

Shopping in Marrakech

Marrakech in Morocco is famous for its big central square, Djemaa el-Fna, and its souks or street markets. A souk is a maze of small streets with stalls and small shops. There are different things for sale in each street. For example, in one street they sell carpets and in the next traditional clothes, like caftans (long dresses for women) or a fez (a round red hat for men).

Jewellery and leather products are also very popular. Sometimes craftsmen sit outside and make their products in front of the customers. The craftsmen and shop assistants invite people into their shops and say "Come in and have a look," in different languages. Then, they usually offer some sweet mint tea. The prices of the products are not fixed. The answer to the question "How much is this?" is usually "how much do you want to pay?"
