

Meeting the Needs of Autistic Students

Sarah Wild, Headteacher of Limpsfield Grange Surrey, will be talking about her research and publication on this subject.

This session will focus on outlining how autism impacts learners and will include practical strategies for education staff to use in classrooms.

Suitable for

Primary and Secondary SENDCOs, teachers and support staff involved in supporting the education of children

When and Where

Monday 23rd March, Kings College, Guildford
4.00pm – 5.30pm

To Book

Please control/click here: Autism CPD Booking Link

Fee

£25 per person

Please contact jblackwood@georgeabbot.surrey.sch.uk if you have any questions