

Literacy 5 – Write your own story

Re-watch “Please please the bees” on Storyline online.

Write a new story about Benedict and the bees.

You could change the ending, perhaps the bees move away, or Benedict doesn't grow flowers. You could write a second story that follows this one, about the bees helping benedict with his errands or Benedict making jumpers for the bees.

Use this grid to help you plan your story, and then write it in your book. I have started the who box for you.

Who Benedict – he is a bear who likes honey a lot. He can knit and bake and play violin. Bees – they make honey for Benedict. They live in Benedict's garden and the love flowers. They work as a team.	Where
