Dear Parents and Carers,

This is just a short letter to send our love and best wishes as we begin a very strange, very different, Easter weekend. Although we have all had to adapt to new ways of living over the past weeks, finding ourselves more or less isolated, in many ways there has never been a time we have been so connected. Like you, we too hope and pray that there will soon be an end to this terrible crisis and we can once again live life to the full.

Today the children who have attended school have planted some seeds in our flower tubs which we hope will soon grow, ready to welcome us all back to school one day – the promise of new life in the world around us, from the blossom on the trees to the sight of new born lambs, is a reminder that there is hope of a brighter future. Indeed, the celebration of the Risen Christ on Easter Day brings all of us joy and hope.

So, as we journey through the next few days we set you a little challenge to help us all stay connected:

Today, Maundy Thursday, is the day we remember Jesus sharing the last supper with his disciples during which He said “do this to remember me”. Say a little prayer for the family and friends you miss seeing, and remember them. Be thankful and happy for the times you shared together and pray that soon you will be able to be with them again.

Tomorrow, Good Friday, we are reminded that Jesus loved us so much he gave his life on the cross. Create a cross in your home, say a prayer to Jesus to say thank you for His love and try to be as loving and caring as Jesus was. If you would like to, send a photograph of the cross you create to office@stpaulsrc.org.uk

On Easter Sunday, celebrate the Good News that Jesus is Alive! Enjoy your Easter eggs and if you have decorated an egg or made an Easter bonnet we would love to see a photo too! Say this little prayer from your Wednesday Word booklet – “Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for this Sunday’s wonderful celebration of your resurrection. Please bless my family with new life throughout the great season of Easter. Amen”

So on behalf of all the staff and governors at St Paul’s, we wish you a Happy and Holy Easter.
We pray for you and all those you love; stay safe.

Yours sincerely,

S. C. Sinclair
