Excellence with Compassion

Dear Parents,

I hope all of our families had a restful half term break.

INSET

Yesterday our staff took part in several training sessions. We covered again all of the systems we have in place to reduce the risk of Covid and support staff took part in a training session on Google Classrooms. Teachers worked together moderating maths work and we had a creative session on our school values.

This week every class will be taking part in a values art activity and creating printed images linked to our school Christian values. These will be put together to create several banners.

Teachers and support staff enjoyed learning how to create the printed images yesterday in preparation for doing this with the children this week, and classes 2 and 3 made a start on their printing today. Can you tell which of our values the images represent?

School Photos- deadline tomorrow

If you would like to order an individual school photo, the deadline for this is tomorrow. Please return your orders and correct money by the end of tomorrow.

We're working towards Artsmark Awarded by Arts Council England

The coming weeks...

As we approach another lockdown, schools across the country continue to remain open to ensure that our children can continue to access face to face education and prevent our children from missing out on vital learning, impacting hugely on their futures. We will however, continue to prepare children for the possibility of isolating and learning from home, spending our computing lessons further familiarising ourselves with Google Classrooms. This week teachers are videoing themselves teaching a lesson and will be going through it with the children so that they know how to access one of our online video lessons, should they need to in the coming weeks/months.

We have been asked to share the following information:
