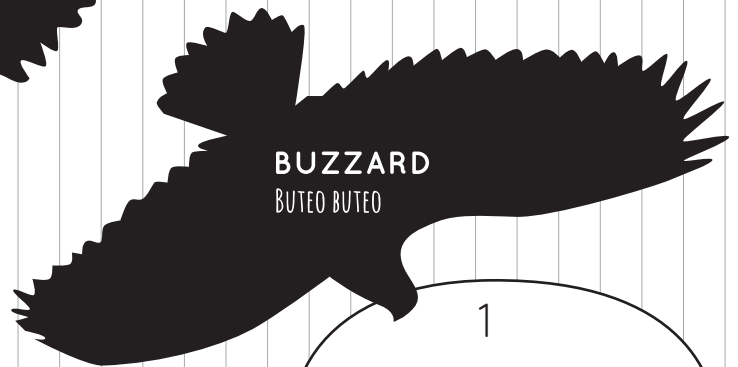

WHITE-TAILED EAGLE
HALIAEETUS ALBICILLA

A Golden eagle can have a 2 metre wing span making it one of the largest birds in the UK

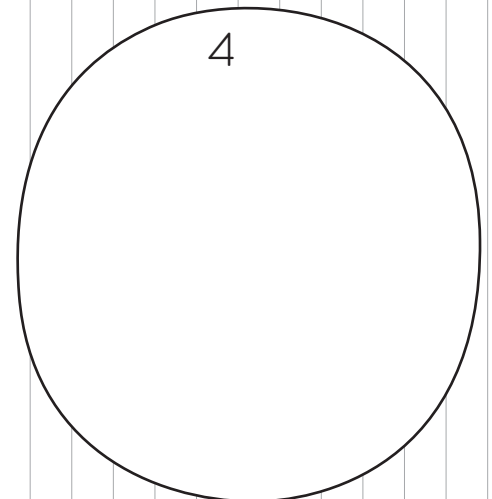

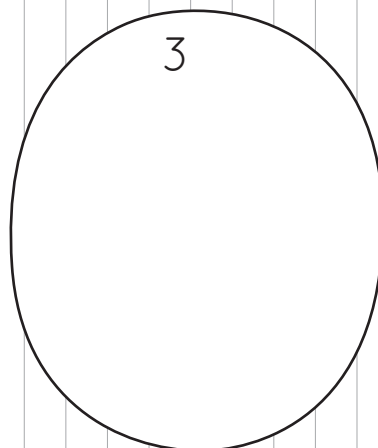

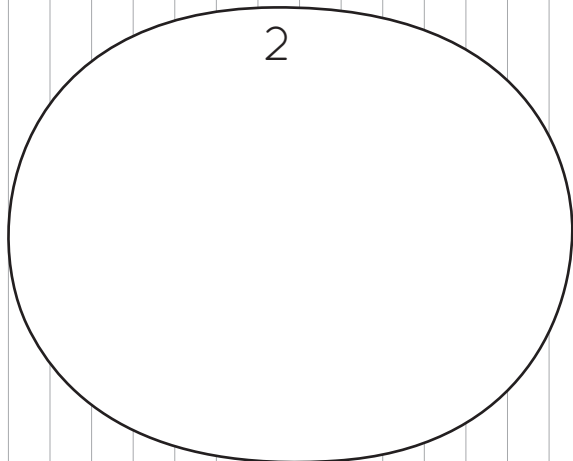

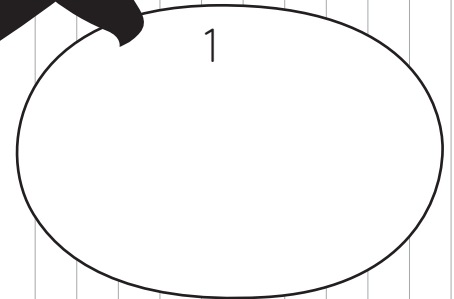

HERRING GULL
LARUS ARGENTATUS

BUZZARD BUTEO BUTEO

draw your favourite finds

LEARN TO FIND ANIMAL TRACKS ON THE GROUND

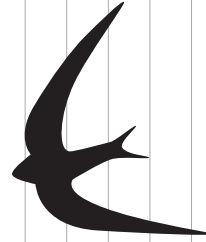

BIRDS IN FLIGHT

You don't always need binoculars to spot these impressive birds.

Look out for their distinctive shapes in the sky.

SWIFT
APUS APUS

SWALLOW
HIRUNDO RUSTICA

FIVE WAYS TO SPOT INTERESTING THINGS IN NATURE:

- ALWAYS BE ALERT
- KEEP VERY STILL
- LOOK FOR MOVEMENT
- BE PATIENT
- BE QUIET

MALLARD
ANAS PLATYRHYNCHOS

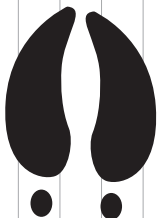

HANDY BIRD IDENTIFICATION TIPS:

ALWAYS LOOK OUT FOR

1. WING SPAN
2. NECK LENGTH
3. BEAK TYPE
4. TAIL SHAPE

LEARN TO FIND ANIMAL TRACKS ON THE GROUND

RED DEER

ROE DEER

FALLOW DEER

PLACE: _____

FINDS: _____