

Drakon Heritage and Conservation is an LLP providing conservation services and heritage solutions to heritage organisations, private individuals and development-funded projects across the UK.

The practice offers archaeological, conservation and research expertise and training, including: investigative and preventive conservation (including on-site), project management, disaster preparedness, editorial and publications support, collections care, storage review and exhibitions.

CONSERVATION,
PROJECT
MANAGEMENT &
HERITAGE SERVICES
www.drakonheritage.co.uk
@drakonheritage

Pieta Greaves ACR
pieta@drakonheritage.co.uk
07905 711414

Jenni Butterworth PhD
jenni@drakonheritage.co.uk
07811 114564

Lizzie Miller MA
lizzie@drakonheritage.co.uk
07745 123669 (thurs, fri)

Workshop
On-site archaeological conservation for archaeologists

Conservation advice for finders

Drakon Heritage and Conservation provides on-site archaeological conservation services to private individuals and organisations. Our services include:

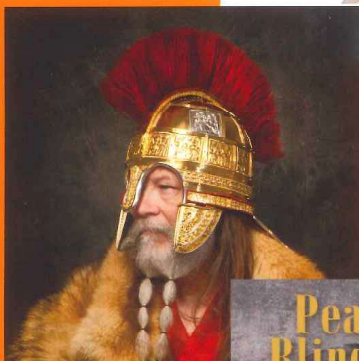

- On-site archaeological conservation
- Project management
- Disaster preparedness
- Collections care
- Research and publication support
- Outreach and training

Conservation advice for finders

This guide is aimed at finders, and is intended to provide practical advice on how to care for and store archaeological finds. It covers:

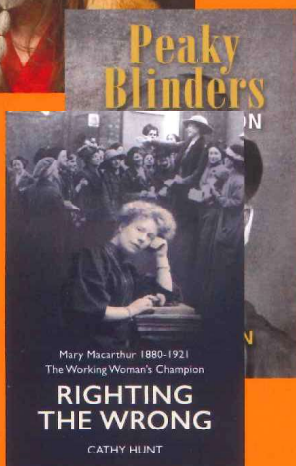

- How to identify finds
- How to record finds
- How to care for finds
- How to store finds
- How to transport finds
- How to display finds
- How to share finds

Guidance and training

Exhibition and outreach

Edit, research and writing for publication

Services

Conservation

- Archaeological conservation
- X-ray
- Museum collections conservation
- Conservation of historic house collections
- Exhibition and loan support

Project Management

- Project management, project assurance and coordination
- Secretariat and coordination functions for groups and organisations
- Development of research designs
- Exhibition coordination

Collections Care

- Collections care advice and guidance
- Disaster management, environmental monitoring and pest management
- Benchmark assessments, audits and collections decant
- Surveys, management plans and collection health checks

Research/ Publication

- Research, writing and editing for publication, broadcast and project documentation
- Communications

Outreach

- Education, outreach and heritage interpretation, conference speaking

Training

- First aid for archaeological finds workshop
- Care of collections workshop
- Apprenticeship development

Identification of materials

Digital X-rays

Conservation of Egyptian objects

Micro-excavation of archaeological materials