

Name: .....

Class: 2/G.....

His name was Darren and he was born in 1999. He stopped going to school because he didn't want to work hard. He didn't want to study and wanted to play with his friends instead. On Monday mornings he woke up late and on weekends he slept all the time. One day, when Darren was eighteen, his father lost his job. Derren had to work now. He didn't have much education so he couldn't get a good job. He had to sell apples and bananas to tourists in Marrakech. He didn't study English at school so he couldn't talk to them. He didn't make much money and he didn't like his job. On Tuesday, May 5th 2020 he saw his classmates enjoying expensive steak together. He wished that he had worked harder at school but now it was too late.
