Dear Parent(s)/ Carer(s)

Things to celebrate this week:

- Having the joy of observing the breadth of 'happenings' here at St Gabriel's. I looked back on the last week and was just amazed at the amount on offer. We must continue to recognise and be grateful for staff that constantly go above and beyond normal expectations, to not only academically extend and challenge our pupils, but to also provide a rich diversity of experiences
- Despite several grey days the school is buzzing with the hard work and efforts of children and staff
- Our glorious daffodils and crocuses brighten our playground

- Academically, Class 6 are being given an hour and a half extra teaching four days a week
- Spiritually, the children were a credit to the school at Mass on Ash Wednesday
- If you were present at Family Assembly you would have seen the wonderful outcomes of Class 5's workshops at Pimlico library

- That same assembly was riot of colour when reading and books came to life with the most fantastic costumes. Thanks to Miss Chittenden for organizing World Book Day and to you for your support

- We observed inquisitive minds following Class 2's trip to Kensington Palace and Class 4's to the British Museum.
- Classes 5 and 6, and then 3 and 4, had a great time working together, as well as competing in Book Quiz organised by Random House
- The Premises, Admissions, Curriculum and Community, Finance and Staffing Committee have met. Our thanks goes to these volunteers who put so much time, commitment and energy into the school
- You may have noticed a new logo at the bottom of this page. Yes!! We have been achieved the Bronze Healthy Schools Award. We are most grateful to Ms Wilson who worked very hard to co-ordinate this
- Mrs Gallon and Ms Dobson both visited last week with their delightful baby daughters
- The Bishop of Fulham confirmed Chinbold, Alanna, Rhys and Brooke at St Gabriel's Church
- Some members of Class 5 represented Westminster Schools at the Camden Launch of Smartgym. In her thank you letter, the Mayor of Camden, Cllr Nadia Shah, said they were great ambassadors of our school and had impressive knowledge and passion

- Year 2 learnt a great deal when Father Owen gave them a tour of St Gabriel's Church
- Miss Anson and Mrs Wotherspoon attended a Safeguarding Course

Yes, it has been busy!
